

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

MINUTES.

THE General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America met agreeably to appointment, in the First Presbyterian Church in the city of Philadelphia, THURSDAY, May 20th, 1830, at 11 o'clock, A. M.; and was opened by the Rev. BENJAMIN H. RICE, the Moderator of the last Assembly, with a Sermon, from John xviii. 36, 37. "Jesus answered, my kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence. Pilot therefore said unto him, art thou a king then? Jesus answered, thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice."

The two following resolutions, adopted by the General Association of Massachusetts, and contained in the report of the delegates to that body, were approved by this Assembly, and ordered to be entered on the minutes, viz.

"1. Resolved, that this Association having learned that the existing rule of intercourse with the General Assembly, so far as it respects the right of voting in the legislative and judicial proceedings of that body, transcends the power vested in it, do waive their accustomed privilege of voting by their delegates in said body in such proceedings; desiring that as much of the same reciprocal intercourse, which has for a series of years so pleasantly existed between said bodies, may continue, as shall not conflict with the fundamental principles of their organization.

2. That this Association regret that their proceedings on the subject of receiving licentiates and candidates, &c. at the last meeting of the General Association, were not entirely satisfactory to the General Assembly. On the broad ground of heresy and immorality, they have no hesitancy in expressing their opinion, that it would be irregular for either body to receive licentiates, candidates, and ministers, without the usual certificates and recommendations; but as views of Christian ministers on the subject of ecclesiastical order may honestly differ; and as this Association has no controul, either legislative or judicial, over the respective associations of which it is composed, they can only refer the resolutions of the Assembly on this subject, to the particular consideration of their district associations, with the fullest confidence that on questions of "ecclesiastical order," as well as on every other subject, they will be disposed to meet the views and promote the interests of our highly respected and beloved brethren of the Presbyterian church."

Resolved, That it be the order of the day for this afternoon, to nominate delegates to attend corresponding bodies.

A communication was received from the General Synod of the Reformed Dutch Church, relative to the case of Mr. Leonard B. Van Dyke; and also proposing an additional article to the articles of correspondence between that body and the General Assembly. This communication was read and referred to Dr. McDowell, Mr. Tucker, and Mr. Zabriskie.

Certain resolutions of the Presbytery of Madison, and also of the Presbytery of Lancaster, were received and read, and committed to Mr. Elliot, Mr. Halsey, Dr. Beecher, Mr. Wilkinson, and Mr. Nevius.

A communication respecting lands belonging to the Trustees of the General Assembly, was received and read, and referred to the said Trustees, that they might take order on the same.

A reference from the Presbytery of Cayuga, relative to the constitutionality of a rule of that body, was received and read, and referred to Mr. Cooley, Mr. Dickson, and Mr. William Steele.

The Permanent Clerk informed the Assembly, that there have been put into his hands the following appeals, viz.

An appeal of Dr. John Rollins, from a decision of the Synod of West Tennessee: an appeal of the church of Bergen from a decision of the Synod of Genesee: and an appeal of Mr. Matthew H. Rice, from a decision of the Presbytery of East Hanover. These appeals, with the documents in the cases respectively, were referred to the judicial committee.

Resolved, That it be the order of the day for to-morrow morning, after receiving the Report of the Board of Missions, to receive the Report of the Board of Education.

Wilcox, from the Presbytery of Genesee; Dr. Worthington Wright, a ruling elder, from the Presbytery of Rochester; and Mr. William M'Donald, a ruling elder, from the Presbytery of Baltimore.

The committee on Overture No. I. viz. the following reference from the Presbytery of Steubenville,—"Ought an unbaptized person who yet pays his proportion for the support of a congregation, to be permitted to vote for ruling elders?"—made the following report which was adopted, viz.

That in the opinion of your committee, the office of ruling elder is an office in the Church of Christ; that ruling elders as such, according to our Confession of Faith, Book 1, on Government, Chap. V. "are the representatives of the people by whom they are chosen, for the purpose of exercising government and discipline in the kingdom of our Lord Jesus Christ; that the discipline lawfully exercised by them, is the discipline exercised through them by their constituents, in whose name and by whose authority they act in all that they do. To suppose, therefore, that an unbaptized person not belonging to the visible kingdom of the Redeemer, might vote at the election of ruling elders, would be to establish the principle, that the children of this world might, through their representatives, exercise discipline in the church of God; which is manifestly unscriptural, and contrary to the standards of our church: your committee would therefore recommend, that the question in the said overture, be answered in the negative.

The committee appointed to consider, whether it is expedient that the Assembly as such, should celebrate the ordinance of the Lord's supper, during their sessions, and if so, when;—made a report which being read and amended was adopted, and is as follows, viz.—That in the opinion of the committee, such a celebration is not only expedient, but desirable, and with the blessing of the gracious Head of the Church, who often manifests himself to his people in the breaking of bread, would be attended with great advantages. The committee would, therefore, recommend the adoption of the following resolutions, viz.

1. Resolved, That the members of the Assembly, will celebrate the Lord's supper on next Sabbath, at 5 o'clock in the afternoon, in the First Presbyterian church.

2. Resolved, That such other ministers and members of the Presbyterian church, and of sister churches, as may be disposed to attend, be affectionately invited.

3. Resolved, That the committee who reported these resolutions, be a committee to make arrangements, and to designate ministers who shall officiate in the administration of the ordinance.

Nominations were made for delegates to attend the several ecclesiastical bodies holding correspondence with the General Assembly.

Resolved, That it be the order of the day for Tuesday morning next, to receive the reports of the committees appointed to examine the Synodical Records.

Overture No. III. viz. an application for the division of the Synod of Virginia, was taken up, and after reading the documents, was laid on the table.

Adjourned till to-morrow morning, at 9 o'clock.

Concluded with prayer.

SATURDAY, May 22d, 9 o'clock, A. M. The Assembly met and was constituted with prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read.

D. from the General Association of Massachusetts.

The committee appointed by the General Assembly of 1829, to consider and report to the Assembly of 1830, on the manner in which ministers and licentiates are to be received into any of our Presbyteries from ecclesiastical bodies in the United States, which correspond with this General Assembly, made the following report, which was adopted, viz:

That in their judgment every licentiate coming by certificate to any Presbytery in connexion with the General Assembly from any portion of a corresponding ecclesiastical body, should be required to answer in the affirmative, the Constitutional questions, directed by Chapter XIV of our form of government to be put to our own candidates, before they are licensed: and that in like manner every ordained minister of the gospel, coming from any church in correspondence with the General Assembly, by certificate of dismission and recommendation, should be required to answer affirmatively the first seven questions directed by chapter XV of our form of government, to be put to one of our own licentiates when about to be ordained to the sacred office.

The course which is thus recommended by the committee, they believe has been generally practised by our Presbyteries; and the impropriety of admitting strangers into our connexion on other terms than our own licentiates and ministers, is too obvious to require remark. It is the assent of licentiates and ministers to these questions which brings them under the watch and care of the Presbyteries which receive them, and without which they ought not to enjoy the privileges of preachers of the gospel in our ecclesiastical connexion.

The committee appointed by the General Assembly of 1829, to consider the following question, viz. "what mode of proceeding shall be adopted in organizing churches, under our present Constitution?" and to report an answer to the General Assembly of 1830, made a report which was laid on the table.

The committee to whom was referred the communication from the General Synod of the Reformed Dutch church, made the following report, which was adopted, viz:

That they have carefully considered the subject referred to them, and have come to the conclusion, that this Assembly should concur in the resolution proposed by that Synod. The committee deem the resolution just, and proper in itself, and well calculated to preserve the harmony, which at present happily exists between the two bodies.

They would, therefore, recommend that the article proposed to be added to the present articles of correspondence between the two churches, be adopted, in the words following, viz.

"That none of the inferior judicatories under the care of the corresponding churches, shall be at liberty to admit into their respective bodies, or under their care, any student or licentiate from their sister church, without a regular dismission from the ecclesiastical body, or Theological Seminary, to which he is considered as attached."

The committee of Overtures, reported Overture No. IX. The papers were read, and the Overture committed to Dr. Rowan, Mr. Wisner, Mr. Jennings, Mr. Moreland, and Mr. Remley.

The Assembly proceeded agreeably to the order of the day, to receive the reports of the committees appointed to examine the Synodical Records.

The committees appointed to examine the Records of the Synods of Albany, Utica, New York, New Jersey, Genesee, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Western Reserve, Indiana, Kentucky, Virginia, North Carolina, West Tennessee, South Carolina, and Georgia, reported respectively, and the Records were severally approved.

The committee appointed to examine the Records of the Synod of Geneva, reported that the Book be approved, with the exception, "that it does not appear from the record, that they finally closed their sessions with prayer," which report was adopted.

The committees appointed to examine the Records of the Synods of Ohio, Cincinnati, Tennessee, and Mississippi and South Alabama, reported respectively that the Records have not been put into their hands. Resolved, that these committees be discharged.

The committee to whom was referred, by the last General Assembly, the memorial of the West Lexington Presbytery, made the following report, which was adopted, viz:

That the said memorial sets forth the evils which in the opinion of the memorialists, threaten the church from the operation of numerous Theological Seminaries existing independently of the General Assembly, and adopting different systems of government, and different courses of study. To counteract these evils it proposes, that the General Assembly, should take all the Theological Seminaries throughout our bounds, under its immediate and absolute controul, and prescribe a course of study which shall be uniform in them all.

These are the prominent points of the memorial under consideration. Your committee are ready to acknowledge, that there are evils of a very formidable character, which are likely to arise from the indefinite multiplication of Theological Seminaries, under the care of a single Synod or Presbytery. They fear, that the standard of Theological education, in the Presbyterian church, will ultimately fall far below that maintained in some other christian denominations, and thus the respectability and usefulness of our clergy.

The Records of the Synod of Cincinnati, Mr. J. W. Adams, Mr. Waterbury, and Mr. Holbrook. of Indiana, Dr. Magraw, Mr. Pratt, and Mr. Ambrose White.
of Kentucky, Mr. Chester, Mr. J. R. Boyd, and Mr. Abbot.
of Virginia, Mr. Savage, Mr. Marsh, and Mr. Pond. of North Carolina, Mr. Marcus Smith, Mr. Pettibone, and Mr. Winchell. of Tennessee, Mr. J. W. Platt, Mr. Ingalls, and Mr. Brees. of West Tennessee, Mr. Cooley, Mr. Thompson, and Mr. Crowell. of South Carolina and Georgia, Mr. Slack, Mr. Gilleland, and Mr. Townley. of Mississippi and South Alabama, Mr. Halsey, Mr. Burbank, and Mr. Stocking.

The Synodical Records were called for, and directed to be put into the hands of the respective committees.

The delegates appointed to attend the General Association of Connecticut, the General Association of Massachusetts, the General Conference of Maine, the General Synod of the Reformed Dutch Church, and the German Reformed Synod, reported respectively, and their reports were accepted.

The two following resolutions, adopted by the General Association of Massachusetts, and contained in the report of the delegates to that body, were approved by this Assembly, and ordered to be entered on the minutes, viz.

"1. Resolved, that this Association having learned that the existing rule of intercourse with the General Assembly, so far as it respects the right of voting in the legislative and judicial proceedings of that body, transcends the power vested in it, do waive their accustomed privilege of voting by their delegates in said body in such proceedings; desiring that as much of the same reciprocal intercourse, which has for a series of years so pleasantly existed between said bodies, may continue, as shall not conflict with the fundamental principles of their organization.

2. That this Association regret that their proceedings on the subject of receiving licentiates and candidates, &c. at the last meeting of the General Association, were not entirely satisfactory to the General Assembly. On the broad ground of heresy and immorality, they have no hesitancy in expressing their opinion, that it would be irregular for either body to receive licentiates, candidates, and ministers, without the usual certificates and recommendations; but as views of Christian ministers on the subject of ecclesiastical order may honestly differ; and as this Association has no controul, either legislative or judicial, over the respective associations of which it is composed, they can only refer the resolutions of the Assembly on this subject, to the particular consideration of their district associations, with the fullest confidence that on questions of "ecclesiastical order," as well as on every other subject, they will be disposed to meet the views and promote the interests of our highly respected and beloved brethren of the Presbyterian church."

Resolved, That it be the order of the day for this afternoon, to nominate delegates to attend corresponding bodies.

A communication was received from the General Synod of the Reformed Dutch Church, relative to the case of Mr. Leonard B. Van Dyke; and also proposing an additional article to the articles of correspondence between that body and the General Assembly. This communication was read and referred to Dr. McDowell, Mr. Tucker, and Mr. Zabriskie.

A reference from the Presbytery of Cayuga, relative to the constitutionality of a rule of that body, was received and read, and referred to Mr. Cooley, Mr. Dickson, and Mr. William Steele.

The Permanent Clerk informed the Assembly, that there have been put into his hands the following appeals, viz.

An appeal of Dr. John Rollins, from a decision of the Synod of West Tennessee: an appeal of the church of Bergen from a decision of the Synod of Genesee: and an appeal of Mr. Matthew H. Rice, from a decision of the Presbytery of East Hanover. These appeals, with the documents in the cases respectively, were referred to the judicial committee.

Resolved, That it be the order of the day for to-morrow morning, after receiving the Report of the Board of Missions, to receive the Report of the Board of Education.

Adjourned till 4 o'clock this afternoon. Concluded with prayer.

4 o'clock, P. M. The Assembly met and was constituted with prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read.

The committee of commissions reported the following additional members who appeared and took their seats, viz. Rev. Stephen N. Rowan, D. D. from the Presbytery of New York; Rev. James B. Wilcox, from the Presbytery of Genesee; Dr. Worthington Wright, a ruling elder, from the Presbytery of Rochester; and Mr. William M'Donald, a ruling elder, from the Presbytery of Baltimore.

The committee on Overture No. I. viz. the following reference from the Presbytery of Steubenville,—"Ought an unbaptized person who yet pays his proportion for the support of a congregation, to be permitted to vote for ruling elders?"—made the following report which was adopted, viz.

That in the opinion of your committee, the office of ruling elder is an office in the Church of Christ; that ruling elders as such, according to our Confession of Faith, Book 1, on Government, Chap. V. "are the representatives of the people by whom they are chosen, for the purpose of exercising government and discipline in the kingdom of our Lord Jesus Christ; that the discipline lawfully exercised by them, is the discipline exercised through them by their constituents, in whose name and by whose authority they act in all that they do. To suppose, therefore, that an unbaptized person not belonging to the visible kingdom of the Redeemer, might vote at the election of ruling elders, would be to establish the principle, that the children of this world might, through their representatives, exercise discipline in the church of God; which is manifestly unscriptural, and contrary to the standards of our church: your committee would therefore recommend, that the question in the said overture, be answered in the negative.

The committee appointed to consider, whether it is expedient that the Assembly as such, should celebrate the ordinance of the Lord's supper, during their sessions, and if so, when;—made a report which being read and amended was adopted, and is as follows, viz.—That in the opinion of the committee, such a celebration is not only expedient, but desirable, and with the blessing of the gracious Head of the Church, who often manifests himself to his people in the breaking of bread, would be attended with great advantages. The committee would, therefore, recommend the adoption of the following resolutions, viz.

1. Resolved, That the members of the Assembly, will celebrate the Lord's supper on next Sabbath, at 5 o'clock in the afternoon, in the First Presbyterian church.

2. Resolved, That such other ministers and members of the Presbyterian church, and of sister churches, as may be disposed to attend, be affectionately invited.

3. Resolved, That the committee who reported these resolutions, be a committee to make arrangements, and to designate ministers who shall officiate in the administration of the ordinance.

Nominations were made for delegates to attend the several ecclesiastical bodies holding correspondence with the General Assembly.

Resolved, That it be the order of the day for Tuesday morning next, to receive the reports of the committees appointed to examine the Synodical Records.

The committee appointed by the General Assembly of 1829, to consider and report to the Assembly of 1830, on the manner in which ministers and licentiates are to be received into any of our Presbyteries from ecclesiastical bodies in the United States, which correspond with this General Assembly, made the following report, which was adopted, viz:

That in their judgment every licentiate coming by certificate to any Presbytery in connexion with the General Assembly from any portion of a corresponding ecclesiastical body, should be required to answer in the affirmative, the Constitutional questions, directed by Chapter XIV of our form of government to be put to our own candidates, before they are licensed: and that in like manner every ordained minister of the gospel, coming from any church in correspondence with the General Assembly, by certificate of dismission and recommendation, should be required to answer affirmatively the first seven questions directed by chapter XV of our form of government, to be put to one of our own licentiates when about to be ordained to the sacred office.

The course which is thus recommended by the committee, they believe has been generally practised by our Presbyteries; and the impropriety of admitting strangers into our connexion on other terms than our own licentiates and ministers, is too obvious to require remark. It is the assent of licentiates and ministers to these questions which brings them under the watch and care of the Presbyteries which receive them, and without which they ought not to enjoy the privileges of preachers of the gospel in our ecclesiastical connexion.

The committee appointed by the General Assembly of 1829, to consider e following question, viz. "what mode of proceeding shall be adopted in organizing churches, under our present Constitution?" and to report an answer to the General Assembly of 1830, made a report which was laid on the table.

The committee to whom was referred the communication from the General Synod of the Reformed Dutch church, made the following report, which was adopted, viz:

That they have carefully considered the subject referred to them, and have come to the conclusion, that this Assembly should concur in the resolution proposed by that Synod. The committee deem the resolution just, and proper in itself, and well calculated to preserve the harmony, which at present happily exists between the two bodies.

They would, therefore, recommend that the article proposed to be added to the present articles of correspondence between the two churches, be adopted, in the words following, viz.

"That none of the inferior judicatories under the care of the corresponding churches, shall be at liberty to admit into their respective bodies, or under their care, any student or licentiate from their sister church, without a regular dismission from the ecclesiastical body, or Theological Seminary, to which he is considered as attached."

The committee of Overtures, reported Overture No. IX. The papers were read, and the Overture committed to Dr. Rowan, Mr. Wisner, Mr. Jennings, Mr. Moreland, and Mr. Remley.

The Assembly proceeded agreeably to the order of the day, to receive the reports of the committees appointed to examine the Synodical Records.

The committees appointed to examine the Records of the Synods of Albany, Utica, New York, New Jersey, Genesee, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Western Reserve, Indiana, Kentucky, Virginia, North Carolina, West Tennessee, South Carolina, and Georgia, reported respectively, and the Records were severally approved.

The committee appointed to examine the Records of the Synod of Geneva, reported that the Book be approved, with the exception, "that it does not appear from the record, that they finally closed their sessions with prayer," which report was adopted.

The committees appointed to examine the Records of the Synods of Ohio, Cincinnati, Tennessee, and Mississippi and South Alabama, reported respectively that the Records have not been put into their hands. Resolved, that these committees be discharged.

The committee to whom was referred, by the last General Assembly, the memorial of the West Lexington Presbytery, made the following report, which was adopted, viz:

That the said memorial sets forth the evils which in the opinion of the memorialists, threaten the church from the operation of numerous Theological Seminaries existing independently of the General Assembly, and adopting different systems of government, and different courses of study. To counteract these evils it proposes, that the General Assembly, should take all the Theological Seminaries throughout our bounds, under its immediate and absolute controul, and prescribe a course of study which shall be uniform in them all.

These are the prominent points of the memorial under consideration. Your committee are ready to acknowledge, that there are evils of a very formidable character, which are likely to arise from the indefinite multiplication of Theological Seminaries, under the care of a single Synod or Presbytery. They fear, that the standard of Theological education, in the Presbyterian church, will ultimately fall far below that maintained in some other christian denominations, and thus the respectability and usefulness of our clergy, greatly impaired. They believe, also, that much good, that might have resulted from having a larger portion of our young men brought into personal acquaintance with each other, and educated upon the same plan, must now be lost; and that we must content ourselves with less of harmony of feeling, and unity of sentiment than might, under other circumstances, have been secured. Believing however, that it is perfectly competent to every Presbytery or Synod, to adopt what plan they may think best, not inconsistent with the Constitution of the church, for the education of their own young men; and finding that the Assembly has long sanctioned their so doing, your committee are of opinion that this subject is not within the rightful jurisdiction of the General Assembly; and that even if it were, it would, under existing circumstances, be highly inexpedient to adopt the course proposed by the memorialists. They therefore, beg to be discharged from the further consideration of the subject.

On motion, it was resolved, that Mr. Junkin, Mr. D. A. Clark, Mr. Har, Mr. Bayard, and Mr. A. Platt, be a committee to take into consideration the subject of lotteries in general, and to report to the Assembly whether any, and if any, what measures, can be adopted for the prevention of this species of gambling.

Resolved, that it be the order of the day for to-morrow morning, to hear the report of the Western Theological Seminary.

The committee appointed to examine the Treasurer's book laid on the table, and to report the state of the several funds belonging to the Assembly, made the following report, which was adopted, viz. That they have conferred together, and with the Treasurer, and are able to say only, that the funds of the Assembly, are invested in Bank and other stocks, at interest of 5, 6, and 7, per cent. With respect to the present state of the several funds, they are not able to say any thing, as the items of receipts and disbursements are entered promiscuously, in a common day book, and could not be drawn out separately, without several days of investigation.

They therefore, offer the following resolution, that the committee be discharged, and that the Board of Trustees be required to report the state of the several funds, to the present Assembly; or, if this is not practicable, to the next Assembly.

The Board of Directors of the Union Theological Seminary, presented their annual report which was read, and ordered to be printed in the appendix to the minutes.

Your committee have divided the fund among the commissioners, according to their respective mileage, as appears by the annexed detailed statement; and there is left a balance in the hands of the Treasurer, of $14.37, in favour of this fund.

The committee to whom was recommitted the report on Overture No. IX., made the following report, which was adopted, viz.

In answer to the questions propounded by the Presbyteries of Union and French Broad, the Assembly would say, that though they do not recognize in the Board of Missions the authority to sit in judgment upon the orthodoxy or morality of any minister who is in good standing in his own Presbytery; yet, from the necessity of the case, they must exercise their own sound discretion upon the expediency or inexpediency of appointing or withholding an appointment, from any applicant, holding themselves amenable to the General Assembly for all their official acts.

Resolved, That the consideration of the report in relation to a Missionary Institution at Princeton, be made the order of the day for to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock.

They recommend that said appeal be dismissed, on the ground that the only paper which appears to be intended as an appeal, is without date or signature, or evidence that it was ever before the Synod of Genesee, or lodged with the moderator of said Synod.

The Stated Clerk reported that he had, agreeably to instructions of the last Assembly, distributed gratuitously among the more remote and destitute churches, a number of copies of the Constitution of the Presbyterian church, equal to the amount of income from the publication of said Constitution.

The report containing the detail of this distribution, was directed to be put upon the files of the Assembly.

The Assembly resumed the consideration of the report in relation to a missionary institution, in connexion with the Theological Seminary at Princeton: and after considerable discussion, the report of the committee was adopted, and is as follows, viz.

The committee to whom was referred the report of a committee of the last General Assembly, on the subject of a missionary institution, in connexion with the Theological Seminary at Princeton, beg leave to recommend to the General Assembly the adoption of the report of the said committee, with the exception of the third resolution; and also the adoption of the following resolutions, viz.

1. That the General Assembly will proceed to appoint a professor in conformity with the recommendation contained in the said report, as soon as a sufficient annual income can be secured to support the said professor: and,

2. That the whole subject be referred back to the original committee.

The report of the committee appointed on this subject by the last Assembly, and adopted by adopting the above report of the committee to whom it was referred, is as follows, viz.

The Committee appointed by the last General Assembly to consider the expediency of establishing "a Missionary Institution, for the instruction and training of Missionaries, under the care of the General Assembly, and in connexion with the Theological Seminary at Princeton," beg leave to report,

That, after repeated meetings, and mature deliberation on the subject committed to them, they are of the opinion, that such an Institution as this appointment seems to contemplate, is much needed, and, if wisely established and maintained, may be expected, under the Divine blessing, to contribute much to the advancement of the Redeemer's kingdom.

The missionary cause is assuming an importance, and its operations an extent, which must more and more interest the religious public. Every thing, therefore, that is adapted to impart a new impulse to the missionary spirit; to give it a wise and happy direction; or to bring a larger number of individuals, and especially of candidates for the holy ministry under its immediate influence, cannot fail of proving both reasonable and useful. The Committee are, therefore, persuaded that the General Assembly could scarcely adopt a measure better adapted to aid the missionary cause; to draw down the richest and most appropriate blessings on the students of the Theological Seminary; to meet and gratify public opinion; and to furnish a centre of information, of instruction, and of impulse in reference to this great subject, from which invaluable results might be expected.

The spirit of the religion of Jesus Christ is essentially a spirit of Missions; and, undoubtedly, one of the first and highest duties of the Christian church, is to nurture and extend this spirit, and to make all her establishments tributary to its advancement. The importance, therefore, of connecting an institution of the kind proposed, with a Seminary in which a large number of candidates for the holy ministry are assembled, is obvious. Its native tendency, if properly conducted will be, to kindle among the rising ministry, a new and more fervent zeal on behalf of missions; to call forth, animate and prepare larger numbers of missionaries, both for the foreign and domestic field; and, eventually, to diffuse, throughout all our churches more of that deep and practical sense of obligation in reference to this subject, of the want of which we have so much reason to complain, and the increase of which is so earnestly to be desired.

In another view, also, the Committee believe that such an institution as that which is now contemplated, would be productive of incalculable benefit. The great importance of maintaining a spirit of deep and elevated piety in our Theological Seminaries, has been always acknowledged by the friends of vital religion, and is beginning, it is hoped, to attract more of the attention of those who are entrusted with their management. Unless such a spirit can be, in some good degree, maintained among assembled candidates for the holy ministry, Theological Seminaries will, assuredly, not prove a real blessing to the church, but rather the reverse. Now the Committee are fully convinced that it would not be easy to suggest a plan better adapted to subserve this great object, than to connect with a Theological Institution, a department of instruction, the primary purpose of which should be, to cherish fervent love for immortal souls;—large views and plans of evangelical usefulness; and every species of knowledge, and of practical accomplishment adapted to prepare the sons of the church for spreading the gospel throughout the world. Even those who never actually engage in missionary work, will be likely to be essentially benefited by such an appendage to the usual course of instruction;—to have their personal zeal for the salvation of men increased; their preparation for pastoral fidelity promoted; their knowledge of the wants and miseries of perishing souls extended; and their ultimate capacity for actively favouring the missionary cause, wherever their lot may be cast, greatly enlarged. In this, and in various other ways, it is manifest, that in Theological Seminaries, as well as in the church at large, every effectual step that is taken to extend the missionary cause, tends no less surely, to promote piety and pastoral fidelity at home; and to render every new minister that is added to the church, a new centre of influence and of action for the spread of the gospel.

It would, moreover, be desirable to have some place provided where men destined to foreign missions, might profitably spend a year or a few months, in such studies and exercises, as would tend to prepare and qualify them for their arduous and interesting work. At present much time frequently elapses before the missionary can be conveniently sent to his field of labour; which time would be much more advantageously spent in retirement, study and devotion, than in travelling as an agent.

It has also occurred to your committee, that, if the proposed institution should be established, and adequately fostered by the favor of the church, it might hereafter be expedient to have provision made for the comfortable support of aged and invalid missionaries on their return to their native country. It is due to men who have exhausted their health, their strength, and their years in the service of the church, to be furnished with a peaceful asylum for their latter days.

The committee are further persuaded, that public sentiment in the Presbyterian church is ripe for such an Institution as that which is now under consideration, and prepared promptly and fully to sustain it. And as other Theological Seminaries are increasing the number of their officers and departments of instruction, it is respectfully submitted whether immediate measures ought not to be taken for a corresponding enlargement of the Institution at Princeton, if its friends are desirous of seeing it keep pace with sister institutions in growth and usefulness.

Indeed, so deeply convinced are the committee of the salutary tendency of such an appendage to an institution destined for training up ministers, that they indulge the hope of seeing, before the lapse of many years, such an addition to every Theological Seminary in the land, which has a sufficient number of pupils to demand and warrant the enterprize. They firmly believe that the pecuniary resources of such institutions cannot be bestowed upon an object more likely to be productive of the richest blessings to themselves, and to the whole church.

The committee are of the opinion, however, that a large and expensive establishment ought not, in the outset, to be attempted. A small and humble beginning will, perhaps, be most likely to lead to the best results, by gradual enlargement, as experience may dictate. Some of the most extensive and important institutions now in existence, took their rise from small beginnings. Nothing more, therefore, ought, in the opinion of the committee, to be contemplated, at present, than the commencement of a plan, which may be enlarged and strengthened, as the Assembly may hereafter think proper, and be able to command resources. And as the constitution of the Seminary at Princeton admits, without alteration, of an indefinite addition to the number of its Professors, the committee, therefore, unanimously recommend to the General Assembly the adoption of the following resolutions, viz.

1. Resolved, That there be appointed an additional Professor in the Theological Seminary at Princeton, to bear the name and title of the "Professor of Pastoral Theology and Missionary Instruction."

2. Resolved, That the said Professor have committed to him the instruction in every thing which relates to the Pastoral office, and that he be expecially charged with collecting and imparting instruction on the subject of Missions; and with using all proper means, by public lectures, and private interviews, to promote among all the students an enlarged spirit of pastoral fidelity, of Missionary zeal, and of liberal preparation and active effort for the advancement of the Redemer's kingdom.

3. Resolved, That in view of the great and increasing deficiency of well qualified ministers of the gospel, in our own and in foreign lands; and the increasing demand, on the part of foreign and domestic and other societies, for more labourers, the General Assembly would avail themselves of this and every other opportunity, affectionately to call to this momentous subject the attention of all such congregations and Presbyteries as have not yet adopted systematic and efficient plans of co-operation in this great and good work.

4. While the Assembly would thus commend its own Board of Education to the churches under their care, yet as many of our churches have already united their efforts with other education societies; therefore resolved, that the churches and Presbyteries should be left to their own unbiased and deliberate choice, of the particular channel through which their charities shall be given in aid of this great department of benevolence.

On receiving the above communication, the Assembly passed the following resolution, viz. On motion, it was resolved, that Dr. Rice, Dr. Dickey, and Dr. Fisher, be a committee to draw up resolutions expressive of the views of the Genera Assembly, on the subject of the persecutions of the "Revived Christians" of Berne and Vaud, in Switzerland.

The Committee appointed to prepare a minute expressive of the views of the Assembly, on the subject of Temperance, reported the following resolutions which were adopted, viz:—Resolved,

1. That this Assembly considers itself called upon to make a public acknowledgment of the goodness of God, for the unparalleled success, with which he has crowned the efforts of those, who are actively concerned in the promotion of temperance.

2. That the experience of the past year furnishes additional and most abundant evidence, of the wisdom and importance of the plan adopted by the American Temperance Society.

3. That this Assembly feels bound to repeat a former recommendation to the ministers, elders, and members of the churches under its care, to discountenance the use of distilled liquors, not only by abstaining themselves from the use of such liquors, but by actively promoting every prudent measure devised for the purpose of furthering the cause of temperance.

4. That this Assembly earnestly recommends to all persons, for whose spiritual interests it is bound to consult, that they favour the formation of Temperance Societies, on the plan of entire abstinence.

5. That while this Assembly would by no means encroach upon the rights of private judgment, it cannot but express its very deep regret that any members of the church of Christ, should at the present day, and under existing circumstances, feel themselves at liberty to manufacture, vend, or use ardent spirits, and thus as far as their influence extends, counteract the efforts now making for the promotion of temperance.

The Judicial Committee made a report in relation to the appeal of Mr. Matthew H. Rice, from a decision of the Presbytery of East Hanover, which was adopted, and is as follows, viz.

Agreeably to the order of the day, the Assembly took up Overture No. X., viz.—a request of the Presbytery of Cincinnati, that the General Assembly would unite with the American Home Missionary Society, in the appointment of one Board of Agency, to manage the missionary concerns of both Boards in the Western country. After some discussion, this subject was committed to Dr. Green, Dr. M'Auley, Mr. Russell, Mr. Slack, and Mr. Beckwith, to confer with delegates, which the Assembly are informed have been appointed by the Home Missionary Society, on the request of the Presbytery of Cincinnati, and report to the Assembly as soon as practicable.

Overture No. IV. was taken up, viz. an application from the Presbytery of Watertown, for leave to receive Mr. William Lockhead a foreign licentiate, who after being under the care of the Presbytery of Champlain for five months, had been dismissed to the Presbytery of Watertown, and had been under the care of the latter Presbytery, since the 9th of February last. The Presbytery of Watertown requests, that the Assembly will allow them to take into the account, for the term of trial, the time which Mr. Lockhead, spent on trials in the Presbytery of Champlain. On this request the Assembly resolved, that the standing rule which requires that the foreign licentiate must spend a year in the Presbytery to which he is dismissed, be not dispen*sed with.*

The Committee to whom was recommitted the report on the reference from the Presbyteries of Madison and Lancaster, reported, and their report was adopted and is as follows, viz.

That said Presbyteries invite the attention of the General Assembly, to certain slanderous reports extensively circulated against the Presbyterian and other denominations, involving the charge of an attempt on the part of these denominations to unite Church and State, and thus subvert the civil institutions of our country, and intimate their desire that this Assembly would take order on the subject, and by some public act disabuse themselves and their constituents of such unfounded and injurious imputations.

In the opinion of your committee no public act is necessary on the part of this Assembly to refute a charge wholly unsupported by testimony and facts; nor any exposition of their principles in relation to civil magistracy and the claims of the church demanded, other than that contained in our acknowledged ecclesiastical standards, and published to the world. For the better information, however, of any who may be in danger of imposition from unfounded statements, the Assembly would refer to the following exhibition of their principles as contained in the accredited constitution of the church.

"God, the supreme Lord and King of all the world hath ordained civil magistrates to be under him over the people, for his own glory and the public good, and to this end hath armed them with the power of the sword, for the defence and encouragement of them that are good, and for the punishment of evil-doers.

"It is lawful for Christians to accept and execute the office of magistrate, when called thereunto; in the managing whereof, as they ought especially to maintain piety, justice, and peace, according to the wholesome laws of each commonwealth, so, for that end, they may lawfully, now under the New Testament, wage war upon just and necessary occasions.

"Civil magistrates may not assume to themselves the administration of the word and sacraments; or the power of the keys of the kingdom of heaven; or, in the least, interfere in matters of faith. Yet, as nursing fathers, it is the duty of civil magistrates to protect the Church of our common Lord, without giving the preference to any denomination of Christians above the rest in such a manner, that all ecclesiastical persons whatever shall enjoy the full, free, and unquestioned liberty of discharging every part of their sacred functions, without violence or danger. And, as Jesus Christ hath appointed a regular government and discipline in his church, no law of any commonwealth, should interfere with, let, or hinder, the due exercise thereof, among the voluntary members of any denomination of Christians, according to their own profession and belief. It is the duty of civil magistrates to protect the person and good name of all their people, in such an effectual manner as that no person be suffered, either upon pretence of religion or infidelity, to offer any indignity, violence, abuse, or injury, to any other person whatsoever; and to take order, that all religious and ecclesiastical assemblies be held without molestation or disturbance.

"It is the duty of the people to pray for magistrates, to honour their persons, to pay them tribute and other dues, to obey their lawful commands, and to be subject to their authority, for conscience' sake. Infidelity or difference in religion, doth not make void the magistrate's just and legal authority, nor free the people from their due obedience to him; from which ecclesiastical persons are not exempted; much less hath the Pope any power or jurisdiction over them in their dominions, or over any of their people; and least of all to deprive them of their dominions or lives, if he shall judge them to be heretics, or upon any other pretence whatsoever."

"Synods and councils are to handle or conclude nothing, but that which is ecclesiastical: and are not to intermeddle with civil affairs, which concern the commonwealth, unless by way of humble petition, in cases extraordinary; or by way of advice for satisfaction of conscience, if they be thereunto required by the civil magistrate."

"That God alone is Lord of the conscience; and hath left it free from the doctrine and commandments of men, which are in any thing contrary to his word, or beside it in matters of faith or worship. Therefore they consider the rights of private judgment, in all matters that respect religion, as universal and unalienable. They do not even wish to see any religious constitution aided by the civil power, further th may be necessary for protection and security, and at the sametime, be equal and common to all others."

Such are the constitutional principles of the Presbyterian Church in these United States. They were our fathers' principles before, and during the revolution, which issued in the consummation of our liberty and independence, and under the influence of which they prayed and fought, and bled by the side of the father of our country. They have been the principles of their descendants ever since. They are our principles still, adopted from conviction, to whose support we have pledged ourselves under the most solemn sanctions, and by the preservation of which we believe that the common interests of evangelical religion and civil liberty will be most effectually sustained.

In closing this statement, the Assembly would affectionately and earnestly exhort the members of their communion that in the fulfilment of their civil and religious duties, they watch against all unhallowed feelings, and that they suffer reproach meekly, not rendering railing for railing, nor evil for evil, but by patient continuance in well doing, they commend themselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.

A letter was received from Mr. Anthony Finley, presenting to the Assembly 200 copies of a Map of the Colony of Liberia and adjacent coasts. Resolved, that the thanks of the Assembly be presented to Mr. Finley for this donation.

The Stated Clerk presented to the Assembly 500 copies of the Letter of the General Assembly to the churches, on the subject of the Monthly Concert of Prayer, which he had procured to be printed. Resolved, that the thanks of the Assembly be presented to the Stated Clerk for this donation.

WEDNESDAY, June 2d, 9 o'clock, A.M. The Assembly met and was constituted with prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read.

The Trustees of the General Assembly, reported on Overture No. VIII., which had been committed to them. This report was adopted and is as follows, viz.

"The Committee, to whom was referred the Memorial to the General Assembly, of John Colt, of Paterson, in the State of New Jersey, reported:—

That after due consideration of the matters contained in said memorial, and of the nature of the trust, created by the will of Dr. Boudinot, the Committee are of opinion that the Trustees cannot, with a becoming, and indeed necessary regard to their duty in the trust, grant the relief requested by the memorialist. The Testator has given to the Trustees no discretionary powers over the fund; and the objects to which he has directed his bounty to be applied, being designated, the Trustees are clearly, not at liberty, either to relinquish that which passes by the will, or to surrender any security connected with it. They therefore, recommend the adoption of the following resolution; and that if adopted, it be communicated to the General Assembly.

Resolved, that, in the opinion of the Board of Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church, the prayer of the memorial of John Colt, of Paterson, in the State of New Jersey, to the General Assembly, cannot consistently with the trust created by the will of the late Dr. Boudinot, be granted.

June 1, 1830—adopted by the Trustees, and ordered to be communicated to the Assembly."

The Judicial Committee reported the appeal of Dr. John Rollins, from the Synod of West Tennessee, to have been regularly conducted. The Committee also reported the order which it will be proper for the Assembly to pursue, in trying this appeal. The report of the Committee was accepted, and the order recommended by them, adopted.

Overture No. V., was taken up, viz. an extract from the minutes of the Presbytery of Northumberland, informing the Assembly, that Mr. James Lewers, a foreign licentiate, had passed with approbation the time and trials prescribed in relation to foreign ministers and licentiates. The documents accompanying this communication were read; when it was resolved, that the Assembly approve of the reception of Mr. Lewers, as a licentiate by the Presbytery of Northumberland.

Overture No. VI., was taken up, viz. a request of the Synod of Indiana, "that the General Assembly be requested to dispense with Synodical reports in future."

Resolved, that this request cannot be granted because it is unconstitutional.

Overture No. XI., viz. the following resolution, That in order to produce a more correct style and greater uniformity in church music, a Committee be appointed to make a selection of sober and chaste tunes to be published with a recommendation of the Assembly, and that this Committee report to the next General Assembly, was taken up.

On this Overture, the Assembly resolved, that it is inexpedient at present to take order on this subject.

Overture No. III., viz. an application for a division of the Synod of Virginia, was taken up, when it was resolved, that the applicants have leave to withdraw the application.

The report of the Committee, on the reference from the Presbytery of Cayuga, relative to the constitutionality of a rule of that body, which had been laid on the table, was taken up. The rule of the Presbytery of Cayuga, referred to the Assembly, is as follows, viz:—The Moderator for the time being, and the Stated Clerk ex-officio, were appointed a Committee to grant letters of dismission to ministers without charge, and to licentiates and candidates under the care of this Presbytery, to unite with other Presbyteries; and were directed to report at each stated meeting."

In relation to this rule, the following resolution reported by the Committee was adopted, viz:

Resolved, that the rule hitherto acted upon by the Presbytery of Cayuga, is inexpedient and unconstitutional.

The chairman of the Judicial Committee, stated to the Assembly, that an appeal had been put into his hands, from Duncan Hamilton and his wife, from a decision of the Synod of Pittsburgh, which appeal had not been reported to the clerk of the house; and asked the direction of the Assembly in the case. On inquiry it appeared, this appeal was in the house in season; and the persons to whom it was intrusted, were not aware of the Constitutional rule requiring that it be lodged with the clerk.

On motion, it was resolved, that in the opinion of the Assembly, the rule has virtually been complied with.

Resolved, That the Judicial Committee report an order of proceeding, to be observed in trying this appeal.

The Committee appointed to consider the measures proper to be adopted to promote the sanctification of the Sabbath, made a report, which being read and amended, was adopted, and is as follows, viz.

The Judicial Committee reported in the case of Duncan Hamilton and his wife, the order which it will be proper for the Assembly to observe, in conducting the appeal, which was adopted.

The Assembly took up this appeal. The Moderator read the rule, reminding the Assembly that they were about to sit in a Judicial capacity, and enjoining on the members to recollect and regard, their high character, as Judges of a court of Jesus Christ, and the solemn duty, in which they are about to act.

The sentence of the Synod appealed from; the reasons on record which were assigned by the appellant for his appeal; and the whole record of the proceedings of the inferior Judicatory in the case, including all the testimony, and the reasons of their decision, were read.

Dr. McAuley was appointed to defend the appellants—Dr. McAuley, was heard in support of the appeal; and the Synod in explanation of the grounds of their decision.

The roll was then called to give the members an opportunity to express their opinion on the case—after which the final vote was taken—when the appeal was sustained, and the decision of the Synod was reversed; and Mr. Hamilton and his wife were restored to the privileges of the church.

The Committee appointed to draw up resolutions expressive of the views of the General Assembly, on the subject of the persecutions of the "Revived Christians," of Berne and Vaud, in Switzerland, made a report, containing certain resolutions, and a memorial to the pastors of Berne and Vaud, which was adopted. Ordered that this report be signed by the Moderator and Permanent Clerk, and be transmitted by the Stated Clerk to the Pastors of Berne and Vaud. Ordered also, that this report be printed in the appendix to the minutes.

The consideration of the report of the Committee, on Overture No. VII., was resumed, and after some progress made therein, the Assembly had a recess until 8 o'clock.

After the recess the Assembly met.—The Committee to whom was recommitted the report of the Committee on the religious education of the rising generation, made the following report, which was adopted, viz.

Resolved, 1. That the Assembly regard the religious education of youth, as a subject of vital importance, identified with the most precious interests and hopes of the Christian church.

2. That the present indications of Divine Providence are such, as imperiously to demand of the Christian community, unusual effort to train up the rising generation in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

3. That the Board of Missions be, and hereby are instructed to enjoin it on their Missionaries sedulously to attend to the religious education of the young; and particularly that they use all practicable effort to establish Sabbath Schools; and to extend and perpetuate the blessings of Sabbath School instruction.

4. That the system of Sabbath School instruction, now in prevalent and cheering operation, be and hereby is most earnestly recommended to the attention of the pastors and sessions of all our churches.

5. That the Presbyteries be and hereby are enjoined to make the progress of the Sabbath School cause within their bounds the subject of special inquiry, and annually to transmit the results of such inquiry to the General Assembly.

6. That in as much, as the advantages of the Sabbath school may, in some cases, be the occasion of remissness in the important duty of Family instruction, it be, and hereby is earnestly recommended to heads of families not to relax in their personal religious efforts at home, and in the domestic circle; but that they abound more and more in the use of all appropriate means to promote sound knowledge and experimental piety in every member of their housholds.

7. That as there is reason to apprehend, that the Catechisms of this church have not, in some parts of our Zion, received that measure of attention to which their excellence entitles them, it be, and hereby is recommended to pastors, sessions, heads of families, superintendants of Sabbath schools, and all charged with the education of youth in our connexion, to give these admirable summaries of christian truth and duty, a prominent place in their instructions to the youth and children under their care.

8. That it be, and hereby is recommended to the pastors and sessions of our churches, to make themselves acquainted with the system of Infant school instruction, now in happy progress in many places, and if practicable to establish such schools in their congregations.

Resolved, that there be no election of Trustees of the General Assembly the present year.

The [illegible] of the report of the Committee on Overture No. VII., was [illegible] after having been farther amended, it was adopted, and is [illegible] viz.

The committee recommend to this General Assembly, to dismiss the [illegible] of the organization of a General Assembly in the western country, for the following reasons.

1. In this land of liberty, where religion depends on moral influences, it appears to your committee to be a matter of very great importance that all who agree in their views of fundamental christian doctrine, government, and discipline, should be united in promoting their common principles and securing common interests, and one General Assembly is surely best suited to form a bond of union for the whole church.

2. In the prevalence of local feelings, and sectional jealousies, there is reason to apprehend that the measure proposed, might soon utterly destroy the unity of the Presbyterian church, and form into two great rival and contending bodies, those who ought ever to hold the "unity of the spirit, in the bond of peace."

3. From the geographical position of the Presbyterian Church, it appears to the committee utterly impossible to form any division, which would not affect both the eastern and western branches of the church, to the same evils which are now felt by this body. And when once the measure of division is resorted to as a remedy for the evil, it is impossible to conjecture, where such a measure will terminate.

4. With respect to the Overture from the Presbytery of Columbus—Resolved, that it is inexpedient at present to make any change in either the mode or ratio of representation.

Dr. Ross, Mr. Urmston, Dr. Murdock, Mr. Sering, Dr. Rice, Mr. McFarren, Mr. Barker, Mr. Eddy, Mr. S. Boyd, Mr. Holbrook, Mr. Page, Mr. Stevenson, and Mr. Tuttle, had leave of absence.

4 o'clock, P. M. The Assembly met and was constituted with prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read.

The committee on Overture No. II., viz. a reference for advice from the Presbytery of St. Lawrence, reported the following resolution as a suitable answer to be given in the case, which was adopted, viz.

Resolved, That when a minister, otherwise in good standing gives notice [illegible] to the Presbytery to which he belongs, that he renounces the fellowship of the Presbyterian church, or by neglecting to attend the meetings of [illegible] after being dealt with for such neglect, gives evidence that [illegible] the name ought to be struck from the roll of members, [illegible] communicated to the disowned member, and if necessary, published to the church. The congregation under the care of such minister ought to be held as still under the care of Presbytery, unless they give evidence that they also have withdrawn, in which case, their name ought also, to be struck from the list of congregations belonging to the Presbytery.

The report of the committee on the communication from the Trustees of the General Assembly was resumed—and being amended, was adopted, and is as follows, viz.

Resolved, 1. That the Trustees of the General Assembly, be requested to borrow a sum of money sufficient to pay the existing debts of the Assembly, and also to meet the expenses of the current year—the sum borrowed to be repaid out of the funds hereafter to be provided.

2. Resolved, that it be recommended to the congregations under the care of this Assembly, to make annually, a collection for a contingent fund to defray the incidental expenses of the Assembly, such as recording and printing the minutes, clerks' salaries, janitor's bill, stationary, and expenses of delegates to Corresponding bodies.

3. Resolved, that this collection be reported annually by the congregations to their respective Presbyteries; and by the Presbyteries be paid over to the Treasurer of the Trustees of the General Assembly, and be reported in the annual report to the Assembly.

4. Resolved, that the usual annual collection heretofore required for the missionary fund of the Assembly, be dispensed with, and that the collection for the contingent fund of the Assembly come in its place.

On motion, it was resolved, that the Board of Trustees of the General Assembly, be directed to report to the next General Assembly, a full and distict statement of all the funds belonging to the General Assembly—so that each fund shall fully appear by itself:

1. The amount of funds for each professorship, paid in, mode of investment, and amount of annual income.

2. The number of scholarships, amount paid on each, by whom paid, how invested, and amount of annual income.

3. The Permanent fund, its amount, from what sources has it accrued, and for what purposes, how invested, and annual income.

The report of the committee on the subject of Lotteries, which was laid on the table, was taken up and adopted, and is as follows, viz.

That, although so often sanctioned by Legislative acts; although the proceeds of lotteries have not unfrequently been appropriated to benevolent and religious objects; although many wise and good men have in periods past, by their participation or agency, given countenance to lotteries, yet your committee cannot view them in any other light than that of legalized gambling.

It would require volumes to record all the evils resulting from this system of predatory speculation. It adds nothing to the wealth of the community. It too often takes from the uninformed poor the property obtained by labour and skill, and transfers the same without the least equivalent, into the hands of the idle and unworthy. It thus becomes the means of introducing and extending habits of gambling in all forms.—Hundreds of families yearly are reduced to dependence and beggary, and not unfrequently its deluded victims termimate their miserable existence in this world by suicide.

Contemplating this multitude of evils to individuals, to families, and to the community at large, your committee beg leave to submit the following resolutions.

1. Resolved, That in the opinion of this General Assembly, all lotteries should be discountenanced by every professed member of the Presbyterian church, as immoral in their nature, and ruinous in their effects upon individual character and the public welfare.

2. Resolved, that the purchase and sale of lottery tickets should be avoided by every member of our church, even when the professed object of the lottery may be praise-worthy; in as much as it is not allowable to do evil that good may come.

3. That all the Presbyteries under the care of the General Assembly be, and they hereby are, recommended to take order on the subject of lottery gambling, to press the consideration of it and its attendant evils, upon ministers and sessions; and to adopt such plans of operation, as may free the church from all participation in this sin, enlighten, arouse, and direct public opinion, and save our country from this and every other species of gambling.

The report of the committee on Psalmody which was laid on the table was taken up, when it was resolved that the book of Psalms and Hymns, with the alterations and additions submitted by the committee be approved by the Assembly, and its use in the worship of God be authorized in all the churches under their care.

Resolved, That the Rev. Ezra S. Ely, D. D. be appointed to secure the copy right of said book to the Trustees of the General Assembly.

Resolved, That the printing and publishing of the said book of Psalms and Hymns be committed to the same committee who prepared and corrected it, with powers in regard to the printing and publication; and that Mr. Solomon Allen be added to the committee, and that Dr. Green be chairman.

And whereas an edition was published by the permission of the committee, by a bookseller in Princeton, previous to the making of the alterations and additions now to be introduced; Resolved, that this subject be referred to the committee of publication, to adopt such measures in relation to said edition as to them may seem best.

Mr. Ashbridge, Mr. Sickels, Mr. Miller, Mr. Chester, Mr. McCorkle, Mr. Wilson, Mr. Linn, Mr. Williamson, Mr. Eaton, Mr. Goldsmith, Mr. Dixon, Mr. Jeffery, Mr. Ford, Mr. A. Platt, Mr. Wetmore, Mr. Townley, Mr. Rankin, Mr. Hawley and Mr. Bushnell, had leave of absence.

Mr. Eaton the temporary clerk having obtained leave of absence, Mr. Tucker was appointed in his place.

Adjourned till to morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

Concluded with prayer.

FRIDAY, June 4th, 9 o'clock, A. M. The Assembly met and was constituted with prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read.

Dr. Dickey, Mr. Patrick, and Mr. Johnston obtained leave of absence.

Robert H. Bishop, D. D. and Rev. Elijah Slack be appointed a standing committee of Publication in the bounds of the Synod of Cincinnati, and said committee are referred for direction on the subject of their appointment to the printed Minutes of 1821, page twelve.

Resolved, That it be recommended to the Congregations under the care of this Assembly to take up a collection for the American Colonization Society on the 4th day of July next.

The report of the committee appointed by the General Assembly of 1829, on the mode of proceeding to be adopted in organizing churches, which was laid on the table, was taken up, and referred to the consideration of the next General Assembly.

The Assembly took up the appeal of Dr. John Rollins from a decision of the Synod of West Tennessee, affirming a decision of the Presbytery of Mississippi, affirming a decision of the Session of the 1st church of New Orleans, by which he had been excluded from the privileges of the Church.

The Moderator read the rule reminding the Assembly that they were about to sit in a judicial capacity, and enjoining on the members to recollect and regard their high character, as judges of a court of Jesus Christ, and the solemn duty in which they are about to act.

Dr. McAuley was appointed to manage the cause of the appellant.

The sentence of the Synod appealed from, the reasons on record, which were assigned by the appellant for his appeal, and the whole record of the proceedings of the inferior Judicatories in the case, including all the testimony, and the reasons of their decision were read.

Dr. McAuley was then heard in support of the appeal. Only one member of the Synod was present, and he declined saying any thing. The parties then withdrew. And the roll was called in part to give the members an opportunity to express their opinion.

Adjourned till this afternoon at half past 3 o'clock.

Concluded with prayer.

Half past 3 o'clock, P. M. The Assembly met and was constituted with prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read.

The Assembly resumed the appeal of Dr. Rollins. The remainder of the roll was called. After which the final vote was taken, when the appeal was sustained, and the decision of the Synod was reversed, and Dr. Rollins was restored to the privileges of the church.

The Delegate appointed to attend the last General Association of New Hampshire, and the General Convention of Vermont, made a report which was accepted.

The following accounts were presented, viz.

For Stationary	$4.81
To Permanent Clerk for services	39.00
To Janitor for attendance, &c.	42.00
Amount	$85.81

APPENDIX.

NARRATIVE OF THE STATE OF RELIGION,

Within the bounds of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, and of the churches corresponding, for May, 1830.

As the affairs of Christ's kingdom move on to a crisis, it is to be expected that the operations of the Church and the movements of her enemies will assume a more decided character. The spirit & tone of the several reports from the Churches the present year evince an unusual advancement in the progression of moral causes and also the nearness as well as the certainty of the results that are to follow. The facts contained in these reports are of a nature to gladden the hearts of Zion's friends. These facts in a condensed form are now presented to the churches. We will declare in Zion the work of the Lord, our God.

In a church of such wide extent of territory and embracing so great a diversity of character it is to be expected that there will be some dark spots, some undesirable things; and in an age of so much enterprise and innovation some excitements and local jealousies are to be looked for, but it is doubted whether there exists a body of christians that exhibits more unity of spirit and co-operation on all great and radical points. May union and liberty ever be inscribed on the ample folds of our banners. We are one, but our union is based upon freedom of thinking and discussion.

The first subject to which the eyes of the churches will be turned and which is vitally connected with their highest interests is the Special work of the Spirit. Revivals of religion are the hope of the Church; and it is now understood that by them, in a great measure, her borders are to be extended and her stakes strengthened. We rejoice and give thanks for the intelligence we have heard from every quarter. The present thus far appears to be a year of the right hand of the Most High. The footsteps of Jehovah have been seen in the Churches of the East and West, of the North and South. The following is a list of the churches that have been blessed with showers of grace, viz. Champlain, Malone, and Beekmantown in the Presbytery of Champlain; Watertown, Sacketts' Harbour, Adams, Brownville and Louisville in the Presbytery of Watertown; Hudson, Cairo, and Hunter in the Presbytery of Columbia; Augusta, Western, Trenton, Warren, Union and Rome in the Presbytery of Oneida; Windsor, Franklin, Bainbride, Harpersfield, West Coventry and Forks of the Delaware in the Presbytery of Chenango; Cicero, Liverpool, Salina, 3d Church in Pompey, Syracuse, and Otisco, in the Presbytery of Onandaga; Truxton in the Presbytery of Cortland; Owego in the Presbytery of Tioga; Ovid, in the Presbytery of Geneva; 4th Church in Albany, Schenectady and Kingsboro' in the Presbytery of Albany; the 1st and 2nd churches in Troy, Glenn's Falls, Granville, Hebron and Whitehall in the Presbytery of Troy; Ridgebury, Westown, Centreville, and Amity, in the Presbytery of Hudson; Poughkeepsie, Pittsburgh, La Grange and Pleasant Valley in the Presbytery of North River; Sweet Hollow, Brooklyn, coloured Presbyterians in the city, Union church, Canal st. Laight St. and Cedar st. churches in the Presbytery of New York; Frankfort, Wantage, and Paterson in the Presbytery of Newark; Flemington, Baskingridge, and Amwell, in the Presbytery of Newton; Bridgeton, Greenwich, Tinnicum, 5th, 10th, and 11th churches of the city of Philadelphia in the Presbytery of Philadelphia; Patterson in the Presbytery of Bedford; Harrisburgh in the Presbytery of Carlisle; George's Creek, in the Presbytery of Redstone; 3d and 4th Churches in Cincinnati and New Richmond in the Presbytery of Cincinnati; Greensburgh, Shiloh, Mumfordsville, Springfield and Lebanon in the Presbytery of Transylvania; Salem and Franklin in the Presbytery of Salem; the counties of Moore, Robertson and Richmond in the Presbytery of Fayetteville; Salem and Athens in the Presbytery of Athens, (Ohio;) Alemanse, Greers, Buffalo and New-Hope in the Presbytery of Orange; Goshen within the limits of the Choctaw nation, in the Presbytery of Tombigbee; Medway, in the Presbytery of Georgia; Berrington and Hopewell, Indiantown & Kingstree in the Presbytery of Harmony; Shiloh in the Presbytery of Crawfordsville, & Hebron in the Presbytery of South Alabama.

In some of these churches the work of God has been marked and powerful; in others the Spirit's influence has distilled like the dew, moistening the roots of piety and fertilizing the fields of Zion. Sabbath Schools, bible classes, pastoral visitation; plain, direct preaching of the Word have been the instrumentality employed in promoting these revivals of religion.

In connection with these animating facts it is sad to notice the number of Presbyteries whose reports contained nothing of interest. The heart searching question should indeed be agitated, why this declension, why this withdrawment of the divine influences, why are so many places like the mountains of Gilboa on which neither rain nor dew descended? The question has a fearful emphasis if we remember that God has said, He is more willing to give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him than parents to give good gifts to their children. In many Presbyteries however, which do not record the victories of Zion's King over large numbers of sinners, the means of grace are well attended, the churches are walking in harmony, and the tone of piety is far from being low.

The various benevolent Societies which adorn the age, in which evangelical christians of every denomination are so happily united, have been well sustained the past year.

Our churches have entered universally with becoming spirit into the grand and thrilling measure of supplying the United States with Bibles, in two years. It is believed that this noble resolution of the American Bible Society will be carried into effect, if her auxiliaries and the friends of the Bible throughout the land come up manfully to the business as they have promised to do. And when the work is accomplished we doubt not it will appear from the vigour imparted to the pulsation of piety and the amplitude given to the mantle of love, that the charities of the church are among the most effectual means of sanctification.

The Tract Cause has been greatly prospered. The plan of monthly distribution of tracts which has been adopted with such signal success in the city of New-York, has been carried into effect in other cities and towns, and will doubtless become general. If prudence and energy are combined in the distributers we may hope that this single measure will tell with amazing effect upon all the great interests of the church and the world. Already in many places the means of grace are much better attended; and the enormous evils of Sabbath breaking, profaneness and intemperance have received a check.

Vigorous efforts have been made in many parts of the church to rescue the Sabbath from desecration. The most virulent operation has been manifested from without. Whether in all cases the measures adopted have been the most judicious or whether the best spirit has always been exhibited in executing these measures, the Assembly do not pretend to affirm, yet it deserves to be repeated and should never be forgotten by the churches, that the weapons of our warfare are not carnal but spiritual; that tenderness and humility are perfectly consistent with, and should ever characterize, unshrinking fortitude and moral heroism. The Sabbath is the great institute of God's government in this world; neither religious nor civil liberty can survive its extinction. Let the friends of the Sabbath give themselves to praying that an enterprize so vital to all that is valuable in our institutions as the "Sabbath Union," may be prospered.

Bible Classes and Sabbath Schools, those nurseries of the Church, have greatly increased, and the seal of God's Spirit has been stamped upon them. May they be multiplied a thousand fold till all our children and youth shall be brought under their powerful and dissolving influence. In several instances a work of grace has commenced in them and the instruction communicated there has been blessed in turning the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers. Though much has been done in this department of benevolence, more remains to be done. Thousands of children in our land are yet without the blessing of Sabbath School instruction. The interest of the field equals the demand for labourers: both combined ought to put every minister and elder and parent upon the most strenuous and self-sacrificing exertions.

The monthly concert for prayer on the 1st Monday of each month, is now generally observed; though not with the interest or as numerously as could be desired. The Concert of prayer for Sabbath Schools on the 2d Monday of each month is also becoming more general. These seasons of prayer and almsgiving keep the great objects of Christian benevolence distinctly before the Churches: here the power is applied which moves the wheels of this great moral machinery that is to convert the world.

The cause of Education for the christian ministry has received a new impulse. The Assembly's Board and the Branch connected with the American Education Society are each enjoying the patronage of the Churches, while other societioes in various districts are doing much for this good cause. These societies are the fountains that must supply the rivers that water the cities of our God. If this broad land is to be furnished with able and devoted ministers of the New Testament, much more must be done. The increase of population and the places vacated by death demand all the men that can be furnished and even more, so that no agressive movement can be made upon the kingdom of sin and error unless a fourfold exertion on the part of the churches be made.

And the Holy Spirit of God seems in a great measure to be withdrawn from most of our Colleges and Academies: if the prayers of the church be not more directed to these interesting groups of young men we may fear that the ways of Zion will still mourn and her desolate heritages will lie waste. It is an encouraging fact that though the number of Theological Seminaries has increased, the number of students in each is not diminished.

If every Church would consider itself an Education Society, and feel bound to train up her sons, as some churches have done, for the Lord, there would be no want of ministers. It is devoutly to be wished that this subject were more earnestly pressed upon the attention of the churches.

The cause of Missions, Foreign and Domestic, notwithstanding the pecuniary embarrassments which have pressed heavily upon many parts of the country, has steadily advanced. The Assembly's Board of Missions has accomplished much, and the success of its operations proves that while other societies of a kindred character increase and prosper, the field is broad enough for every laborer. The Home Missionary Society, a noble institution, is going forward with its numerous agencies and auxiliaries with encouraging prospects; and if the love of Christ reign in the Directors and Agents of these excellent Societies, they may accomplish much for Zion. Let them rise and flourish till every congregation shall be blessed with a pastor, till all the waste ground in our vast territory be brought under the culture of the spiritual husbandman.

The Seaman's Friend Society is beginning to exert a wide influence upon that hardy class of men who go down to the sea in ships and do business upon the great waters. It is regarded with interest by the churches and it has already taken its proper stand among the great Christian enterprizes of the day.

The Colonization Society is viewed as more and more important and is receiving a considerable portion of patronage.

The cause of Temperance has advanced with astonishing rapidity. From every quarter the glad intelligence is received that the greatest evil that ever cursed our land, which like the plagues of Egypt had come up into all our dwellings, has been powerfully checked. If the tide has not been turned, its volume has been greatly diminished; many lives have been preserved and millions of money have been saved.

So many appalling facts have been presented, so powerful an impression has been made upon the public mind that no member of the church can use or vend spirituous liquors without prejudice to the cause. If no harshness or vituperation be employed to advance this enterprise, it will ultimately tr

ing, and the Stated Clerk ex-officio, were appointed a Committee to grant letters of dismission to ministers without charge, and to licentiates and candidates under the care of this Presbytery, to unite with other Presbyteries; and were directed to report at each stated meeting."

In relation to this rule, the following resolution reported by the Committee was adopted, viz:

Resolved, that the rule hitherto acted upon by the Presbytery of Cayuga, is inexpedient and unconstitutional.

The chairman of the Judicial Committee, stated to the Assembly, that an appeal had been put into his hands, from Duncan Hamilton and his wife, from a decision of the Synod of Pittsburgh, which appeal had not been reported to the clerk of the house; and asked the direction of the Assembly in the case. On inquiry it appeared, this appeal was in the house in season; and the persons to whom it was intrusted, were not aware of the Constitutional rule requiring that it be lodged with the clerk.

On motion, it was resolved, that in the opinion of the Assembly, the rule has virtually been complied with.

Resolved, That the Judicial Committee report an order of proceeding, to be observed in trying this appeal.

The Committee appointed to consider the measures proper to be adopted to promote the sanctification of the Sabbath, made a report, which being read and amended, was adopted, and is as follows, viz.

Resolved, that the second Thursday of November next, be and it hereby is recommended to be observed as a day of Fasting, Humiliation, and Prayer, on account of the sin which rests upon the church, and on the whole land by the profanation of the Sabbath; and that it be given in charge to all Synods and Presbyteries in our connexion, to take such order on this subject as may be most effectual in securing the observance of that day by the churches.

The Committee appointed to answer the letter from the Rev. Colany Nee, reported an answer, which was read and adopted. Ordered that it be signed by the Moderator and Permanent Clerk; and be committed to the Stated Clerk to transmit it to the Rev. Colany Nee.

Resolved, also, that this letter be printed in the appendix to the minutes.

The Committee to whom was referred Overture No. VII., made a report, which was read in part by paragraphs, and amended.

Mr. Mustard, and Mr. Doolittle, had leave of absence.

Adjourned till this afternoon at 4 o'clock. Concluded with prayer.

4 o'clock, P. M. The Assembly met and was constituted with prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read.

The Judicial Committee reported in the case of Duncan Hamilton and his wife, the order which it will be proper for the Assembly to observe, in conducting the appeal, which was adopted.

The Assembly took up this appeal. The Moderator read the rule, reminding the Assembly that they were about to sit in a Judicial capacity, and enjoining on the members to recollect and regard, their high character, as Judges of a court of Jesus Christ, and the solemn duty, in which they are about to act.

The sentence of the Synod appealed from; the reasons on record which were assigned by the appellant for his appeal; and the whole record of the proceedings of the inferior Judicatory in the case, including all the testimony, and the reasons of their decision, were read.

Dr. McAuley was appointed to defend the appellants—Dr. McAuley, was heard in support of the appeal; and the Synod in explanation of the grounds of their decision.

The roll was then called to give the members an opportunity to express their opinion on the case—after which the final vote was taken—when the appeal was sustained, and the decision of the Synod was reversed; and Mr. Hamilton and his wife were restored to the privileges of the church.

The Committee appointed to draw up resolutions expressive of the views of the General Assembly, on the subject of the persecutions of the "Revived Christians," of Berne and Vaud, in Switzerland, made a report, containing certain resolutions, and a memorial to the pastors of Berne and Vaud, which was adopted. Ordered that this report be signed by the Moderator and Permanent Clerk, and be transmitted by the Stated Clerk to the Pastors of Berne and Vaud. Ordered also, that this report be printed in the appendix to the minutes.

The consideration of the report of the Committee, on Overture No. VII., was resumed, and after some progress made therein, the Assembly had a recess until 8 o'clock.

After the recess the Assembly met.—The Committee to whom was recommitted the report of the Committee on the religious education of the rising generation, made the following report, which was adopted, viz.

Resolved, 1. That the Assembly regard the religious education of youth, as a subject of vital importance, identified with the most precious interests and hopes of the Christian church.

2. That the present indications of Divine Providence are such, as imperiously to demand of the Christian community, unusual effort to train up the rising generation in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

3. That the Board of Missions be, and hereby are instructed to enjoin it on their Missionaries sedulously to attend to the religious education of the young; and particularly that they use all practicable effort to establish Sabbath Schools; and to extend and perpetuate the blessings of Sabbath School instruction.

4. That the system of Sabbath School instruction, now in prevalent and cheering operation, be and hereby is most earnestly recommended to the attention of the pastors and sessions of all our churches.

5. That the Presbyteries be and hereby are enjoined to make the progress of the Sabbath School cause within their bounds the subject of special inquiry, and annually to transmit the results of such inquiry to the General Assembly.

6. That in as much, as the advantages of the Sabbath school may, in some cases, be the occasion of remissness in the important duty of Family instruction, it be, and hereby is earnestly recommended to heads of families not to relax in their personal religious efforts at home, and in the domestic circle; but that they abound more and more in the use of all appropriate means to promote sound knowledge and experimental piety in every member of their housholds.

7. That as there is reason to apprehend, that the Catechisms of this church have not, in some parts of our Zion, received that measure of attention to which their excellence entitles them, it be, and hereby is recommended to pastors, sessions, heads of families, superintendants of Sabbath schools, and all charged with the education of youth in our connexion, to give these admirable summaries of christian truth and duty, a prominent place in their instructions to the youth and children under their care.

8. That it be, and hereby is recommended to the pastors and sessions of our churches, to make themselves acquainted with the system of Infant school instruction, now in happy progress in many places, and if practicable to establish such schools in their congregations.

Resolved, that there be no election of Trustees of the General Assembly the present year.

The consideration of the report of the Committee on Overture No. VII., was resumed: and after having been further amended, it was adopted, and is as follows, viz.

The committee recommend to this General Assembly, to dismiss the Overture, for the organization of a General Assembly in the western country, for the following reasons.

1. In this land of liberty, where religion depends on moral influences, it appears to your committee to be a matter of very great importance that all who agree in their views of fundamental christian doctrine, government, and discipline, should be united in promoting their common principles and sustaining common interests, and one General Assembly is surely best suited to form a bond of union for the whole church.

2. In the prevalence of local feelings, and sectional jealousies, there is reason to apprehend that the measure proposed, might soon utterly destroy the unity of the Presbyterian church, and form into two great rival and contending bodies, those who ought ever to hold the "unity of the spirit, in the bond of peace."

3. From the geographical position of the Presbyterian Church, it appears to the committee utterly impossible to form any division, which would not subject both the eastern and western branches of the church, to the same evils which are now felt by this body. And when once the measure of division is resorted to as a remedy for the evil, it is impossible to conjecture, where such a measure will terminate.

4. With respect to the Overture from the Presbytery of Columbus—Resolved, that it is inexpedient at present to make any change in either the mode or ratio of representation.

Dr. Fitch, Mr. Urmston, Dr. Murdock, Mr. Sering, Dr. Rice, Mr. McIntyre, Mr. Butler, Mr. Eddy, Mr. S. Boyd, Mr. Holbrook, Mr. Page, Mr. Hutchinson, and Mr. Tuttle, had leave of absence.

Adjourned till to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

The minutes of the last session were read.

The committee to whom was recommitted the communication from the Trustees of the General Assembly, relative to the interest of the Permanent Missionary fund, made a report, which was read and discussed at considerable length.

Mr. Janvier, Mr. Burbank, Mr. Brown, Mr. Kingsbury, Mr. Breck, Mr. Pond, and Dr. Cathcart, had leave of absence.

Adjourned till this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Concluded with prayer.

4 o'clock, P. M. The Assembly met and was constituted with prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read.

The committee on Overture No. II., viz. a reference for advice from the Presbytery of St. Lawrence, reported the following resolution as a suitable answer to be given in the case; which was adopted, viz.

Resolved, that when a minister, otherwise in good standing gives notice in form to the Presbytery to which he belongs, that he renounces the fellowship of the Presbyterian church, or by neglecting to attend the meetings of its Judicatories after being dealt with for such neglect, gives evidence that he has done so in fact, his name ought to be struck from the roll of member-notice of this procedure communicated to the disowned member, and if necessary, published to the church. The congregation under the care of such minister ought to be held as still under the care of Presbytery, unless they give evidence that they also have withdrawn, in which case, their name ought also, to be struck from the list of congregations belonging to the Presbytery.

The report of the committee on the communication from the Trustees of the General Assembly was resumed—and being amended, was adopted, and is as follows, viz.

Resolved, 1. That the Trustees of the General Assembly, be requested to borrow a sum of money sufficient to pay the existing debts of the Assembly, and also to meet the expenses of the current year—the sum borrowed to be repaid out of the funds hereafter to be provided.

2. Resolved, that it be recommended to the congregations under the care of this Assembly, to make annually, a collection for a contingent fund to defray the incidental expenses of the Assembly, such as recording and printing the minutes, clerks' salaries, janitor's bill, stationary, and expenses of delegates to Corresponding bodies.

3. Resolved, that this collection be reported annually by the congregations to their respective Presbyteries; and by the Presbyteries be paid over to the Treasurer of the Trustees of the General Assembly, and be reported in the annual report to the Assembly.

4. Resolved, that the usual annual collection heretofore required for the missionary fund of the Assembly, be dispensed with, and that the collection for the contingent fund of the Assembly come in its place.

On motion, it was resolved, that the Board of Trustees of the General Assembly, be directed to report to the next General Assembly, a full and distict statement of all the funds belonging to the General Assembly—so that each fund shall fully appear by itself:

1. The amount of funds for each professorship, paid in, mode of investment, and amount of annual income.

2. The number of scholarships, amount paid on each, by whom paid, how invested, and amount of annual income.

3. The Permanent fund, its amount, from what sources has it accrued, and for what purposes, how invested, and annual income.

4. Contingent fund, amount. together with a full statement of all monies received for Missionary, education, and other purposes.

5. A distinct statement of all the usual items of contingent expenses, for the current year.

6. A distinct and particular account of all the payments made or authorized to be made, by the Board of Trustees during he present year for officers' salaries—Professors' salaries—compensation of Delegates to other ecclesiastical bodies, monies paid to young men on scholarships, monies paid for Missionary and Education purposes, monies paid to Commissioners to the General Assembly; and for all contingencies—every item to be separately and distinctly stated, and whatever else may be necessary in the opinion of said Board of Trustees, to the giving of a full and particular exhibition of the funds, income, and expenditures of this General Assembly.

The report of the committee on the subject of Lotteries, which was laid on the table, was taken up and adopted, and is as follows, viz.

That, although so often sanctioned by Legislative acts; although the proceeds of lotteries have not unfrequently been appropriated to benevolent and religious objects; although many wise and good men have in periods past, by their participation or agency, given countenance to lotteries, yet your committee cannot view them in any other light than that of legalized gambling.

It would require volumes to record all the evils resulting from this system of predatory speculation. It adds nothing to the wealth of the community. It too often takes from the uninformed poor the property obtained by labour and skill, and transfers the same without the least equivalent, into the hands of the idle and unworthy. It thus becomes the means of introducing and extending habits of gambling in all forms.—Hundreds of families yearly are reduced to dependence and beggary, and not unfrequently its deluded victims termimate their miserable existence in this world by suicide.

Contemplating this multitude of evils to individuals, to families, and to the community at large, your committee beg leave to submit the following resolutions.

1. Resolved, That in the opinion of this General Assembly, all lotteries should be discountenanced by every professed member of the Presbyterian church, as immoral in their nature, and ruinous in their effects upon individual character and the public welfare.

2. Resolved, that the purchase and sale of lottery tickets should be avoided by every member of our church, even when the professed object of the lottery may be praise-worthy; in as much as it is not allowable to do evil that good may come.

3. That all the Presbyteries under the care of the General Assembly be, and they hereby are, recommended to take order on the subject of lottery gambling, to press the consideration of it and its attendant evils, upon ministers and sessions; and to adopt such plans of operation, as may free the church from all participation in this sin, enlighten, arouse, and direct public opinion, and save our country from this and every other species of gambling.

The report of the committee on Psalmody which was laid on the table was taken up, when it was resolved that the book of Psalms and Hymns, with the alterations and additions submitted by the committee be approved by the Assembly, and its use in the worship of God be authorized in all the churches under their care.

Resolved, That the Rev. Ezra S. Ely, D. D. be appointed to secure the copy right of said book to the Trustees of the General Assembly.

Resolved, That the printing and publishing of the said book of Psalms and Hymns be committed to the same committee who prepared and corrected it, with powers in regard to the printing and publication; and that Mr. Solomon Allen be added to the committee, and that Dr. Green be chairman.

And whereas an edition was published by the permission of the committee, by a bookseller in Princeton, previous to the making of the alterations and additions now to be introduced; Resolved, that this subject be referred to the committee of publication, to adopt such measures in relation to said edition as to them may seem best.

Mr. Ashbridge, Mr. Sickels, Mr. Miller, Mr. Chester, Mr. McCorkle, Mr. Wilson, Mr. Linn, Mr. Williamson, Mr. Eaton, Mr. Goldsmith, Mr. Dixon, Mr. Jeffery, Mr. Ford, Mr. A. Platt, Mr. Wetmore, Mr. Townley, Mr. Rankin, Mr. Hawley and Mr. Bushnell, had leave of absence.

Mr. Eaton the temporary clerk having obtained leave of absence, Mr. Tucker was appointed in his place.

Adjourned till to morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

Concluded with prayer.

FRIDAY, June 4th, 9 o'clock, A. M. The Assembly met and was constituted with prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read.

Dr. Dickey, Mr. Patrick, and Mr. Johnston obtained leave of absence.

Overture, No. XII., viz. an application from the Presbytery of Cincinnati in relation to the publication in the Western country, of the Assembly's book of Psalms and Hymns, was read and committed to the committee of publication. Resolved, that said committee have full power to make such contract or contracts for the publication of the book as they may deem expedient.

This Overture also contained a request for permission to publish an edition of the Confession of Faith. On this part of the Overture it was resolved that the Rev. Joshua L. Wilson, D.D. Rev. Robert H. Bishop, D. D. and Rev. Elijah Slack be appointed a standing committee of Publication in the bounds of the Synod of Cincinnati, and said committee are referred for direction on the subject of their appointment to the printed Minutes of 1821, page twelve.

The committee appointed to draught a letter to the Synod of Ulster, reported a letter which was adopted, and ordered to be signed by the Moderator and Permanent Clerk, and transmitted by the Stated Clerk, to the Synod of Ulster.

Resolved, That it be recommended to the Congregations under the care of this Assembly to take up a collection for the American Colonization Society on the 4th day of July next.

The report of the committee appointed by the General Assembly of 1829, on the mode of proceeding to be adopted in organizing churches, which was laid on the table, was taken up, and referred to the consideration of the next General Assembly.

The Assembly took up the appeal of Dr. John Rollins from a decision of the Synod of West Tennessee, affirming a decision of the Presbytery of Mississippi, affirming a decision of the Session of the 1st church of New Orleans, by which he had been excluded from the privileges of the Church.

The Moderator read the rule reminding the Assembly that they were about to sit in a judicial capacity, and enjoining on the members to recollect and regard their high character, as judges of a court of Jesus Christ, and the solemn duty in which they are about to act.

Dr. McAuley was appointed to manage the cause of the appellant.

The sentence of the Synod appealed from, the reasons on record, which were assigned by the appellant for his appeal, and the whole record of the proceedings of the inferior Judicatories in the case, including all the testimony, and the reasons of their decision were read.

Dr. McAuley was then heard in support of the appeal. Only one member of the Synod was present, and he declined saying any thing. The parties then withdrew. And the roll was called in part to give the members an opportunity to express their opinion.

Adjourned till this afternoon at half past 3 o'clock.

Concluded with prayer.

Half past 3 o'clock, P. M. The Assembly met and was constituted with prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read.

The Assembly resumed the appeal of Dr. Rollins. The remainder of the roll was called. After which the final vote was taken, when the appeal was sustained, and the decision of the Synod was reversed, and Dr. Rollins was restored to the privileges of the church.

The Delegate appointed to attend the last General Association of New Hampshire, and the General Convention of Vermont, made a report which was accepted.

The following accounts were presented, viz.

For Stationary	$4.81
To Permanent Clerk for services	39.00
To Janitor for attendance, &c.	42.00
Amount	$85.81

The Permanent Clerk was directed to settle the above account of $85.81 by a draft on the Treasurer of the Trustees of the General Assembly; for the payment of which the Trustees are hereby directed to issue their warrant.

Resolved, That in the standing committee to certify the qualifications of preachers travelling from the bounds of the Presbyterian Church, the name of the Rev. Obadiah Jennings of Nashville, Tennessee, be inserted in the place of that of the Rev. Theodore Clapp, of New Orleans.*

The Assembly having completed its business, the roll was called agreeably to a standing rule; and it was found that the following members were absent without leave, viz. Rev. Henry R. Weed, Rev. Luther Clark, Rev. Morris Barton, Mr. Abijah Marvin, and Mr. James Kerr.

Resolved, That this Assembly be dissolved, and that another Assembly chosen in the same manner, be required to meet in the First Presbyterian Church in Philadelphia on the third Thursday in May 1831, at 11 o'clock, A. M.

Concluded with prayer, singing, and the apostolic benediction.

APPENDIX.

NARRATIVE OF THE STATE OF RELIGION,

Within the bounds of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, and of the churches corresponding, for May, 1830.

As the affairs of Christ's kingdom move on to a crisis, it is to be expected that the operations of the Church and the movements of her enemies will assume a more decided character. The spirit & tone of the several reports from the Churches the present year evince an unusual advancement in the progression of moral causes and also the nearness as well as the certainty of the results that are to follow. The facts contained in these reports are of a nature to gladden the hearts of Zion's friends. These facts in a condensed form are now presented to the churches. We will declare in Zion the work of the Lord, our God.

In a church of such wide extent of territory and embracing so great a diversity of character it is to be expected that there will be some dark spots, some undesirable things; and in an age of so much enterprise and innovation some excitements and local jealousies are to be looked for, but it is doubted whether there exists a body of christians that exhibits more unity of spirit and co-operation on all great and radical points. May union and liberty ever be inscribed on the ample folds of our banners. We are one, but our union is based upon freedom of thinking and discussion.

The first subject to which the eyes of the churches will be turned and which is vitally connected with their highest interests is the Special work of the Spirit. Revivals of religion are the hope of the Church; and it is now understood that by them, in a great measure, her borders are to be extended and her stakes strengthened. We rejoice and give thanks for the intelligence we have heard from every quarter. The present thus far appears to be a year of the right hand of the Most High. The footsteps of Jehovah have been seen in the Churches of the East and West, of the North and South. The following is a list of the churches that have been blessed with showers of grace, viz. Champlain, Malone, and Beekmantown in the Presbytery of Champlain; Watertown, Sacketts' Harbour, Adams, Brownville and Louisville in the Presbytery of Watertown; Hudson, Cairo, and Hunter in the Presbytery of Columbia; Augusta, Western, Trenton, Warren, Union and Rome in the Presbytery of Oneida; Windsor, Franklin, Bainbride, Harpersfield, West Coventry and Forks of the Delaware in the Presbytery of Chenango; Cicero, Liverpool, Salina, 3d Church in Pompey, Syracuse, and Otisco, in the Presbytery of Onandaga; Truxton in the Presbytery of Cortland; Owego in the Presbytery of Tioga; Ovid, in the Presbytery of Geneva; 4th Church in Albany, Schenectady and Kingsboro' in the Presbytery of Albany; the 1st and 2nd churches in Troy, Glenn's Falls, Granville, Hebron and Whitehall in the Presbytery of Troy; Ridgebury, Westown, Centreville, and Amity, in the Presbytery of Hudson; Poughkeepsie, Pittsburgh, La Grange and Pleasant Valley in the Presbytery of North River; Sweet Hollow, Brooklyn, coloured Presbyterians in the city, Union church, Canal st. Laight St. and Cedar st. churches in the Presbytery of New York; Frankfort, Wantage, and Paterson in the Presbytery of Newark; Flemington, Baskingridge, and Amwell, in the Presbytery of Newton; Bridgeton, Greenwich, Tinnicum, 5th, 10th, and 11th churches of the city of Philadelphia in the Presbytery of Philadelphia; Patterson in the Presbytery of Bedford; Harrisburgh in the Presbytery of Carlisle; George's Creek, in the Presbytery of Redstone; 3d and 4th Churches in Cincinnati and New Richmond in the Presbytery of Cincinnati; Greensburgh, Shiloh, Mumfordsville, Springfield and Lebanon in the Presbytery of Transylvania; Salem and Franklin in the Presbytery of Salem; the counties of Moore, Robertson and Richmond in the Presbytery of Fayetteville; Salem and Athens in the Presbytery of Athens, (Ohio;) Alemanse, Greers, Buffalo and New-Hope in the Presbytery of Orange; Goshen within the limits of the Choctaw nation, in the Presbytery of Tombigbee; Medway, in the Presbytery of Georgia; Berrington and Hopewell, Indiantown & Kingstree in the Presbytery of Harmony; Shiloh in the Presbytery of Crawfordsville, & Hebron in the Presbytery of South Alabama.

In some of these churches the work of God has been marked and powerful; in others the Spirit's influence has distilled like the dew, moistening the roots of piety and fertilizing the fields of Zion. Sabbath Schools, bible classes, pastoral visitation; plain, direct preaching of the Word have been the instrumentality employed in promoting these revivals of religion.

In connection with these animating facts it is sad to notice the number of Presbyteries whose reports contained nothing of interest. The heart searching question should indeed be agitated, why this declension, why this withdrawment of the divine influences, why are so many places like the mountains of Gilboa on which neither rain nor dew descended? The question has a fearful emphasis if we remember that God has said, He is more willing to give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him than parents to give good gifts to their children. In many Presbyteries however, which do not record the victories of Zion's King over large numbers of sinners, the means of grace are well attended, the churches are walking in harmony, and the tone of piety is far from being low.

The various benevolent Societies which adorn the age, in which evangelical christians of every denomination are so happily united, have been well sustained the past year.

Our churches have entered universally with becoming spirit into the grand and thrilling measure of supplying the United States with Bibles, in two years. It is believed that this noble resolution of the American Bible Society will be carried into effect, if her auxiliaries and the friends of the Bible throughout the land come up manfully to the business as they have promised to do. And when the work is accomplished we doubt not it will appear from the vigour imparted to the pulsation of piety and the amplitude given to the mantle of love, that the charities of the church are among the most effectual means of sanctification.

The Tract Cause has been greatly prospered. The plan of monthly distribution of tracts which has been adopted with such signal success in the city of New-York, has been carried into effect in other cities and towns, and will doubtless become general. If prudence and energy are combined in the distributers we may hope that this single measure will tell with amazing effect upon all the great interests of the church and the world. Already in many places the means of grace are much better attended; and the enormous evils of Sabbath breaking, profaneness and intemperance have received a check.

Vigorous efforts have been made in many parts of the church to rescue the Sabbath from desecration. The most virulent operation has been manifested from without. Whether in all cases the measures adopted have been the most judicious or whether the best spirit has always been exhibited in executing these measures, the Assembly do not pretend to affirm, yet it deserves to be repeated and should never be forgotten by the churches, that the weapons of our warfare are not carnal but spiritual; that tenderness and humility are perfectly consistent with, and should ever characterize, unshrinking fortitude and moral heroism. The Sabbath is the great institute of God's government in this world; neither religious nor civil liberty can survive its extinction. Let the friends of the Sabbath give themselves to praying that an enterprize so vital to all that is valuable in our institutions as the "Sabbath Union," may be prospered.

Bible Classes and Sabbath Schools, those nurseries of the Church, have greatly increased, and the seal of God's Spirit has been stamped upon them. May they be multiplied a thousand fold till all our children and youth shall be brought under their powerful and dissolving influence. In several instances a work of grace has commenced in them and the instruction communicated there has been blessed in turning the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers. Though much has been done in this department of benevolence, more remains to be done. Thousands of children in our land are yet without the blessing of Sabbath School instruction. The interest of the field equals the demand for labourers: both combined ought to put every minister and elder and parent upon the most strenuous and self-sacrificing exertions.

The monthly concert for prayer on the 1st Monday of each month, is now generally observed; though not with the interest or as numerously as could be desired. The Concert of prayer for Sabbath Schools on the 2d Monday of each month is also becoming more general. These seasons of prayer and almsgiving keep the great objects of Christian benevolence distinctly before the Churches: here the power is applied which moves the wheels of this great moral machinery that is to convert the world.

The cause of Education for the christian ministry has received a new impulse. The Assembly's Board and the Branch connected with the American Education Society are each enjoying the patronage of the Churches, while other societioes in various districts are doing much for this good cause. These societies are the fountains that must supply the rivers that water the cities of our God. If this broad land is to be furnished with able and devoted ministers of the New Testament, much more must be done. The increase of population and the places vacated by death demand all the men that can be furnished and even more, so that no agressive movement can be made upon the kingdom of sin and error unless a fourfold exertion on the part of the churches be made.

And the Holy Spirit of God seems in a great measure to be withdrawn from most of our Colleges and Academies: if the prayers of the church be not more directed to these interesting groups of young men we may fear that the ways of Zion will still mourn and her desolate heritages will lie waste. It is an encouraging fact that though the number of Theological Seminaries has increased, the number of students in each is not diminished.

If every Church would consider itself an Education Society, and feel bound to train up her sons, as some churches have done, for the Lord, there would be no want of ministers. It is devoutly to be wished that this subject were more earnestly pressed upon the attention of the churches.

The cause of Missions, Foreign and Domestic, notwithstanding the pecuniary embarrassments which have pressed heavily upon many parts of the country, has steadily advanced. The Assembly's Board of Missions has accomplished much, and the success of its operations proves that while other societies of a kindred character increase and prosper, the field is broad enough for every laborer. The Home Missionary Society, a noble institution, is going forward with its numerous agencies and auxiliaries with encouraging prospects; and if the love of Christ reign in the Directors and Agents of these excellent Societies, they may accomplish much for Zion. Let them rise and flourish till every congregation shall be blessed with a pastor, till all the waste ground in our vast territory be brought under the culture of the spiritual husbandman.

The Seaman's Friend Society is beginning to exert a wide influence upon that hardy class of men who go down to the sea in ships and do business upon the great waters. It is regarded with interest by the churches and it has already taken its proper stand among the great Christian enterprizes of the day.

The Colonization Society is viewed as more and more important and is receiving a considerable portion of patronage.

The cause of Temperance has advanced with astonishing rapidity. From every quarter the glad intelligence is received that the greatest evil that ever cursed our land, which like the plagues of Egypt had come up into all our dwellings, has been powerfully checked. If the tide has not been turned, its volume has been greatly diminished; many lives have been preserved and millions of money have been saved.

So many appalling facts have been presented, so powerful an impression has been made upon the public mind that no member of the church can use or vend spirituous liquors without prejudice to the cause. If no harshness or vituperation be employed to advance this enterprise, it will ultimately umph: but patience and unceasiug exertion are indispensible. Until intoxicating liquors are entirely banished from Groceries and Inns where they ought not to be kept, and be confined, as they should be, to the druggist's shop, the work can never be accomplished. May that time speedily come.

This cause is intimately connected with the prosperity of Christ's kingdom. In some cases the temperance reformation has prepared the way for, and resulted in, a gracious work of the Spirit.

From the General Association of Connecticut encouraging reports have been received. The Churches are walking in the truth; and if some of them have been deprived of their pastors, others have been blessed with the presence of the holy Comforter. Showers of grace have descended the past year upon many churches and great numbers have apparently commenced a new life. More recently the power of God has been specially manifest in Norwich, Saybrook and Enfield. Benevolent Institutions are receiving vigorous and increasing support.

From the General Association of Massachusetts we learn, that after a temporary suspension of the divine influences, God is beginning to revive his work and to grant special tokens of his love. In Boston and the vicinity God is raining down righteousness. Throughout the Commonwealth the line of distinction between truth and error is more visibly drawn: many feeble churches have been strengthened; and evangelical truth is producing its legitimate effects.

The report from the General Convention of Vermont states that generally the Holy Spirit's influences have been withdrawn from the churches in that body during the past year; but that a powerful work of grace is now in progress in Castleton and the vicinity; in which great numbers are turning to the Lord. The temperance cause is signally triumphant there.

From the General Association of New-Hampshire, we learn that many of the waste places in their Zion are about to be built up, the cause of benevolence is prospering and no inconsiderable number of extensive revivals of religion have been experienced.

From the General Conference of Maine no communication has been received.

From the Reformed Dutch Church, we learn that the Lord is smiling upon that portion of Zion. It contains 200 churches and numbers 150 ministers. Her Theological and Literary institutions are flourishing, and the benevolent enterprises of the day are regarded with favour and receive a liberal support.

From the Synod of the German Reformed Church, we learn that while some prejudices exist in some sections against benevolent institutions, still the churches are rising in spirit and power: that the truths of the gospel are faithfully preached, and in the churches of Frederick city and Baltimore the Lord is pouring out his Spirit and bringing sinners to the foot of the cross.

It is painful to record on the same page with the triumphs of grace and the spread of truth, the ravages of disease and the reign of death. Although the harvest is plenteous and the labourers are few it has pleased the great Lord in his inscrutable Providence to lay aside some and to call off from the field by death, others in the vigour of life and in the midst of their usefulness; thereby admonishing all to work while it is called to day, and to double their diligence lest they be found sleeping.

In closing this report, we are constrained to say, that of ministers & churches to whom so much is given, much will be required. God has called us to live in an age when the foundation of an edifice on whose spires the light of the millennial day will dawn, are to be laid: the work has commenced and the form of it will depend in no small degree upon us: if ever wisdom from heaven was needed, it is needed now. Let each member of the church, no matter what his station or where his residence, feel that the word is addressed to him,—"Arise and build." It may be the Lord will work with us; soon the top-stone shall be brought forth with shoutings from a thousand tongues, grace, grace, unto it. Even so, Come Lord Jesus, come quickly.

By order of the General Asembly,

EZRA STILES ELY, Stated Clerk.

A LETTER

From the General Assembly to the Churches under their care, on the subject of the Monthly Concert.

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, to the People under their care. "Grace to you, and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ."

Christian Brethren,—In attending, during our present sessions, to the reports from the several Presbyteries in our connexion, on the state of religion within their bounds respectively, we have been deeply grieved to find that the Monthly Concert for prayer has not been regarded in a manner corresponding with its unspeakable importance. In some Presbyteries and Congregations, indeed, it appears that the appointed season has been better observed than in others: but in almost all the observance we fear has been defective, and in many no room is left to doubt that the neglect has been great and lamentable. We, therefore, feel it to be our indispensable duty to call your serious attention to this subject, and to endeavour to speak to you upon it, with the plainness, the fidelity, and the tenderness, becoming those to whom has been committed the care of souls, and who are under an awful responsibility for the faithful discharge of their sacred trust.

As it is our earnest desire that our views may in no respect be misapprehended, we would first of all observe, that we are very far from wishing to place the day or evening, assigned for the monthly concert, on the same footing with the holy sabbath. None but God, who gave us all our time, has a right to hallow any portion of it; and he has hallowed no more than one day in seven. This you know is the doctrine of our church, and it is a doctrine which we wish not to contravene, but to maintain and teach. There certainly may be occasions when the most fervent Christian may not only find it his duty to be absent from the monthly concert, but to employ the time of its continuance in such secular business as would be utterly improper, during any of the sacred hours of the sabbath. But on the other hand, consider, brethren, that the word of God does plainly teach, that we should, as occasion requires, set apart a portion of secular time for special prayer, and for fasting too, when the aspect of God's providence plainly calls us to these duties. Recollect also, that from the nature of the case, it is not possible there should be an extended union for special prayer, without a public agreement or understanding, as to the time when individuals shall come together for the purpose. Now, we regard the monthly concert simply as a season for special prayer for the revival of religion, which the signs of the times plainly indicate to be proper; and which serious Christians throughout protestant Christendom have voluntarily agreed to observe, that their supplications may go up, as with one voice, to a prayer hearing and prayer answering God.

We are also solicitous that you should by no means suppose that we think the observance of the monthly concert, however strict, may come in place of the duty of prayer at other times, and in other forms. No, verily! On the contrary, it is with sorrow we find ourselves compelled to believe, that in the disregard of the concert, we see, not merely a single omission, but a sad and strong indication that the spirit and duty of prayer in general, are in a low and languishing state at present, among the professing people of God within our bounds. If there was as much fervent and effectual prayer as there ought to be, in the closet, in the family, in the social prayer meeting, and in the public worship of the sanctuary, we are persuaded we should have no occasion to complain that the concert was neglected. The love and holy delight of prayer, experienced and cherished in secret and social acts of warm and genuine devotion, would lead the participants in these exercises to rejoice in an opportunity to join their fellow Christians, in a more extended union for the same hallowed purpose. Alas! brethren, we do greatly fear, that the all-seeing God is witness, that the most of those who habitually, or generally, absent themselves from the monthly concert, do not address him in prayer at other times, and in other ways, with that fervour, frequency, and regularity, which Christian duty demands, and by which the spiritual health and prosperity of their own souls, would be greatly promoted. You perceive, then, that we wish the ordinary seasons and occasions of prayer should be increased, both in frequency and fervour, and not diminished on account of the monthly concert. We only desire that this latter should be added to the former. "These things ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone."

We shall now, dear brethren, state to you some of the considerations which induce us earnestly to inculcate that the monthly concert should be observed generally, and carefully, and solemnly, by every professing Christian in all our churches, and by all, indeed, who have any serious concern for the salvation of their souls.

The first consideration we shall mention is, that we have no right to expect that any, or that all the means and instrumentalities that are now in use, or that can possibly be used, for the promotion of religion, will be successful—will be attended with any saving benefit, unless the blessing of God be sought, and drawn down upon them, by much earnest and persevering prayer. This is a truth plainly taught in the word of God, and one that has been confirmed by the experienceof the church in all ages. Thus, when God promised to his ancient covenant-people, saying—"A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you, and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you a heart of flesh;" it is added, with reference to these very promised blessings—"Thus saith the Lord God; I will yet for this be inquired of by the house of Israel, to do it for them." So also, when the prophet Daniel "understood by books," that the captivity of his people in Babylon was near its close, he says, "I set my face unto the Lord God, to seek by prayer and supplications, with fasting, and sackcloth, and ashes." But it ought especially to be noticed, that when, by another prophet, the latter-day glory of the church is predicted—the day which we hope is now near at hand, if it has not already begun to dawn—the day when Jew and Gentile shall be gathered into one fold, and shall acknowledge the Lord Jesus Christ to be the true Messiah, the one great "Shepherd and Bishop of souls"—the whole, it is declared, shall be preceded by special prayer, and be given in answer to it; for thus speaks the holy oracle—"And I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplications: and they shall look upon him whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for him, as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his first-born."

In like manner, we find in the New Testament, that while the apostles and primitive Christians were waiting for the promised gift of the Holy Ghost, on the day of Pentecost—"They all continued in one accord, in prayer and supplication, with the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brethren:" and it was while "they were all with one accord in one place," and doubtless employed in prayer and supplication, that they received, in the most astonishing manner, the blessing for which they had been waiting. It is worthy of observation, also, that in the brief and comprehensive form of prayer, taught by our blessed Lord to his disciples, no one subject of petition is made so prominent, as that which relates to the spread and success of the gospel. And how often did the apostle Paul ask the prayers of the churches to which he addressed his epistles, for himself and the other heralds of salvation? "Brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free course and be glorified, even as it is with you." And how emphatically does he declare, that all human agencies and instrumentalities are absolutely nothing, but as they are used and blessed of God? "Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to every man? I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase; so then, neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase."

With all these teachings and examples of holy writ, our own observation, brethren, is in perfect accordance. Have we ever known a revival of religion, in a particular congregation or region of country, which did not commence in the revival of a spirit of prayer among God's people? He began with them; he revived them first—Perhaps indeed, their number was very small, but he impressed their spirits with a deep feeling of the constraining love of Christ, and of the infinite value of immortal souls, in danger of perishing all around them; and theycried mightily unto God for the influences of his HolySpirit to revive his work; to show forth his glory; and to save sinners from their impending doom. Their cry was heard and answered; the influences of the Spirit of grace descended "as showers that water the earth;" converts were multiplied; and saints and angels rejoiced, over many sinners who repented and turned to God.

Consider attentively, brethren, the signs of the times. The day in which we live—blessed be God—is a day of much Christian enterprise, and of great expectation. But in our country at least, it is also a day in which the great adversary of souls, and his agents among impious men, are alarmed, awake, active, alert, banding together, forming every device, and putting forth every energy to arrest & counteract the progress of truth and righteousness. We derive encouragement from knowing that if God be for us none can be against us, so as to succeed eventually. He will ultimately and assuredly take care of his own cause, and sustain it effectually. But in the meantime, if we are not much engaged in prayer that he may now appear, and plead his cause among ourselves, we cannot tell to what lengths, in just displeasure at our remissness, he may suffer the wicked to prevail and triumph, and cover us with confusion—before he arises and scatters them as chaff before the whirlwind. We cannot tell but he will suffer his cause to languish and almost expire, in our own happy land, while he shall be pleading & reviving it in other countries. We verily are in jeopardy; and our refuge and hope are in God alone. Use whatever other means we may, if there is not much earnest prayer—the prayer of faith, wrestling with the angel of the covenant, the mighty God of Jacob, for his interposition, for his blessing on the other means, for his efficiency to be imparted to them—all will be vain and utterly abortive. The power to give them effect is all of God: and he seems to be waiting, to see whether we are sensible of our dependence, whether we acknowledge it, whether we deeply feel it, whether it will bring us with great and united importunity to his throne of grace, to plead with him to exert his power in our behalf; to send down his Holy Spirit; to turn his enemies into friends; to melt down all opposition, and to give his cause a glorious triumph throughout our beloved country; and ere long, throughout the world at large. Our Sabbath, and Infant, and Common schools, our Bible classes, our Bible, Missionary, Education, Tract, and Temperance societies, our Colleges and Theological Seminaries, our Catechetical instructions, and the faithful and sound preaching of evangelical truth, are all means—most happily adapted in their nature and design, to promote knowledge, human happiness, and the salvation of immortal souls. But none of these, nor all of them combined, will effect what their best friends desire, unless the special blessing of God attends them. In the monthly concert all these institutions and operations ought to be remembered; they ought to be borne on the hearts of God's praying people, when they beseech him to revive pure and undefiled religion. These—we repeat it—and all other benevolent institutions and operations, ought to be regarded simply as moral means; as instruments admirably fitted to produce reformation; but which notwithstanding never will produce it, on hearts naturally at enmity with God, unless he take them into his own hands, and put into them a resistless efficiency. To think otherwise, is to idolize human instrumentality; it is to put it in the place of God. On this he will always frown: and if we are thus self-sufficient, he will frown on us, and will show us, by mournful experience that without him we can do nothing; that all our best plans and efforts will effect nothing, till he shall please to interpose and crown them with success. It is in prayer that we recognise this truth; we acknowledge it to God, and we impress it on our own hearts. We go out of ourselves; we confess our utter impotence; and "we lift up our eyes to the hills, from whence cometh our help:" deeply sensible that "our help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth." In our extended concert of prayer, if rightly conducted, there is a wide recognition of this great and essential truth; a recognition of it in regard to all the exertions, plans and efforts, that are now in use throughout protestant Christendom. We solemnly profess before the Sovereign of heaven and earth, that we feel our nothingness; that we are sensible that without his interposition and aid, we shall, by all our doings, effect nothing for the promotion of his cause; and we earnestly plead that he would not withhold that blessing which is essential to success—that he would "arise and plead his own cause." In this view the importance of the concert is unspeakable.

But there are other considerations relative to this season for special prayer, which deserve our serious regard. One is, the encouragement which we derive from holy scripture, to expect that an extensive union in prayer will be more prevalent than that which is less general. An instance of this we have in the case of the Ninevites, who by a deep humiliation "and crying mightily unto God," were preserved from the judgments of the Lord, which his own prophet had denounced. Another striking example is recorded in the book of Esther, from which it appears that the whole Jewish nation, when imminently threatened with utter extermination, entirely escaped the peril, after a general humiliation and looking to God for deliverance. Our Saviour himself taught the peculiar efficacy of union in prayer, when he said "where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them." The smallest number in which union can exist is mentioned, for the manifest purpose of establishing the principle that social prayer is, for certain purposes, more prevalent than that which is individual and solitary; and hence the strong implication, that extended union may warrant the hope of an extended blessing. It is further to be considered, that the very thought that many thousands, in different parts of the world, are engaged with ourselves at the same time, in sending up their petitions to the throne of God's mercy, is calculated greatly to encourage, excite and animate us, in our devotions. This proceeds from that social principle of our nature which God has given us, and in accordance with which our lawful desires and petitions, addressed to himself, are most likely to be answered. Again—It is a very interesting consideration that the missionaries, who are gone forth to declare the glad tidings of salvation to the destitute in our own country, and to declare them in foreign lands to Jews, Pagans, and Mahometans—ask us to join with them in this concert; they ask our united and earnest prayers for their success; and they tell us they are greatly animated and encouraged in their arduous work, by knowing that they are commended to the special care and benediction of God, by pious Christians of different denominations, in a concert of fervent supplications in their behalf.—They tell us repeatedly, that they look to the monthly concert as the life-spring of their hopes: And oh! can any one who feels the smallest spark of Christian love, refuse his share of encouragement to these devoted servants of our dear and common Lord. Finally—The special object of the monthly concert is for the conversion of the whole world to God; in fulfilment of the predictions and promises of the Holy Scriptures. This is an object most dear to the heart of every real Christian. It must and will be regarded in almost all his prayers. It forms, we have remarked, the most prominent part of the Lord's prayer. Inasmuch, then, as it is a common object of prayer, and the most important for which prayer can be offered, how proper, how reasonable, how obligatory does the duty seem, that the whole "sacramental host of God's elect," should take as it were a united hold of this great object, and carry it in concert to the foot of the divine throne, and there, with one heart and tongue, most ardently plead with their common God and Father, that he would grant the petitions which their great Intercessor and Advocate, now before his mercy-seat on high, dictated to his disciples in the days of his flesh—"Hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven."

In the conclusion of our address, we "beseech you, brethren, suffer the word of exhortation." We exhort you with all earnestness, to cherish in yourselves, and to endeavour, by all lawful means, to promote in others, the spirit of prayer. It does seem to us that this, more than any thing else, is what is lacking among professing Christians at the present day—We do not pray enough, nor with engagedness enough. We say not, brethren, for we do not believe, that we give more than we ought, or as much as we ought, of our substance, time, activity, and exertion, for the promotion of the cause of God. But we do say, that the greatest want, is the want among Christians in general, of that "effectual fervent prayer of the righteous man which availeth much." O! if there was more importuning of God in the prayer of faith, we doubt not there would be more revivals of religion in our land; more success of our missionaries at home; and abundantly more to crown the labours of those, who, from our own and other countries, have gone to the wretched heathen. Prayer too would bring an influence into our Sabbath schools and Bible classes, such as we have never yet seen; and give an efficiency to all our plans and enterprises of benevolence and piety, that would fill us with surprise. Humble, earnest, persevering prayer, among all who name the name of Christ, would likewise, we are persuaded, soon be followed by the Spirit of the Lord lifting up a standard against that array of bold and blasphemous infidelity, which now threatens more injury to our beloved country, than if—with God our friend—all the nations of the earth were leagued against us.

We exhort you, therefore, brethren, that in your closets, and families, and praying associations, and the sanctuary of God, and the monthly concert, there be an earnest cry and an earnest effort, for the revival of the spirit of prayer. In regard to the concert, let those professors of religion who have hitherto neglected it, be entreated by a regard to the consistency of their Christian profession; by a consideration of the example which they are bound to set before others; as they would encourage and not grieve the hearts of their fellow Christians; as they would promote their own growth in grace, and spiritual peace and comfort; as they love the Redeemer that died for them; as they love their country, exposed, on account of abounding iniquity, to the sore judgments of heaven; and as they wish to share in the happiness and the reward of those who promote the kingdom of God and his declarative glory in the world—in view of all these motives, let them be entreated to take part with their brethren, in the sacred duty of praying for the speedy accomplishment of the promise, that "the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea."

Signed in behalf, and by order of the General Assembly.

The Board have the pleasure to inform the Assembly, that a scholarship been endowed in the Seminary, by the last Wills and Testaments of Robert F and his Sister, Marion Hall, lately deceased, of the Town of Newburgh, Ora County, N.Y. The following extract from the wills, stating the condition said endowment, the Board beg leave to lay before the Assembly.

"And whereas, after a life of nearly fourscore years (much of which has b spent in examining the word of God) we are fully satisfied of the correctr of the doctrines of religion, as laid down in the confession of Faith, and the lar and shorter Catechisms drawn up by the Westminster Assembly of Divines, a as held by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the Uni States, we desire that the scholarship, which is endowed by this our beques $2500, shall be called the ED scholarship, as a witness between us and Theological Seminary, that the Lord he is God, agreeably to said Confes of Faith and Catechisms.

Further it is our will that the Professors in said Seminary be careful that no person, holding sentiments inconsistent with the Confession of Faith, and Larger and Shorter Catechisms, be ever admitted to the benefit of said scholarship.

And further, It is our will, that the Session of the first Presbyterian Church in Newburgh, county of Orange and State of New York, possess the right of naming the student, who shall enjoy the benefit of said scholarship, provided he be received into the Seminary, agreeably to the restrictions of the former paragraph."

The bequest making this endowment the Board have been informed will probably be paid next Fall.

The Board have also the pleasure to inform the Assembly, that since the commencement of their sessions, a Scholarship in the Seminary has been founded by William Kirkpatrick, Esq. of Lancaster, Pennsylvania. The conditions of this generous endowment as contained in a letter from the founder to the Trustees of the General Assembly are as follows, viz. "The beneficiary during life; to be appointed by me, and on my demise, by the Presbytery of Newcastle, or in case of a division of that Presbytery, by that section which may embrace the Presbyterian Church in the city of Lancaster." From that same letter the Board have learned that Mr. Kirkpatrick will pay the 2500 dollars to the Trustees of the General Assembly, as soon as they have acceded to the aforementioned conditions.

The Board would also inform the Assembly that Mr. Jonas Williams of New Windsor, Orange County, New York, lately deceased, has bequeathed to the Seminary, the sum of 700 dollars. The following is an extract from the will of Mr. Williams.

"I give and bequeath unto my sons Richard and Samuel and the survivor of them, and the executors, administrators, and assigns of such survivor, the sum of seven hundred dollars; for, the use of, and in trust for the Directors of the Theological Seminary of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, now located at Princeton in the state of New Jersey, to be applied to the support of students in indigent circumstances in said Seminary."

The Board have been informed that the payment of this bequest may also be expected through the course of the next Autumn.

The Board have also the pleasure to inform the Assembly, that at their late meeting in Princeton the executors of the late Dr. Elias Boudinot, informed them that from funds bequeathed by the testator, they are prepared to pay the sum necessary for the endowment of a scholarship, which agreeably to a former resolution of this Board is to be styled, the "Boudinot Scholarship."

In consequence of this information the Board passed the following resolutions, viz.

"Resolved, that the establishment of this scholarship be reported to the next General Assembly.

"Resolved, that Mrs. Susan V. Bradford the only child of the said Dr. Boudinot, be authorized and requested during her life to nominate the successive incumbents on this fund, and should it so happen from any cause, that no nomination should be made by the aforesaid Mrs. Bradford, then the appropriation of the proceeds of said scholarship be made by the Faculty of this Seminary."

The Board would further report that they have had made known to them through their Secretary, the name of the founder of the scholarship numbered 10 in the list of Scholarships, and are authorized to announce the same to the Assembly. The generous individual who founded this scholarship is Mrs. Susan U. Neimcewicz of Elizabethtown, N. J. The founder has requested that the scholarship may be called the Van Brugh Livingston scholarship, after her respected and deceased father PeterVan Brugh Livingston, Esq. Agreeably to the above request the Board have resolved that Scholarship No. 10, be hereafter known by the name of the Van Brugh Livingston Scholarship.

The Board would further beg leave to lay before the Assembly, the following extract from their minutes, viz.

"Resolved that it be and it hereby is recommended to the next General Assembly to authorize the erection of two buildings on the ground belonging to the Seminary in Princeton, one for a library, and one for a Chapel, so soon as funds can be obtained, for that special purpose."

vania at 5 per cent; and that they will pay over the amount of the principal; and all the interest [illegible] since the investment in full discharge of the claim.

THIRD ANNUAL REPORT

Of the Board of Directors of the Western Theological Seminary.

The Church of God may well believe that her dearest hopes, her vital energies and most precious interests are connected with whatever relates to the training and the introduction of men into the pastoral office: and if with her own hand she plant and nourish Schools of Sacred and Theological learning, it is her privilege and her duty to require those who are the special organs of her will, in their superintendence, to render a true and faithful account of their proceedings; and of the state and progress of learning and of piety in the Institutions committed to their care.

Under a considerate and solemn sense of their responsibility, would the Board of Directors of the Western Theological Seminary endeavour to promote the purity and edification of the church, by watching over and managing its interests; and suggesting to the General Assembly whatever its wants or its increase of usefulness may require.

With their deliberate conclusions in respect to the validity of their title to the ground which they occupy, the decision of the last General Assembly entirely harmonized, and after having obtained the requisite signatures, they have proceeded without mistrust or molestation to prepare the site for the building contemplated, to collect materials, and form contracts & arrangements to carry on the work the present season.

For some time after the rising of the last General Assembly, the Board entertained the hope that the Rev. Professor Halsey, whom that body had chosen Professor of Didactick and Polemick Theology, would have been able to take charge of the Seminary in time for holding the regular summer session; but as it was found impracticable for either him, or Mr. John W. Nevin whom the Board were so felicitous as to secure as [illegible] Oriental and Biblical Literature, to attend during the summer, the [illegible]tion was necessarily suspended.

During the sessions of the Board and of the Synod of Pittsburg, in October last, however, they were gratified with the arrival of the Professor at his post in time to be solemnly inducted into the highly responsible office to which he had been called, at a season when so many of the friends and supporters of the institution could be present to witness the solemnity.

Soon after the opening of the session in November following, Mr. Nevin entered also upon the duties of his appointment; and besides the six students, who had been members of the Seminary at the suspension of its operations in the spring, and who all returned, there were during the winter session received the following additional members, to wit.

Mr. James Anderson, licentiate of the Presbytery of Washington.

Mr. John C. Lowrie,
Mr. Abraham D. Pollock,
Mr. Loyal Young,
Mr. William Reed,
Mr. Joseph S. Wylie,
Mr. Robert Glenn,
} Graduates of Jefferson College.

Mr. James Wilson, graduate of Allegheny College.

Mr. Thomas A. Carothers, graduate of Dickinson College;

Making in all with the Rev. Mr. Williams, Pastor of the Baptist church in Pittsburg, 16 members, of whom 3 are licensed preachers of the gospel. Of their moral and religious character, and the diligent attention to duty on the part of the students, the Professor says, in his report to the Board, "They have been respectful in their deportment to the Instructors, and industrious in the prosecution of their studies. Their intercourse with one another has been affectionate, and their conduct towards them that are without discreet. They have employed themselves as far as comportable with their engagements with the institution in promoting intelligence and piety in the city and vicinity, being all connected with some of the Sabbath Schools, and most of them auxiliary in the distribution of Tracts, Bibles, &c. In a word, we cannot but believe they have been growing in grace and the knowledge of our Saviour Jesus Christ."

Of the course of study adopted, and the progress made by the several classes during the winter, the Professor states in his report that, "The first class (the Biblical) were entirely resigned to Mr. Nevin during the 1st year, that a thorough foundation might be laid in the study and interpretation of the Scriptures, which is the basis of all sound theological knowledge. It is our wish that every student who finishes an entire course in the Seminary shall have critically read the whole of the New Testament in Greek, and most of the Hebrew Scriptures, besides being well-grounded in Jewish and Christian antiquities, and the canons of criticism: he accordingly assumed the charge of the Biblical class; and they have recited to him during this term,

Jahn's Archeology, 1st and 2d parts; Domestic and Civil Antiquities; Sacred Geography; in Hebrew, 23 chapters of Genesis; in the Greek Testament, 1st and 2d Corinthians, and the Epistle to the Hebrews.

The Theological Class have during the term employed a portion of their time each week in revising their Hebrew and Greek, and have advanced from Chap. 1 & 3 of the Confession of faith to Chap. 9.

The Ecclesiastical Class have finished the subject of the nature and government of the church, and the history of its four first centuries. The students of the several classes have been exercised in writing during the term. The recitations have been well attended, as also the Society for the discussion of Theological questions, and the conference on points of casuistry."

The committee appointed to attend the examination of the students at the close of the session, gave very satisfactory attestations of the evidences of industry and of talent on the part of the students, which their exercises afforded.

In reference to the general interests of the Seminary the Board would observe that, in order to encourage Theological Students in the western country and elsewhere to avail themselves of the advantages of a residence at the Seminary, the Board have made arrangements by which genteel boarding may be had at $1.50 per week, by all who choose to avail themselves of the provision, to diminish in some measure, the additional expenses to which they would be subjected in consequence of the want of an edifice and a refectory for their accommodation.

Female associations have also been formed in both the churches in Pittsburg, by which various articles of clothing have been, and are to be provided for such students as may need that kind of assistance.

In consequence of the difficulty which the Board have experienced in obtaining

Soliciting Agents in various parts of the church, no very considerable addition to the subscriptions or funds of the Seminary has been made during the last year. The Rev. Thomas E. Hughes who had been most indefatigably and successfully employed as an agent last year, spent two months, and the Rev. John Stockton one month, in soliciting subscriptions within the bounds of the Synod of Pittsburg; and the Rev. James Graham, and the Rev. A. O. Patterson, the former six weeks and the latter three weeks, in the collection of funds in other parts of Pennsylvania.

At the last meeting of the Board the Rev. Mr. Hughes was appointed a permanent agent for the Synod of Pittsburgh, and the Rev. Professor Halsey an agent to visit New York and some of the eastern states, for the purpose of collecting funds. Just before the meeting of the last General Assembly, the Rev. Alan D. Campbell was commissioned as an agent to solicit aid in cash and books for the benefit of the Seminary, in various parts of Great Britain, and set sail for Europe shortly after. Mr. Campbell spent six months in this agency, and in addition to money more than sufficient to meet his expenses, collected for the library about 2000 volumes, comprising some rare and valuable works, receiving at the same time encouragement to hope for some increase hereafter to these benefactions.

Besides the valuable addition to the library obtained through the agency of Mr. Campbell, and which with the books that may hereafter be received from the same source is, out of respect to these foreign donors, to be called the British & Scottish Library; the Board have received as a donation from the Rev. Dr. McMillan, Ridgeley's Body of Divinity, and Turrettines Theology in 4 vols., from the Rev. Dr. Green, six copies of his Lectures; and from other donors, Stillingfleet's Origines Sacræ, one vol., together with Dupin's Ecclesiastical History in 7 vols.

Although the state of the funds has been such as to awaken some fear in the minds of the members of the Board as to their ability to carry up and complete the Theological edifice without great embarrassment, they have, after mature deliberation, resolved to advance with the work the present season, and they entertain the hope that the walls may be reared and the building covered in, before the return of winter.

In the anticipation of large pecuniary expenditures for this as well as other purposes, to say nothing of the endowment of professorships and scholarships, the Board look with confidence to the General Assembly, and the friends of the Presbyterian church generally, for that aid and co-operation without which the undertaking must go on slowly; and with many discouragements. The Board are aware that since the passage of the act locating the Western Theological Seminary, several local and synodical institutions have been begun in the west, and to these benevolent designs they would cherish none but the feelings of harmony and of friendship, and speak none but the language of encouragement. Yet they cannot but regard the founding of a Western Seminary under the direct auspices of the General Assembly, as an event in which every portion of our church should feel a peculiar interest; and one of the most important reasons why united effort should now be made to endow it competently, is the fact that the time is fast drawing on, when the exigencies of the church will demand the actual establishment of another far to the west, or the union of exertion in behalf of some one or more of those which are now beginning.

The Board conclude their report, therefore, with a respectful mention to that high judicatory by whose authority the Seminary has been begun, of its present & its anticipated wants, and the expression of a hope that a portion of the time of the Assembly may be spent in devising means to increase its pecuniary resources. Of the appropriation made the last year, there has been collected and expended, the sum of $3,621, leaving $4,379 still unappropriated. Of the sum of $3000 appropriated to the payment of the salaries of the Professor and the Teacher, there has been expended $1,150, leaving $1,850 unapplied. To the former of these objects, viz. the erection of the building the Board request an additional appropriation of $3,000, and to the latter, the sum of $2,300.

The term of official service of the following Directors expires at the present time, viz. the Rev. Messrs. Francis Herron, D. D. Obadiah Jennings, Matthew Brown, D. D. Samuel Ralston, D. D. Ashbel Green, D. D. LL. D., Elisha P. Swift, and Elisha Macurdy; with the Elders, Messrs. Matthew B. Lowrie, John Horner, and John M. Snowden.

LETTER

LEME, March 26, 1830, (Aisne.)

Gentlemen and very dear brethren in Jesus Christ, who is our hope;—It is with equal joy and gratitude that I have received the two letters with which you have honoured me, of the date of June 3d of the last year. My heart is deeply touched by the interest which you have deigned to take in my efforts, and the prayers which you offer in my behalf to our Father in Heaven. Oh! that it may please him to hear them in the name of his well-beloved Son, and to send down upon me the effusion of his grace and love.

The brethren of the churches which the Lord has committed to my care, are no less sensible than myself of the Christian affection, which you are pleased to manifest. Our hearts sympathize with yours, in praising the Lord for uniting us to himself in faith, and to one another in charity. It is his glorious gospel alone which can fill with reciprocal affection, strangers who have never seen one another, and who, in all probability, will never see one another on earth, so that they pray for one another, are interested in the success of one another, and mutually anticipate in joy and sadness. Marvellous effect of the Gospel of my Saviour! From this it is, that in Christ Jesus there is neither Jew nor Greek, neither citizen nor stranger, neither Frenchman nor American, but we are all one in Jesus, making one body in Christ, and each one in particular members one of another.

Yes, dearly beloved brethren, we love you in our adorable Saviour, with a tender and cordial affection. We rejoice to learn that his name is exalted by your means, and among your fellow citizens. We praise him for the progress which the gospel has made in your happy country. We beseech him to bless the design which you have formed under the influence of his Spirit, of supplying with a Bible every family in the United States within the period of two years. His word will not remain unfruitful. It will produce, sooner or later, all the effects for which it has been sent. Our duty, moreover, is to disperse it with confidence, with prayer to the Lord that he would by his Spirit give understanding to all those who may receive it; to the end that they may thence draw, together with the knowledge of their misery and ruin, that of the salvation which is by faith in Jesus Christ, and which alone can convert sinners, and render them acceptable to God in his well-beloved Son, and thoroughly furnished unto all good works. Wherever these great truths of the bible are received and professed they will be evinced by zeal, and love, and life. Of this we enjoy the blessed experience in Europe, as you do in America. I am persuaded, dear brethren, as you are yourselves, that if every minister proclaimed these truths with fidelity from the pulpit, and from house to house, we should witness the same revivals which occured in apostolic times. Let us then pray our glorious Saviour to cause these blessed days to dawn again upon his church. He favors us even now by making us witnesses of the great things which he has wrought in the world by his Spirit and his word. Blessed are our eyes, to see the things which we hear. You will I doubt not, hear with gratitude that the Lord continues his work in my parish, and in many other parts of this great kingdom. There are at this time in France nearly fifty ministers who preach Christ and him crucified, who is always to the Jews a stumbling-block, and to the Greeks foolishness; but to those who are called, the power of God. Sunday Schools are instituted in various churches, and we hope that after your example Bible Classes will also be introduced amongst us. Your Christian and fraternal correspondence, in this respect, as well as in others, has been highly beneficial to us. Be pleased then, dear brethren, to continue to us the support of your prayers. In my own behalf, I do above all request them, and in behalf of my dear parishoners. In their name, as well as my own, I give thanks to Drs. John H. Rice, and Ezra Stiles Ely, for the sum of 250 francs, which they have had the goodness to send us, towards the erection of our parsonage house. We are about to commence with the divine aid, and we entreat you to join us in supplications to the Lord, that this house may become the Asylum of a long succession of faithful servants.

My heart exults, upon learning, by your excellent letter, that there are in your country more than fifteen hundred faithful ministers who remember me in their prayers. I beseech them to persevere in intercession for their poor brother of Leme, and to accept here the expression of his lively gratitude. May the Lord abundantly bless their ministry, and likewise all the pious labours of your General Assembly! May his Spirit rest upon your persons! May his peace fill your souls! May his love encircle your hearts! It is in his fellowship that I present to you, as well in my own name as in the name of the believers of my parish, my Christian and fraternal salutations.

Your very affectionate brother in Christ, COLANY NEE.

LETTER

From the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, to the Rev. Colany Nee, Pastor of the third Ecclesiastical Division of the Reformed Consistorial Church of the Departments of Seine and Marne.

Highly respected and very dear brother in Jesus Christ,

Your welcome and cheering communication of the 26th of March, was received during the sessions of the General Assembly, and its contents afforded unmingled satisfaction to all who heard it. In thus replying, we desire to be considered as making our address through you to the whole body of Reformed brethren with whom you stand connected; and most heartily do we rejoice to know from your letter; that there are so many in France who maintain the truths of the gospel in their simplicity. We reciprocate the feelings of fraternal regard and Christian affection with which your letter abounds; we join you in celebrating the excellencies of that gospel, which has made all one in Christ Jesus; and, unless we greatly mistake the signs of the times, we witness in these increasing attempts to extend Christian salvation across the ocean, the presage of that day, when "the watchmen shall see eye to eye"—when the Lord shall build up Zion.

In our communications of 1828 and 1829, we gave a sketch of the history, the principles and the statistics of our church, which will render any details upon these subjects at present unnecessary. Of the success of our efforts to propogate the gospel, you will be able to judge from the Minutes of the General Assembly, and other documents which accompany this letter. Within our bounds there are, by the last reports, 1491 ordained ministers, 2158 churches, and 173,329 communicants. In making an estimate of our church members, it is important that you should be reminded of a difference between the practice of our churches, and that of many of our Reformed brethren upon the continent of Europe. According to the universal practice of the Presbyterian Church, no one is considered as being worthy to participate in the Lord's Supper, who does not give satisfactory evidence of having been renewed and converted by the Holy Ghost. In the great revival of religion in our country, this practical principle has been found to be intimately connected with the purity of the Church, and the extension of its borders. The prayers of God's people, and their earnest united labours have in every case, been found to precede those awakenings to which we owe the enlargement of our bounds.

In our correspondence with foreign churches, nothing has afforded us greater pleasure than the deep interest which is taken abroad in the glorious revivals of religion with which our land has been signalized. Truly the Lord hath done great things for us, whereof we are glad! For thirty years, without any intermission, as to the country at large, the Great Head of the Church has been shedding forth upon our Zion these showers of his grace; and in every successive year, we learn from one and another part of our extensive territory, that congregations, neighbourhoods, villages and often whole districts are influenced by that deep pervading, powerful interest in the great concern of salvation, which we denominate a revival of religion. Our churches have learned, not only to desire and pray for such seasons, but to expect them, to prepare for them, and to labour in promoting their increase. At our solemn assemblies no question more fully occupies the attention of our pastors and people than this inquiry, How may the revival of religion be extended and made universal? We find the eyes of evangelical Europe turned anxiously upon us; and we believe that if there is any thing distinctive and peculiar in the Christian character or enterprise of the American Churches, it is to be attributed to these rather than to any other causes. And now, beloved brethren, it is with no ordinary satisfaction that we discern in your letter that you have seized this subject in a manner which cannot fail to be useful among yourselves. You judge aright when you attribute the triumphs of the word, not so much to any thing singular in our institutions, or even to the mere sovereignty of the divine gifts, irrespective of our use of means, as to the influence of the truth in the hands of a faithful GOD. Suffer us to repeat your own words, as containing the key to a subject otherwise inexplicable: "We are persuaded that if every minister of the gospel proclaimed these truths with fidelity, from the pulpit and from house to house, we should witness the same revivals which occurred in apostolic times." And our hearts desire and prayer to God for France is, that the fifty evangelical ministers who preach Christ and him crusified, may soon afford us the joyful news that thousands have, by their instrumentality, been brought to receive the truth in the love of it.

In the estimation of American Chrlstians, there is nothing more important than the religious education of the young. The Sunday Schools of our land have already under training 500,000 of precious youth, under the care of 55,000 teachers; and it was only last week that the American Sunday School Union Society adopted a solemn resolution in reliance upon divine aid, to establish a Sunday School in every destitute place in the great Valley of the Mississippi,—a valley stretching from the northern lakes to the Gulf of Mexico, and from the Allegheny range of mountains on the East to the Rocky Mountains on the West. Thus have they engaged to found, within two years, not less than 7000 schools, and already many thousands of dollars have been pledged to this great enterprise. Our firm belief is that it will be accomplished, and that there are achievements of Christian charity and energy secured for the next generation, which for greatness and glory shall surpass all that we have ever imagined. If this pleasing correspondence with our brethren of France should lead them to renew their efforts in the cause of Sunday Schools, or Bible classes, and of religious education in general, we should wait with confident hope to see the work of the Lord proceeding onward amongst you as it has done in America.

Time would fail us to recount the varied forms in which Christian benevolence has begun to exert itself in this favoured land. From the accompanying papers you will learn the number, zeal and success of our Bible, Tract, Education, Missionary and Temperance Societies. Comparing this with former years, we must say with renewed praise to our merciful Lord, that all these and similar institutions are increasing greatly in extent and power. With regard to the great undertaking of the American Bible Society, in attempting to supply every destitute family in the United States that is willing to receive it with a copy of the Bible, we are able to report that while much, very much remains to be done, we have such confidence in the Christian energy of a nation when engaged in God's cause, as to dismiss all our fears, and to believe that the work in the great design, will be accomplished. In behalf of these and all our efforts to honour our adorable Redeemer, we respectfully solicit your earnest prayers, "that the word of the Lord may have free course and be glorified, and that we may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men."

It will afford us pleasure from time to time to hear of the progress of evangelical religion among you. In your joys, and in your sorrows, we tenderly participate. How deeply we are interested in the sufferings of our persecuted brethren of the cantons of Berne and Vaud you will perceive from the following resolution unanimously adopted at our present meeting, viz.

"Resolved, That this General Assembly deeply sympathize with those Protestants in the Swiss Cantons of Berne and Vaud, who are restrained in the right of worshiping their Creator according to their own convictions of duty—and that this sympathy is the more lively, in as much as those who suffer restraint, profess to adhere to the standards of doctrine and worship adopted by the great reformers."

It is by cultivating a spirit of love at the throne of grace, that Christians must be knit together. For this purpose we would request your accordance with the Christians of Great Britain and America, in spending a part of the first Monday of every month in united fervent prayer for the spread of the gospel, the conversion of the world, and the edifying of the body of Christ.

And now beloved brethren in the service of our common Master, "may our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God, even our Father, which hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace, comfort your hearts, and stablish you in every good word and work."

We address to you as the organ of communication to the evangelical churches of France, the fraternal salutations of us all, as individuals, as a judicatory of the Presbyterian Church, and with pleasure continue to subscribe ourselves,

Your brethren in the bonds of the Gospel.

Signed by order of the General Assembly.

THE DECLARATION AND MEMORIAL

Of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, respecting persecution on account of Religious Opinions, especially in Switzerland.

Whereas it has been represented to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of North America, on the testimony of a well known and much respected clergyman, who was an eye witness, as well as on evidence arising from other sources, that, in the Cantons of Berne and Vaud in Switzerland, a number of persons, who have, on conscientious principles, separated themselves from the church established by law, are exposed to many grievous hardships, and even to cruel persecution, without the allegation against them of any immoral conduct or any violation of the merely civil laws of those cantons, but solely on the ground of their separation from the established church; and that thus the affecting spectacle has been exhibited to the world of protestants persecuting protestants, on account of differences in religious opinion:

And whereas the Presbyterian Church in the United States, and the Protestant churches in Switzerland have derived their religious doctrines from the Holy Scriptures, through the instrumentality of the same great reformers, of blessed memory, so that this General Assembly cannot but feel a most lively interest in all that concerns the honour and prosperity of their protestant brethren in Switzerland:

And furthermore, because the Presbyterian Church in the United States, under the ordering of a benign and gracious providence, know by experience the inestimable value of perfect religious liberty, and are fully justified, while in the enjoyment of this blessing, in testifying to their brethren in other nations, and to the world, their full conviction, as well as the results of their experience on the subject;

Therefore, Resolved, 1. That this General Assembly do most firmly hold and maintain, that it is the undeniable right of all men to worship the Creator according to the dictates of their own conscience:

2. That they regard every attempt to restrain this right, not only as contrary to the spirit of the gospel, but ineffectual for the promotion of genuine piety, or the prevention of diversities in religious opinion.

3. That the history of this country does, in their view, decidedly prove, that true religion is most promoted; and the peace and welfare of society are best secured, by allowing perfect liberty of worship to all men.

4. That the General Assembly deeply sympathise with those protestants in the Swiss Cantons of Berne and Vaud, who are restrained in the right of worshiping their Creator according to their convictions of duty: and that this sympathy is the more lively in as much as those who suffer restraint, profess to adhere to the standards of doctrine and worship adopted by the great reformers.

5. That the General Assembly in view of the great importance of the truths contained in the foregoing declaration, and wishing to commend them to the attentive consideration of their brethren in Switzerland, feel constrained to address to them the following

MEMORIAL.

To the Reverend, the Pastors of the established Churches of the Cantons of Berne and Vaud in Switzerland, the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of North America wish prosperity and peace in our common Lord.

Brethren,—The holy scriptures command that every man should look not on his own hings only, but also on the things of others. In obedience to this command, and in

FIFTH ANNUAL REPORT

Of the Trustees of the Theological Seminary at Princeton, N. J.

The Trustees report that their Treasurer has received through the past year from the Treasurer of the Trustees of the General Assembly, on the contingent fund for the salaries of the Professors, the sum of five thousand three hundred dollars, which he has paid together with the balance due this account on the last settlement of thirteen dollars 32½ cents, leaving nothing in his hands on this account.

He has received during the past year on the General Expense fund the sum of one thousand and forty-six dollars; and has paid out of the same for the Secretary's salary, servants' wages, premium of insurance, commissions of himself, and other contingent expenses, the sum of one thousand and twenty-one dollars, and 69½ cents, leaving a balance in his hands due this fund of twenty-four dollars and 30½ cents.

He has received during the past year on the scholarships and students' fund the sum of two thousand four hundred and seventy three dollars, which added to the balance due this fund on former settlement of eighty-five dollars and one cent, makes the sum of two thousand five hundred and fifty-eight dollars and one cent; and he has paid out from this fund the sum of two thousand four hundred and forty three dollars and 84 cents, leaving in his hands a balance due this fund of one hundred and fourteen dollars and 17 cents.

Recapitulation.

Balance on Expense fund	$24.30½
Balance on Education fund	114.17
	138.47½

Leaving in his hands on the General Account this balance of one hundred thirty eight dollars and forty eight cents.

The Trustees would further report that they were obliged some time since to institute a suit to procure the payment of the bequest of Mr. John Keith of Bucks County, Pennsylvania, left by him for the establishment of a scholarship in the Seminary. This suit has lately been decided and judgment has been rendered in favour of the Board for twenty five hundred dollars. The counsel employed has written to the Treasurer of the Board, that about two years ago, the executors invested the amount in stock of the State of Pennsylvania at 5 per cent; and that they will pay over the amount of the principal; and all the interest drawn since the investment in full discharge of the claim.

The Board have authorized Mr. Alexander Henry and Mr. Isaac Snowden, Treasurer of the Trustees of the General Assembly to settle with Mr. Samuel McNair, executor of John Keith deceased, and also with the counsel employed in the business.

The Board have only further to report that an appropriation of $5,300 will be requisite to pay the salaries of Professors for the current year.

Of the Board of Directors of the Western Theological Seminary.

The Church of God may well believe that her dearest hopes, her vital energies and most precious interests are connected with whatever relates to the training and the introduction of men into the pastoral office; and if with her own hand she plant and nourish Schools of Biblical and Theological learning, it is her privilege and her duty to require those who are the special organs of her will, in their superintendence, to render a true and faithful account of their proceedings; and of the state and progress of learning and of piety in the Institutions committed to their care.

Under a considerate and solemn sense of their responsibility, would the Board of Directors of the Western Theological Seminary endeavour to promote the purity and edification of the church, by watching over and managing its interests; and suggesting to the General Assembly whatever its wants or its increase of usefulness may require.

With their deliberate conclusions in respect to the validity of their title to the ground which they occupy, the decision of the last General Assembly entirely harmonized, and after having obtained the requisite signatures, they have proceeded without mistrust or molestation to prepare the site for the building contemplated, to collect materials, and form contracts & arrangements to carry on the work the present season.

For some time after the rising of the last General Assembly, the Board entertained the hope that the Rev. Professor Halsey, whom that body had chosen Professor of Didactick and Polemick Theology, would have been able to take charge of the Seminary in time for holding the regular summer session; but as it was found impracticable for either him, or Mr. John W. Nevin whom the Board were so felicitous as to secure as Teacher of Oriental and Biblical Literature, to attend during the summer, the course of instruction was necessarily suspended.

During the sessions of the Board and of the Synod of Pittsburg, in October last, however, they were gratified with the arrival of the Professor at his post in time to be solemnly inducted into the highly responsible office to which he had been called, at a season when so many of the friends and supporters of the institution could be present to witness the solemnity.

Soon after the opening of the session in November following, Mr. Nevin entered also upon the duties of his appointment; and besides the six students, who had been members of the Seminary at the suspension of its operations in the spring, and who all returned, there were during the winter session received the following additional members, to wit.

Mr. James Anderson, licentiate of the Presbytery of Washington.

Mr. John C. Lowrie,
Mr. Abraham D. Pollock,
Mr. Loyal Young,
Mr. William Reed,
Mr. Joseph S. Wylie,
Mr. Robert Glenn,
} Graduates of Jefferson College.

Mr. James Wilson, graduate of Allegheny College.

Mr. Thomas A. Carothers, graduate of Dickinson College;

Making in all with the Rev. Mr. Williams, Pastor of the Baptist church in Pittsburg, 16 members, of whom 3 are licensed preachers of the gospel. Of their moral and religious character, and the diligent attention to duty on the part of the students, the Professor says, in his report to the Board, "They have been respectful in their deportment to the Instructors, and industrious in the prosecution of their studies. Their intercourse with one another has been affectionate, and their conduct towards them that are without discreet. They have employed themselves as far as comportable with their engagements with the institution in promoting intelligence and piety in the city and vicinity, being all connected with some of the Sabbath Schools, and most of them auxiliary in the distribution of Tracts, Bibles, &c. In a word, we cannot but believe they have been growing in grace and the knowledge of our Saviour Jesus Christ."

Of the course of study adopted, and the progress made by the several classes during the winter, the Professor states in his report that, "The first class (the Biblical) were entirely resigned to Mr. Nevin during the 1st year, that a thorough foundation might be laid in the study and interpretation of the Scriptures, which is the basis of all sound theological knowledge. It is our wish that every student who finishes an entire course in the Seminary shall have critically read the whole of the New Testament in Greek, and most of the Hebrew Scriptures, besides being well-grounded in Jewish and Christian antiquities, and the canons of criticism: he accordingly assumed the charge of the Biblical class; and they have recited to him during this term,

Jahn's Archeology, 1st and 2d parts; Domestic and Civil Antiquities; Sacred Geography; in Hebrew, 23 chapters of Genesis; in the Greek Testament, 1st and 2d Corinthians, and the Epistle to the Hebrews.

The Theological Class have during the term employed a portion of their time each week in revising their Hebrew and Greek, and have advanced from Chap. 1 & 3 of the Confession of faith to Chap. 9.

The Ecclesiastical Class have finished the subject of the nature and government of the church, and the history of its four first centuries. The students of the several classes have been exercised in writing during the term. The recitations have been well attended, as also the Society for the discussion of Theological questions, and the conference on points of casuistry."

The committee appointed to attend the examination of the students at the close of the session, gave very satisfactory attestations of the evidences of industry and of talent on the part of the students, which their exercises afforded.

In reference to the general interests of the Seminary the Board would observe that, in order to encourage Theological Students in the western country and elsewhere to avail themselves of the advantages of a residence at the Seminary, the Board have made arrangements by which genteel boarding may be had at $1.50 per week, by all who choose to avail themselves of the provision, to diminish in some measure, the additional expenses to which they would be subjected in consequence of the want of an edifice and a refectory for their accommodation.

Female associations have also been formed in both the churches in Pittsburg, by which various articles of clothing have been, and are to be provided for such students as may need that kind of assistance.

In consequence of the difficulty which the Board have experienced in obtaining

Soliciting Agents in various parts of the church, no very considerable addition to the subscriptions or funds of the Seminary has been made during the last year. The Rev. Thomas E. Hughes who had been most indefatigably and successfully employed as an agent last year, spent two months, and the Rev. John Stockton one month, in soliciting subscriptions within the bounds of the Synod of Pittsburg; and the Rev. James Graham, and the Rev. A. O. Patterson, the former six weeks and the latter three weeks, in the collection of funds in other parts of Pennsylvania.

At the last meeting of the Board the Rev. Mr. Hughes was appointed a permanent agent for the Synod of Pittsburgh, and the Rev. Professor Halsey an agent to visit New York and some of the eastern states, for the purpose of collecting funds. Just before the meeting of the last General Assembly, the Rev. Alan D. Campbell was commissioned as an agent to solicit aid in cash and books for the benefit of the Seminary, in various parts of Great Britain, and set sail for Europe shortly after. Mr. Campbell spent six months in this agency, and in addition to money more than sufficient to meet his expenses, collected for the library about 2000 volumes, comprising some rare and valuable works, receiving at the same time encouragement to hope for some increase hereafter to these benefactions.

Besides the valuable addition to the library obtained through the agency of Mr. Campbell, and which with the books that may hereafter be received from the same source is, out of respect to these foreign donors, to be called the British & Scottish Library; the Board have received as a donation from the Rev. Dr. McMillan, Ridgeley's Body of Divinity, and Turrettines Theology in 4 vols., from the Rev. Dr. Green, six copies of his Lectures; and from other donors, Stillingfleet's Origines Sacræ, one vol., together with Dupin's Ecclesiastical History in 7 vols.

Although the state of the funds has been such as to awaken some fear in the minds of the members of the Board as to their ability to carry up and complete the Theological edifice without great embarrassment, they have, after mature deliberation, resolved to advance with the work the present season, and they entertain the hope that the walls may be reared and the building covered in, before the return of winter.

In the anticipation of large pecuniary expenditures for this as well as other purposes, to say nothing of the endowment of professorships and scholarships, the Board look with confidence to the General Assembly, and the friends of the Presbyterian church generally, for that aid and co-operation without which the undertaking must go on slowly; and with many discouragements. The Board are aware that since the passage of the act locating the Western Theological Seminary, several local and synodical institutions have been begun in the west, and to these benevolent designs they would cherish none but the feelings of harmony and of friendship, and speak none but the language of encouragement. Yet they cannot but regard the founding of a Western Seminary under the direct auspices of the General Assembly, as an event in which every portion of our church should feel a peculiar interest; and one of the most important reasons why united effort should now be made to endow it competently, is the fact that the time is fast drawing on, when the exigencies of the church will demand the actual establishment of another far to the west, or the union of exertion in behalf of some one or more of those which are now beginning.

The Board conclude their report, therefore, with a respectful mention to that high judicatory by whose authority the Seminary has been begun, of its present & its anticipated wants, and the expression of a hope that a portion of the time of the Assembly may be spent in devising means to increase its pecuniary resources. Of the appropriation made the last year, there has been collected and expended, the sum of $3,621, leaving $4,379 still unappropriated. Of the sum of $3000 appropriated to the payment of the salaries of the Professor and the Teacher, there has been expended $1,150, leaving $1,850 unapplied. To the former of these objects, viz. the erection of the building the Board request an additional appropriation of $3,000, and to the latter, the sum of $2,300.

The term of official service of the following Directors expires at the present time, viz. the Rev. Messrs. Francis Herron, D. D. Obadiah Jennings, Matthew Brown, D. D. Samuel Ralston, D. D. Ashbel Green, D. D. LL. D., Elisha P. Swift, and Elisha Macurdy; with the Elders, Messrs. Matthew B. Lowrie, John Horner, and John M. Snowden.

LETTER

LEME, March 26, 1830, (Aisne.)

Gentlemen and very dear brethren in Jesus Christ, who is our hope;—It is with equal joy and gratitude that I have received the two letters with which you have honoured me, of the date of June 3d of the last year. My heart is deeply touched by the interest which you have deigned to take in my efforts, and the prayers which you offer in my behalf to our Father in Heaven. Oh! that it may please him to hear them in the name of his well-beloved Son, and to send down upon me the effusion of his grace and love.

The brethren of the churches which the Lord has committed to my care, are no less sensible than myself of the Christian affection, which you are pleased to manifest. Our hearts sympathize with yours, in praising the Lord for uniting us to himself in faith, and to one another in charity. It is his glorious gospel alone which can fill with reciprocal affection, strangers who have never seen one another, and who, in all probability, will never see one another on earth, so that they pray for one another, are interested in the success of one another, and mutually anticipate in joy and sadness. Marvellous effect of the Gospel of my Saviour! From this it is, that in Christ Jesus there is neither Jew nor Greek, neither citizen nor stranger, neither Frenchman nor American, but we are all one in Jesus, making one body in Christ, and each one in particular members one of another.

Yes, dearly beloved brethren, we love you in our adorable Saviour, with a tender and cordial affection. We rejoice to learn that his name is exalted by your means, and among your fellow citizens. We praise him for the progress which the gospel has made in your happy country. We beseech him to bless the design which you have formed under the influence of his Spirit, of supplying with a Bible every family in the United States within the period of two years. His word will not remain unfruitful. It will produce, sooner or later, all the effects for which it has been sent. Our duty, moreover, is to disperse it with confidence, with prayer to the Lord that he would by his Spirit give understanding to all those who may receive it; to the end that they may thence draw, together with the knowledge of their misery and ruin, that of the salvation which is by faith in Jesus Christ, and which alone can convert sinners, and render them acceptable to God in his well-beloved Son, and thoroughly furnished unto all good works. Wherever these great truths of the bible are received and professed they will be evinced by zeal, and love, and life. Of this we enjoy the blessed experience in Europe, as you do in America. I am persuaded, dear brethren, as you are yourselves, that if every minister proclaimed these truths with fidelity from the pulpit, and from house to house, we should witness the same revivals which occured in apostolic times. Let us then pray our glorious Saviour to cause these blessed days to dawn again upon his church. He favors us even now by making us witnesses of the great things which he has wrought in the world by his Spirit and his word. Blessed are our eyes, to see the things which we hear. You will I doubt not, hear with gratitude that the Lord continues his work in my parish, and in many other parts of this great kingdom. There are at this time in France nearly fifty ministers who preach Christ and him crucified, who is always to the Jews a stumbling-block, and to the Greeks foolishness; but to those who are called, the power of God. Sunday Schools are instituted in various churches, and we hope that after your example Bible Classes will also be introduced amongst us. Your Christian and fraternal correspondence, in this respect, as well as in others, has been highly beneficial to us. Be pleased then, dear brethren, to continue to us the support of your prayers. In my own behalf, I do above all request them, and in behalf of my dear parishoners. In their name, as well as my own, I give thanks to Drs. John H. Rice, and Ezra Stiles Ely, for the sum of 250 francs, which they have had the goodness to send us, towards the erection of our parsonage house. We are about to commence with the divine aid, and we entreat you to join us in supplications to the Lord, that this house may become the Asylum of a long succession of faithful servants.

My heart exults, upon learning, by your excellent letter, that there are in your country more than fifteen hundred faithful ministers who remember me in their prayers. I beseech them to persevere in intercession for their poor brother of Leme, and to accept here the expression of his lively gratitude. May the Lord abundantly bless their ministry, and likewise all the pious labours of your General Assembly! May his Spirit rest upon your persons! May his peace fill your souls! May his love encircle your hearts! It is in his fellowship that I present to you, as well in my own name as in the name of the believers of my parish, my Christian and fraternal salutations.

Your very affectionate brother in Christ, COLANY NEE.

LETTER

From the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, to the Rev. Colany Nee, Pastor of the third Ecclesiastical Division of the Reformed Consistorial Church of the Departments of Seine and Marne.

Highly respected and very dear brother in Jesus Christ,

Your welcome and cheering communication of the 26th of March, was received during the sessions of the General Assembly, and its contents afforded unmingled satisfaction to all who heard it. In thus replying, we desire to be considered as making our address through you to the whole body of Reformed brethren with whom you stand connected; and most heartily do we rejoice to know from your letter; that there are so many in France who maintain the trpths of the gospel in their simplicity. We reciprocate the feelings of fraternal regard and Christian affection with which your letter abounds; we join you in celebrating the excellencies of that gospel, which has made all one in Christ Jesus; and, unless we greatly mistake the signs of the times, we witness in these increasing attempts to extend Christian salvation across the ocean, the presage of that day, when "the watchmen shall see eye to eye"—when the Lord shall build up Zion.

In our communications of 1828 and 1829, we gave a sketch of the history, the principles and the statistics of our church, which will render any details upon these subjects at present unnecessary. Of the success of our efforts to propogate the gospel, you will be able to judge from the Minutes of the General Assembly, and other documents which accompany this letter. Within our bounds there are, by the last reports, 1491 ordained ministers, 2158 churches, and 173,329 communicants. In making an estimate of our church members, it is important that you should be reminded of a difference between the practice of our churches, and that of many of our Reformed brethren upon the continent of Europe. According to the universal practice of the Presbyterian Church, no one is considered as being worthy to participate in the Lord's Supper, who does not give satisfactory evidence of having been renewed and converted by the Holy Ghost. In the great revival of religion in our country, this practical principle has been found to be intimately connected with the purity of the Church, and the extension of its borders. The prayers of God's people, and their earnest united labours have in every case, been found to precede those awakenings to which we owe the enlargement of our bounds.

In our correspondence with foreign churches, nothing has afforded us greater pleasure than the deep interest which is taken abroad in the glorious revivals of religion with which our land has been signalized. Truly the Lord hath done great things for us, whereof we are glad! For thirty years, without any intermission, as to the country at large, the Great Head of the Church has been shedding forth upon our Zion these showers of his grace; and in every successive year, we learn from one and another part of our extensive territory, that congregations, neighbourhoods, villages and often whole districts are influenced by that deep pervading, powerful interest in the great concern of salvation, which we denominate a revival of religion. Our churches have learned, not only to desire and pray for such seasons, but to expect them, to prepare for them, and to labour in promoting their increase. At our solemn assemblies no question more fully occupies the attention of our pastors and people than this inquiry, How may the revival of religion be extended and made universal? We find the eyes of evangelical Europe turned anxiously upon us; and we believe that if there is any thing distinctive and peculiar in the Christian character or enterprise of the American Churches, it is to be attributed to these rather than to any other causes. And now, beloved brethren, it is with no ordinary satisfaction that we discern in your letter that you have seized this subject in a manner which cannot fail to be useful among yourselves. You judge aright when you attribute the triumphs of the word, not so much to any thing singular in our institutions, or even to the mere sovereignty of the divine gifts, irrespective of our use of means, as to the influence of the truth in the hands of a faithful GOD. Suffer us to repeat your own words, as containing the key to a subject otherwise inexplicable: "We are persuaded that if every minister of the gospel proclaimed these truths with fidelity, from the pulpit and from house to house, we should witness the same revivals which occurred in apostolic times." And our hearts desire and prayer to God for France is, that the fifty evangelical ministers who preach Christ and him crusified, may soon afford us the joyful news that thousands have, by their instrumentality, been brought to receive the truth in the love of it.

In the estimation of American Christians, there is nothing more important than the religious education of the young. The Sunday Schools of our land have already under training 500,000 of precious youth, under the care of 55,000 teachers; and it was only last week that the American Sunday School Union Society adopted a solemn resolution in reliance upon divine aid, to establish a Sunday School in every destitute place in the great Valley of the Mississippi,—a valley stretching from the northern lakes to the Gulf of Mexico, and from the Allegheny range of mountains on the East to the Rocky Mountains on the West. Thus have they engaged to found, within two years, not less than 7000 schools, and already many thousands of dollars have been pledged to this great enterprise. Our firm belief is that it will be accomplished, and that there are achievements of Christian charity and energy secured for the next generation, which for greatness and glory shall surpass all that we have ever imagined. If this pleasing correspondence with our brethren of France should lead them to renew their efforts in the cause of Sunday Schools, or Bible classes, and of religious education in general, we should wait with confident hope to see the work of the Lord proceeding onward amongst you as it has done in America.

Time would fail us to recount the varied forms in which Christian benevolence has begun to exert itself in this favoured land. From the accompanying papers you will learn the number, zeal and success of our Bible, Tract, Education, Missionary and Temperance Societies. Comparing this with former years, we must say with renewed praise to our merciful Lord, that all these and similar institutions are increasing greatly in extent and power. With regard to the great undertaking of the American Bible Society, in attempting to supply every destitute family in the United States that is willing to receive it with a copy of the Bible, we are able to report that while much, very much remains to be done, we have such confidence in the Christian energy of a nation when engaged in God's cause, as to dismiss all our fears, and to believe that the work in the great design, will be accomplished. In behalf of these and all our efforts to honour our adorable Redeemer, we respectfully solicit your earnest prayers, "that the word of the Lord may have free course and be glorified, and that we may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men."

It will afford us pleasure from time to time to hear of the progress of evangelical religion among you. In your joys, and in your sorrows, we tenderly participate. How deeply we are interested in the sufferings of our persecuted brethren of the cantons of Berne and Vaud you will perceive from the following resolution unanimously adopted at our present meeting, viz.

"Resolved, That this General Assembly deeply sympathize with those Protestants in the Swiss Cantons of Berne and Vaud, who are restrained in the right of worshiping their Creator according to their own convictions of duty—and that this sympathy is the more lively, in as much as those who suffer restraint, profess to adhere to the standards of doctrine and worship adopted by the great reformers."

It is by cultivating a spirit of love at the throne of grace, that Christians must be knit together. For this purpose we would request your accordance with the Christians of Great Britain and America, in spending a part of the first Monday of every month in united fervent prayer for the spread of the gospel, the conversion of the world, and the edifying of the body of Christ.

And now beloved brethren in the service of our common Master, "may our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God, even our Father, which hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace, comfort your hearts, and stablish you in every good word and work."

We address to you as the organ of communication to the evangelical churches of France, the fraternal salutations of us all, as individuals, as a judicatory of the Presbyterian Church, and with pleasure continue to subscribe ourselves,

Your brethren in the bonds of the Gospel.

Signed by order of the General Assembly.

THE DECLARATION AND MEMORIAL

Of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, respecting persecution on account of Religious Opinions, especially in Switzerland.

Whereas it has been represented to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of North America, on the testimony of a well known and much respected clergyman, who was an eye witness, as well as on evidence arising from other sources, that, in the Cantons of Berne and Vaud in Switzerland, a number of persons, who have, on conscientious principles, separated themselves from the church established by law, are exposed to many grievous hardships, and even to cruel persecution, without the allegation against them of any immoral conduct or any violation of the merely civil laws of those cantons, but solely on the ground of their separation from the established church; and that thus the affecting spectacle has been exhibited to the world of protestants persecuting protestants, on account of differences in religious opinion:

And whereas the Presbyterian Church in the United States, and the Protestant churches in Switzerland have derived their religious doctrines from the Holy Scriptures, through the instrumentality of the same great reformers, of blessed memory, so that this General Assembly cannot but feel a most lively interest in all that concerns the honour and prosperity of their protestant brethren in Switzerland:

And furthermore, because the Presbyterian Church in the United States, under the ordering of a benign and gracious providence, know by experience the inestimable value of perfect religious liberty, and are fully justified, while in the enjoyment of this blessing, in testifying to their brethren in other nations, and to the world, their full conviction, as well as the results of their experience on the subject;

Therefore, Resolved, 1. That this General Assembly do most firmly hold and maintain, that it is the undeniable right of all men to worship the Creator according to the dictates of their own conscience.

2. That they regard every attempt to restrain this right, not only as contrary to the spirit of the gospel, but ineffectual for the promotion of genuine piety, or the prevention of diversities in religious opinion.

3. That the history of this country does, in their view, decidedly prove, that true religion is most promoted; and the peace and welfare of society are best secured, by allowing perfect liberty of worship to all men.

4. That the General Assembly deeply sympathise with those protestants in the Swiss Cantons of Berne and Vaud, who are restrained in the right of worshiping their Creator according to their convictions of duty: and that this sympathy is the more lively in as much as those who suffer restraint, profess to adhere to the standards of doctrine and worship adopted by the great reformers.

5. That the General Assembly in view of the great importance of the truths contained in the foregoing declaration, and wishing to commend them to the attentive consideration of their brethren in Switzerland, feel constrained to address to them the following

MEMORIAL.

To the Reverend, the Pastors of the established Churches of the Cantons of Berne and Vaud in Switzerland, the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of North America wish prosperity and peace in our common Lord.

Brethren,—The holy scriptures command that every man should look not on his own things only, but also on the things of others. In obedience to this command, and in the spirit of true christian love, the Protestant churches did, in the time of the glorious reformation, often afford assistance and counsel one to the other: and when the adherents of the Pope of Rome endeavoured, by the exercise of civil and ecclesiastical power united, to suppress the truth, the noble and powerful Canton of Berne did frequently interpose to sustain the cause of religious liberty: and you, brethren, have become inheritors of the glory which your forefathers acquired by the display of exemplary christian benevolence, and of admirable valour connected with fervent piety.

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States take the most lively interest in every thing which concerns their Protestant brethren throughout the world: and they do especially cherish a fraternal regard towards those who dwell in Switzerland; a country always associated in their minds with heroic achievements in the defence of freedom.—They have, therefore, with grief and surprise, heard that brethren, to whose charge nothing could be laid, except that they have conscientiously separated from the established church, are oppressed and persecuted by the authorities of the Cantons of Berne and Vaud.

The General Assembly, while they maintain that the civil magistrate may and ought to punish all immoralities which violate the law and order of society, and that it is not only the right, but the duty of churches, to exercise ecclesiastical discipline, according to the rules pre-scribed by Jesus Christ, for preserving purity of doctrine, worship and morals, cannot but represent to the reverend pastors of Berne and Vaud, that our Almighty Creator is the only lord of conscience; and that, in his holy word, he has given no authority to any man, or body of men, to control its dictates in regard to his sacred worship. It is moreover, believed to be both unjust and unwise to restrain men from offering their homage to the Sovereign of the Universe, in that manner which they believe to be most acceptable to him—because,

1. That worship which is not rendered voluntarily, and according to the dictates of conscience, is not the true worship which the gospel requires, but base hypocrisy.

2. Because, the experience of all christians, since the time when perfect religious liberty was established in these United States, proves that the peace and order of society, instead of being disturbed, are promoted and secured by allowing every one to worship his Creator, in the way which appears to him most agreeable to the divine will. It is now well known that human authority cannot bind an enlightened conscience; and that men, who are quiet and peaceable, while they feel that they are free, become restless and often turbulent, when the attempt is made, unjustly to restrain them; and therefore while it is admitted that the members of every church ought to be subject to its whole ecclesiastical order, so long as they voluntarily remain in its communion, yet they ought to be permitted to withdraw from it peaceably, when such may be their choice.

And 3. because, our experience also, proves, that entire liberty of conscience is not only compatible with the existence and safety of religion, but that true christianity operates with the greatest energy, and prevails in the greatest purity, where the church relies, under the grace of its Lord and Saviour, on nothing to sustain and advance its interests, but the power of truth and goodness, and the impartial exercise of its own spiritual discipline.

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, would therefore, earnestly and respectfully plead with the pastors of the churches in Berne and Vaud, to intercede in behalf of the conscientious separatists from their establishment—that they may be permitted to enjoy full liberty of conscience, and to worship their common Lord and Redeemer, according to their convictions of truth and duty, in view of the Holy Scriptures.

PREFACE TO THE STATISTICAL TABLE.

In the following table the reader will please to take notice, that P. attached to a minister's name, denotes that he is Pastor of some church; and P. added to the name of a church, signifies that it has a Pastor. W. C. stand for the words without charge; S. S. for stated supply; O. S. for occasional supply; V. for vacant; Presb. for Presbytery; Prest. for President of some college; Prof. for Professor in some college or theological seminary; Miss. for Missionary; Chap. for Chaplain to the United States Navy, or some public station; Ch. for Church; Cong. for Congregational.

The post-office address of a minister or licentiate, is to be sought for in the right hand column, on the same line with the name at the left; and the reader is not to regard any intervening name of a church, which may, or may not be the one in which the preacher whose name is opposite to it, is the pastor or stated supply. A church which is vacant and marked V., will often be found in the same line with a minister W. C., without charge; for, by this arrangement, the table is brought within a narrower compass than it could otherwise be.

The stated clerks of presbyteries are earnestly requested to make their future returns as nearly in the form of their last printed report, contained in this table, as changing circumstances will permit; adding merely after the column for the education fund, a new column for the Contingent Fund of the General Assembly.

Particularly they are requested not to introduce into the tabular part of the Report any extraneous matter, but to obey strictly the regulations of the Assembly; for, new columns, and explanations not required, cost the Stated Clerk of the Assembly no little time in expunging them, before the Reports can be sent to the printer. Each Stated Clerk of Presbytery is also respectfully reminded, that it is his duty to give the TOTALS of the columns in their proper places; and that the writer of this Preface is not answerable for all the arithmetical calculations of his brethren.

Funds collected for different missionary purposes in any congregation, should be returned in one sum, in the column for missionary funds, instead of being distinguished by the different objects for which they were collected.

All money collected for the charitable education of youth, in infant, sabbath, and other schools, academies, and seminaries, and especially in those of a theological character, should be named in one sum, under the heading of "Education Funds." When additional columns of figures are returned, they are worse than useless.

STATISTICAL REPORT

Of the Presbyterian Church, in the United States of America.

SUMMARY STATISTICAL REPORT

Of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, for June 1, 1830.

Since the last summary view was given, six new Presbyteries have been formed, within our bounds; so that the Assembly has now under its care nineteen Synods, and ninety-eight Presbyteries. The following thirteen Ministers of the Gospel have, during our last ecclesiastical year, been removed from us by death, viz.

The Rev. William A. Porter, of the Presbytery of Columbia; the Rev. John M. Mason, D. D. of the 2d Presbytery of New-York; the Rev. Matthias Bruen, and the Rev. Joseph Stibbs Christmas, of the Presbytery of New-York; the Rev. Manasseh M. York, of the Presbytery of Susquehanna; the Rev. Abiel Jones, of the Presbytery of Grand River; the Rev. James Duncan, of the Presbytery of Madison; the Rev. John V. Bovelle, of the Presbytery of Wabash; the Rev. John Patterson, of the Presbytery of Mississippi; the Rev. G. G. M'Whorter, of the Presbytery of South Alabama; the Rev. Joseph D. Kilpatrick, of the Presbytery of Concord; the Rev Alfred Finney, of the Presbytery of Tombigbee; and the Rev. William Ashmead, of the Presbytery of Charleston Union.

Our preachers of the gospel, at present, are in number seventeen hundred and eleven; of whom 1491 are ordained Ministers, and 220 Licentiates. The increase, after deducting deaths and removals, since the last report, has been 98 Ministers, and 15 Licentiates.

Our candidates for the gospel ministry, who are in various stages of their education preparatory to their being licensed to preach, are 228, of whom the actual increase the last year has been 33.

We have two thousand one hundred and fifty-eight congregations under the care of our sessions and higher judicatories; or eighty-eight more than we had in June, 1829.

Fifteen thousand nine hundred and eighty-five communicants were received last year, of whom 11,748 were admitted for the first time, on examination and the profession of their faith; and 4,237 were translated by certificate from one church to another. Our present number of communicants is one hundred and seventy-three thousand three hundred and twenty-nine; the last yearly increase, above deaths, dismissions, suspensions, and removals, having been ten thousand five hundred and thirteen. This was a less increase than that of 1829, by 5,995 persons.

The baptisms in our congregations last year, were of adults 3,255, and of infants 12,202; giving a total of 15,457; and being 696 less in number than in the preceding year.

Forty of our ministers are pastors of Congregational churches, not under the care of any of our Presbyteries.

Six hundred and thirty of our churches are vacant, having neither pastors nor stated supplies, but depending on occasional preachers which may be sent them by their Presbyteries or some missionary society.

Our Presbyteries report $3,504 13 collected for the payment of the expenses of the Commissioners to the last General Assembly. Of this sum only $1,869 82 were forwarded to the Treasurer of the Trustees of the Assembly, to be divided between Commissioners who travelled in coming to the Assembly 37,109 miles. The balance of $1,634 31 was either paid to Commissioners by the Presbyteries which choose to support their own Commissioners, without contributing to, or being benefited by, the general fund; or remains yet to be transmitted.

The funds reported by the Presbyteries as having been collected in all our churches which have made any returns are, for Domestic and Foreign missions forty-four thousand nine hundred and fourteen dollars and seventy-three cents; for Theological Seminaries nine thousand six hundred and forty-three dollars and twenty-one cents; and for charitable education purposes one hundred and twenty-six thousand one hundred and thirty dollars and seventy-seven cents. These contributions give a grand total of $184,292 84; which exceeds the amount returned to the General Assembly of 1829 by $111,224 58.

While the Presbyterian Church will undoubtedly feel thankful for the honourable instrumentality conferred upon her in building up the Redeemer's kingdom, it is important that she should remember, that the INCREASE of her Ministers and Licentiat by all means, whether of education or immigration, has exceeded the increase of me churches formed in her connexion only by the number of 25; and that it becomes h to cry mightily unto the Lord of the harvest that he would greatly multiply spiritu labourers.

It should also humble us to reflect, that ALL the charitable funds above reported, equalized among our communicants, would make their contribution for all the importa objects named, little more than one dollar and six cents for each.

May we not hope that the whole Presbyterian Church will awake, arise, and in t year upon which we have entered, at least double her exertions?

EZRA STILES ELY, Stated Clerk of the General Assemb

That till the year 1788, when the present constitution of the Presbyterian Church was founded, the Synod of New York and Philadelphia was the Supreme Judicatory of this church: and your committee are clearly of opinion, that all the records of the Supreme Judicatory of this church, from its origin to the present time, ought now to be considered, as the property of the General Assembly, and subject to their order; and that the records of all subordinate judicatories, both before and since the formation of the General Assembly, ought to be considered as the property of such subordinate judicatories, although loaned for a time, agreeably to a recommendation of the Assembly, to a committee appointed to write the history of the Presbyterian Church in the United States. In conformity with the principle above stated, your committee recommend that the book in the hands of Mr. Hall be delivered to the Stated Clerk to be by him loaned to the committee appointed by the Assembly in 1825 to receive documents and annals, relative to the history of the Presbyterian Church, and be considered as the property of the General Assembly.

The parties then agreed to submit the case to the Assembly without argument, when it was resolved, to refer the whole case to a select committee. Dr. Miller, Dr. Matthews, Dr. Lansing, Dr. Fisk, Dr. Spring, Dr. J. McDowell, Mr. Bacon, Mr. Ross, Mr. E. White, Mr. Jessup, and Mr. Napier were appointed this committee.

The committee to whom was re-committed the report to the last Assembly on the organization of new churches, reported again, and their report was read and adopted, and is as follows, viz.

That a particular Presbyterian Church, so far as adults are concerned, is constituted and organized, as such, by a number of individuals, professing to walk together as the disciples of Jesus Christ, on the principles of the Confession of Faith, and Form of Government of the Presbyterian Church, and the election and ordination of one or more ruling elders, who, by the ordination service become the spiritual rulers of the persons voluntarily submitting themselves to their authority in the Lord.

This organization ought always to be made by application to the Presbytery, within the bounds of which the church to be organized is found, unless this be exceedingly inconvenient, in which case it may be done by a duly authorized missionary, or a neighbouring minister of the gospel.

At the time appointed for the purpose, after prayer for divine direction and blessing, the presiding minister, or committee appointed by the Presbytery, should first receive from those persons to be organized into the new church, if they have been communicants in other churches, letters of dismission and recommendation; and in the next place, examine and admit to a profession of faith, such persons as may offer themselves, and may be judged suitable to be received on examination. If any of these persons admitted to a profession on examination, have not been baptized, they should, in this stage of the business, be made the subjects of christian baptism.

The individuals ascertained in the foregoing manner to be desirous and prepared to associate as a church of Christ, should now, by some public formal act, such as rising, joining hands, or subscribing a written statement, agree and covenant to walk together in a church relation, according to the acknowledged doctrines and order of the Presbyterian Church.

The next step is to proceed to the election and ordination of ruling elders, in conformity with the directions given on this subject in the Form of Government of the Presbyterian Church.

Deacons are to be elected and ordained in like manner as in the case of ruling elders.

When a church has been organized in the manner already described, report of the same should be made as soon as practicable, to the Presbytery within whose bounds it is located. And when a missionary, or other minister of the gospel, not specially appointed to the work by a Presbytery, has, in the manner above specified, organized a church, not within the known bounds of any Presbytery, the Church thus organized should as soon as practicable make known to some Presbytery, with which it may be most naturally and conveniently connected, the time and manner of its organization, and desire to be received under the care of said Presbytery.

In cases in which churches are to be formed within the known boundaries of any Presbytery, it is most desirable that persons wishing to be organized as a Presbyterian Church, should petition that Presbytery to receive them under its care for the purpose of organizing them in due form.

There may be people in destitute portions of our land, who may be disposed to associate for the purpose of forming a Presbyterian Congregation, when no minister of the gospel can be obtained to aid them. The forming of associations for such a purpose, in the circumstances contemplated, should be considered not only as lawful, but highly commendable. And such associations when formed, should, as speedily as possible, take measures for obtaining the preaching of the gospel, and for becoming organized as regular churches.

Cases may also occur, in various places, in which a collection or association of people may desire the preaching of the gospel, and be willing, i whole or in part, to support it, and yet may not have suitable men among them to sustain the office of ruling elders.

Such people may, and ought to obtain a preacher of the gospel to labor among them, and occasionally to administer ordinances, under the direction of some Presbytery, till they shall find themselves in circumstances to make a proper choice of ruling elders, and to have them regularly set apart to their office.

For the purpose, however, of bringing the matter in controversy, as far as possible, to a regular and satisfactory issue, they would recommend to the Assembly the adoption of the following resolutions, viz.

1. Resolved, That the General Assembly, while it appreciates the conscientious zeal for the purity of the Church, by which the Presbytery of Philadelphia is believed to have been actuated in its proceedings in the case of Mr. Barnes; and while it judges that the sermon by Mr. Barnes, entitled, "The way of salvation," contains a number of unguarded and objectionable passages; yet is of the opinion, that, especially after the explanations which were given by him of those passages, the Presbytery ought to have suffered the whole to pass without further notice.

2. Resolved, That in the judgment of this Assembly, the Presbytery of Philadelphia ought to suspend all further proceedings in the case of Mr. Barnes.

That they have conferred with the Commissioners of said Presbytery on the subject of the reference to the Assembly, and they have expressed their willingness to withdraw the same; therefore, resolved, that leave be granted to said Commissioners to withdraw said reference.

The following PROTEST was read and ordered to be entered on the minutes, viz.

At the Session of the General Assembly held in Philadelphia in the year 1831, Mr. Clement Tuttle from the Presbytery of Grand River was certified to the said General Assembly as a Committee man, in one of the churches under the care of said Presbytery, formed according to the plan of accommodation, recommended in the articles of agreement, bearing date in the year 1801, between the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church and the General Association of Connecticut; and was allowed to take his seat, to deliberate and vote, as a regular member of this body. Against which decision, and against the right of the said Clement Tuttle to a seat in said body, we protest.

In the 12th chap. and 2d section of the form of Church Government it is enacted, "the General Assembly shall consist of an equal delegation of Bishops and elders from each Presbytery." Who the persons are that are recognized as Bishops within the body of the Presbyterian church is distinctly shown in chap. 4. of the Form of Government. Nor is there the least reason for supposing nor has any one intimated, that this committee man holds his seat here by virtue of the pastoral office.

In chap. 5th of the Form of Government, Ruling Elders are defined to be "the representatives of the people chosen by them to exercise government and discipline in conjunction with the Pastors."

In the 13th chap. of the Form of Government the manner of electing and ordaining Ruling Elders is prescribed: wherein, it is rendered necessary that the candidate should specifically receive and adopt the Confession of Faith of our church, that he should approve of its government and discipline, that he should accept the office and promise faithfully to perform all its duties, and that he should promise to study the peace, unity and purity of the church.

It is furthermore stated in the 6th section of said chapter, that the office of Ruling Elder is perpetual; and he who holds it can neither lay it aside at pleasure, nor be divested of it but by deposition.

The nature of some of the duties which the ruling elders take upon themselves at their ordination, is particularly set forth in chap. 9th of the form of Church Government, from which it appears that the duties there mentioned, cannot be performed except by a church officer coming up completely to the Presbyterian idea of a Ruling Elder.

All the foregoing qualifications must concur in an individual (if he be not a pastor or bishop,) before he is capable of being voted for as a commissioner to the General Assembly. All these concurring, he may be voted for, and if elected, must, before his name is enrolled as a member of this body, produce a commission here, under the hand of the moderator and clerk of his presbytery, asserting upon the face of it, that he is a ruling elder in a particular congregation. See chap. xxii, sec. 2, Form of Government.

Now there is nothing even conducing to prove that the said Clement Tuttle was ever elected or ordained as a ruling elder in the Presbyterian church; that he has ever formally and publicly adopted its Confession of Faith, and approved its discipline and Form of Government;—that he has been elected by any Presbytery a Commissioner to this Assembly in the character of a ruling elder; nor that he bears any commission, certifying any such fact, but on the contrary, the commission he produces, shows clearly that he is not a ruling elder but a 'committee man,' and that the church to which he belongs can be only in part, and for any thing that appears, in very small part a Presbyterian church.

Wherefore we do solemnly protest against the decision of the General Assembly, allowing the said Clement Tuttle to take his seat in this body as a ruling elder by virtue of his said commision as a 'committee man,' because that decision is contrary to the plain letter of our church constitution. And we do protest against the right of the said Clement Tuttle to take a seat in this General Assembly as a ruling elder, by virtue of a commission certifying that he holds another name and office, because the neglect and disrepute into which such practices must bring the office of ruling elder are in a high degree fatal to the Presbyterian church.

The articles of agreement alluded to in the beginning of this paper are supposed to give this individual, and all others similarly situated a seat in this Assembly. That agreement is one altogether anomalous to our Form of Government, and, so far as it does extend, is in derogation of it.

The plainest rules of common sense tell us, that the principles of such instruments shall not be extended beyond the cases to which they are applied in terms, and must be strictly limited by the details contained within themselves.

The rule is, that a body of men when making such an agreement, shall not be called on to embrace in a codicil of exceptions, every point to which a given rule would apply, and except it by saying—this is not granted away, but on the other hand, having plainly set down what was meant—it is very clear that what is not set down, is not meant. It is the only rule of sense or safety. This being so, those articles can never cover this case, because they expressly stipulate the church Session and Presbytery, as the church courts to which these "committee men" may have access in the character of ruling elders, and mention no others. As the grant was in derogation of the rights of the eldership, and adverse to the nature of our church Government, it is manifestly just such a grant as if valid at all, could only be so within the strict import of its own terms. We do not feel called on to discuss the fact, whether those articles thus interpreted are constitutional or not. If, however, they are so construed as to place members here, who are by our constitution, forbidden to be here, or as in any degree to affect the principles of the organization of this house as clearly defined in our books, then it is manifest that the articles must be considered utterly null and void.

The constitution cannot be obligatory, and yet something else, which is against and adverse to the constitution, be obligatory also, unless a sense can be found in which the same proposition is both false and true at the same moment, and at every successive moment.

If any one will fix with precision, the time when the principles of our Government shall grow into disesteem, there will no longer remain any difficulty in designating the period, when every other peculiarity of our church will be viewed with equal aversion.

The preservation of the true principles of Presbyterian policy affords the best external security for the preservation of the true principles of Presbyterian doctrines.

We do therefore consider ourselves to be discharging a high and solemn duty when we thus point to a vital principle in our system of Government, wrested from its original design, and thus enter our protest against an unconstitutional act arising therefrom.

SATURDAY, 4 o'clock, P.M. The Assembly met and was constituted with prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read.

The Judicial committee reported on the paper purporting to be a complaint of a minority of the Synod of Kentucky, against the proceedings of said Synod in the case of Dr. A. Smith, and recommended that the paper be returned, for want of evidence of the complaint itself. This report was adopted.

The Judicial committee also made a statement in the case of the Rev. Horace Belknap, and recommended the adoption of the following resolutions which were adopted accordingly, viz.

1. Resolved, That in the opinion of this Assembly, the resolution of the last General Assembly in answer to Overture No. 2. does not apply to the case of the Rev. Horace Belknap as referred by the Presbytery of Harmony.

2. That in the opinion of this Assembly, the Presbyteries both of Harmony and Steubenville appear to have misconceived the directions as laid down in chapter V. sections 3d and 4th of the Book of Discipline; inasmuch as those Rules do not transfer jurisdiction from a Presbytery to which a minister belongs, to the one within whose bounds he resides, so as to authorize the latter Presbytery to try such minister; but only to examine witnesses in the case, and transmit an authentic record of the testimony to the Presbytery, which made the application. Therefore,

3. Resolved, That the Presbytery of Harmony is at liberty to pursue such a course in the case of Mr. Belknap, as the circumstances of the case, and the good of religion shall in their opinion require.

The Assembly took up the complaint and protest of the minority against the decision of the majority of the Session of the 1st Presbyterian Church of the city of New Orleans.

Dr. Spring was appointed counsel for the complainants.

The Moderator agreeably to a standing rule announced to the Assembly, that they were about to pass to the consideration of the business assigned for trial, and enjoined on the members to recollect and regard their high character, as judges of a court of Jesus Christ, and the solemn duty, in which they were about to act.

The proceedings of the Session complained of, and the decision protested against, the complaint and protest, the request of the Session accompanying the complaint, and the proceedings of the Presbytery in the case were read.

Dr. Spring was then heard on the part of the complainants.

After some remarks by members of the Assembly, the case was committed to Dr. Spring, Dr. Fisk, and Mr. Ross; to bring in a minute on the subject.

The committee appointed to examine the Records of the Synod of Philadelphia made a report, when, on account of some resolutions in said records, involving constitutional principles, not yet decided by the General Assembly, the committee were discharged.

The committee to whom was referred the complaint of the minority of the Session of the 1st Presbyterian Church in New Orleans, reported the following minute, which was adopted, viz.

Resolved, That since the Rev. Theodore Clapp has neither been dismissed nor suspended by the Presbytery of Mississippi, he ought to be regarded as a member of that Body. And that in the opinion of this Assembly they have sufficient reasons for proceeding to try him upon the charge of error in doctrine.

Resolved, That as Mr. Clapp was merely a stated supply of the church in New-Orleans, the Presbytery of Mississippi had a right, and it was their duty under existing circumstances to adopt measures to detach him from said congregation.

Mr. Pierpoint, Mr. Hyde, Mr. Judson, Mr. Wadworth, Mr. Jessup, Mr. Yale, Dr. Matthews, Mr. R. White, Mr. Edgar, Mr. North, Mr. Wylie, Mr. Squier, Mr. Latta, Mr. Belville, Mr. Miller, Mr. Ewing, Mr. McElhenny, Mr. T. Paxton, Mr. Birge, Mr. Thomas, Mr. Baldwin, Mr. Fassit, Mr. Swan, Mr. Buchanan, Mr. Cutler, Mr. Moodey, Mr. Treat, Mr. Farwell, Mr. Chase, Mr. Swift, Mr. Nesbit and Mr. Robertson, had leave of absence.

Adjourned till Monday morning, at ½ past 8 o'clock

Concluded with prayer.

MONDAY morning, June 6th, ½ past 8 o'clock. The Assembly met and was constituted with prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read.

The following protest was read and ordered to be entered on the minutes.

PROTEST of some of the Minority of the General Assembly, against a resolution of the Assembly, tending to restrict Presbyteries in the exercise of their right to send a member of a Standing Committee, to the General Assembly.

It appears from the Digest, page 292, that in 1790 only two years after its constitution, the General Assembly adopted measures to form "a plan of union and correspondence with the General Association of Connecticut." This "Union" appears to have been formed upon the principle of tolerance which has always characterized the Presbyterian Church; and it was consummated in 1794 by the appointment of delegates to the two bodies respectively, to whom was given the right of deliberating and voting.

In 1801 this plan of union was still further extended, (see Digest, page 297) and "a plan of union between Presbyterians and Congregationalists in the new settlements" was agreed upon; which was also called "a plan of government for the churches in the new settlements." This plan consisted of a number of regulations of a most liberal character, in which Presbyterians and Congregationalists were harmoniously united in the same Church. The churches founded upon this mixed plan, were allowed to exercise discipline by a Standing Committee, which was virtually but another name for eldership. And in one of the articles of agreement it was provided, that should the said "Standing Committee of any church, depute one of themselves to attend the Presbytery, he may have the same right to sit and act in the Presbytery as a Ruling Elder of the Presbyterian Church." When we consider the nature of this agreement, its principles and objects: that it granted reciprocal rights and privileges, we cannot for a moment doubt, that it was intended to give to such member of a Standing Committee, all the Presbyterial rights of every other lay member of Presbytery. What in common language would be understood as the Presbyterial rights of a ruling Elder, but "to sit and act" in Presbytery? This phrase would be considered as including all Presbyterial rights unless some exception was made, and one of these rights is eligibility to the General Assembly. This would be evidently according to the very spirit of the compact. And whatever other view might be taken of it; this, and this alone, is the plain, natural, common sense construction of the terms of the agreement.

The principle which admits a member of a Standing Committee to a seat in the Presbytery, in its extension of course admits to the General Assembly. And the infraction of the constitution is no greater in the one case than in the other; for the constitution in its letter admits Elders only, either to Presbytery or Assembly.

This plan of union was deemed of so great importance, that it was ordered to be printed, and copies delivered to the missionaries who might be sent by the Assembly among the people concerned. (See Digest, page 299.) In pursuance of this plan very many churches have been formed, and which have always been returned and represented to the Assembly as Presbyterian churches, and have thus been constituted an integral part "of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America," and have from time to time been represented in the General Assembly, by Standing Committee men, in place of Elders.

The compact in question appears by the Digest to have been a conventional agreement, or treaty made by two parties, independent of each other, for mutual benefit, and a desire to advance unitedly the cause of religion. When one of the parties becomes dissatisfied, in what mode shall it obtain redress? Certainly not by breaking the treaty, without notice to the other; but by a proposition for an alteration. And this course the Assembly did pursue three years ago in a parallel case before alluded to, by proposing to the General Association of Connecticut, that the right of Delegates to vote should be withdrawn, which was acceded to by that body. And such in the opinion of the Protestants, should have been the course in the present case.

We also further protest against said resolution, because it was adopted after the Assembly had been in session more than two weeks, and when nearly one-third of the members had returned home, and those chiefly residing at a distance, and most interested in this question: and also because this Assembly on the first day of its session, when full, did by a large majority decide this question by admitting a member of a Standing Committee to a seat in this House: and the Protestants have therefore, as they think, good reason to believe, that had the question been taken at an earlier day of the session, there would have been a majority against it.

The report of the committee on Overture No. 1, viz. an overture from the Third Presbytery of New York on the subject of the Commissioners' fund, was taken up and indefinitely postponed.

The report of the committee on Statistical Reports was taken up, and indefinitely postponed.

Whereas only a few of the Presbyteries have reported collections for the incidental expenses of the Assembly; and whereas the Assembly were obliged last year to direct their Trustees to borrow a sum to pay up arrears, and meet the current expenses of the year, both amounting to $2,400; and whereas the Assembly have not the means of printing the minutes of the present year, and meeting all the other incidental expenses, without further borrowing, and thus increasing the debt,

Therefore, resolved, that it be earnestly enjoined upon the Presbyteries to attend to the resolutions of the last Assembly found in page 31, of the printed minutes of 1830; and be careful to see that their congregations make the collection there recommended.

The committee appointed to examine the Records of the Synod of Kentucky, having left the Assembly, Mr. Boyd, Mr. Barr, and Mr. H. M'Keen, were appointed a committee on these records.

The following accounts were presented, viz.

For Stationery, - - - - - -	$7 12
To Permanent Clerk for services, - - - -	43 00
To Janitor for attendance, &c. - - - -	56 25
For covering the street by the church with tan & removing the same,	17 25
Amount,	$125 62

The Permanent Clerk was directed to settle the above account of $125 62 by a draught on the Treasurer of the Trustees of the General Assembly; for the payment of which the Trustees are hereby directed to issue their warrant.

The Assembly took up the complaint of the minority of the Synod of Kentucky, against a decision of the majority of said Synod, in the case of Mr. Benedict H. Hobbs.

The Moderator, agreeably to a standing rule, announced to the Assembly, that they were about to pass to the consideration of the business assigned for trial, and enjoined on the members to recollect and regard their high character as judges of a court of Jesus Christ, and the solemn duty in which they are about to act.

The decision complained of, the complaint, and the proceedings of the several Judicatories in the case were read. The complainants were then heard; no persons appeared on the part of the Synod.

After due consideration, the following resolution was adopted, viz. That the complaint be and it is hereby sustained, and the judgment of the Synod is reversed.

The committee appointed to examine the records of the Synod of Kentucky reported, and the records were approved.

committee appointed to answer the letter of the Rev. Colany Nee, ed that they had not been able to prepare such a letter. Resolved, is business be committed to the Stated Clerk, and that he be instruct- nswer said letter in behalf of the Assembly, and transmit it to Mr.

olved, That the Trustees of the General Assembly be requested to r a sum of money sufficient to meet the contingent expenses of the cur- ear.

olved, That the Assembly will make no election for the present year ustees of the General Assembly; nor of Trustees of the Theological ary at Princeton.

committee appointed to answer the protest against the admission of lement Tuttle, a committee man, as a member of this Assembly, t in a report which was adopted, and is as follows, viz.

Committee appointed to prepare a reply to the Protest of R. J. Breck- e and other members of this Assembly, against the decision of the bly, allowing Clement Tuttle, a Commissioner from the Presbytery and River, a seat in this Assembly "and against the right of the said nt Tuttle to a seat in said body" respectfully report the following,

That while it is not denied that there is an appearance of de- e from the letter of the Constitution, in admitting to a seat in the Gen- ssembly, "a Lay Commissioner delegated by another name than Rul- lder" yet it is believed that the spirit of the Constitution is not violat- ecause the definition of "Ruling Elder" which is correctly recited e Protestants from the Form of Gov. Chap. 5, describes exactly the cter of the standing Committee contemplated in the Articles of Agree- to which the Protestants refer. The deficiency in this case is therefore ntly rather in the name than in the nature of the delegation from ytery to the Assembly.

. To have refused a seat in this house to a Commissioner regularly ted by his Presbytery on the ground of the "Articles of Agreement" named, would have been to violate a solemn Compact or Treaty d in the year 1801, between the General Assembly of the Presbyte- urch, and the General Association of Connecticut; as that instrument en construed and acted on by the Assembly during the last 10 years. use such Commissioners a seat, would also be to wrest from this Pres- a constitutional right to a representation in the Assembly, inasmuch practice of the Assembly for the last 10 years afforded a full warrant sbyteries to expect that a representative of this character would be ed as a member.

The conventional Agreement or Treaty above referred to, expressly les (see Digest, pp. 298 and 299) that Laymen of the character there nplated, shall be admitted to the Presbyteries on an equality with s. If therefore there is in connection with this subject an infraction Constitution, it is in the Treaty itself, and the only proper remedy supposed evil would be found in a regular proceeding to amend or the said treaty. For while agreeably to the terms of the treaty, Lay- of this description are admitted, as elders, to the Presbyteries, urce of original power, it must be competent to the Presbyteries to te them in the same relation to the Assembly, possessing only limited s, and those, delegated by the Presbyteries. Again the apparent de- e from the letter of the Constitution, is no greater in the admission Laymen to the Assembly that in the parallel clerical delegation from rteries, of Presidents of Colleges, Theological Professors and others —when no apprehension is expressed that the spirit of that instrum violated. The justice of this last position the Committee think will a to any person who will substitute the name of a Minister without Pa charge in place of "Clement Tuttle" and the term "Bishop" in pl "Ruling Elder" in most instances where they occur in the prot which this is a reply, and who will remember as he reads, that the Bishop is synonymous with Pastor throughout our Form of Governme

FOURTH REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE UNION THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY,

To the General Assembly.

The Board of Directors of the Union Theological Seminary of the General Assembly, under the care of the Synods of Virginia and North Carolina, report to the General Assembly, that the following students have been received into this Institution during the past year, viz.

Stephen F. Cocke, Transylvania Presbytery,
James McIntire, Dickinson College,
Stephen Foreman, Cherokee Nation,
William B. Yates, Charleston Union Presbytery,
Leonidas Smith, Hampden Sydney College,
John B. Spottswood, Amherst College.
Duncan McCormick, Fayetteville Presbytery,
A. W. Campbell, West Lexington Presbytery,
David Peabody, Theological Seminary, Andover, Theodoric Prior, Hampden Sydney College,
John M. Caldwell, Orange Presbytery, N. C.
James D. Hall, Chapel Hill,
Samuel D. Rice, West Hanover Presbytery.

The number received during the past year is 13: the highest number connected with the seminary during the past year, 58.

The following young gentlemen, having completed the whole course of studies prescribed in the plan, were dismissed with usual certificates, viz. Joseph Brown, and Daniel C. Henderson.

Angus McAllum, a resident graduate, remained in connection with the seminary during the last year.

Numerous and various articles of furniture and clothing for the use of the seminary, have been received during the year. One of the students is appointed by the Board semi-annually to receive and superintend all such articles, and report to the Board.

Two hundred and fourteen volumes of valuable books have been added to the library by donations. The whole number of volumes now in the library, is 2,490.

The scholarships founded in the seminary are two, viz. the Little scholarship, and the scholarship of the Winchester Presbytery.

The Board have the pleasure to inform the Assembly, that they have made arrangements for completing the seminary edifice during the ensuing year; which, when completed, will accommodate 100 students, the steward and his family, and furnish a commodious chapel, and all other necessary public rooms.

The Board are painfully under the necessity of reporting to the Assembly, that the institution has been deprived during nearly the whole of the past winter, of the important services of the Rev. Dr. Rice, who continues to be severely afflicted with disease. Whilst the Board feel themselves called upon to humble themselves under this truly afflictive dispensation of Providence, they would affectionately ask a special interest in the prayers of the Assembly, not only in behalf of the institution, but also in behalf of the Professor of Christian Theology, whose continuance with us is a matter of painful doubt.

Mr. Elisha Ballentine, a student of the senior class, has been employed to assist the remaining professor in furnishing the students with the usual instruction.

The Board further report to the Assembly, that on the 12th inst. they unanimously elected the Rev. Thomas McAuley, D. D. Professor of Ecclesiastical History and Polity in the institution; and they earnestly hope that the Lord will speedily bring him to the institution, where under existing circumstances, his services are greatly needed. Conditional arrangements have been made to supply Dr. Rice's place during the ensuing season.

The Board would also state that successful efforts have been made to curtail the expenses of the students in the seminary, and that the price of board has been reduced to less than five dollars a month.

The present officers of the Board of Directors are,

Joseph Caldwell, D. D. President,
William Hill, D. D. First Vice-President,
Conrad Speece, D. D. Second Vice-President,
Rev. James H. C. Leach, Secretary,
James D. Wood, Esq. Treasurer.

Of the Synod of North Carolina—Jesse Rankin, Daniel A. Penick, Joseph Caldwell, D. D. Samuel L. Graham, Stephen Frontis, James B. Stafford, Samuel B. Paisley, N. H. Harding, Ministers; Thomas L. Cowan, Charles L. Read, James Daniel, Abraham W. Venable, Elders.

FOURTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE WESTERN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

The Board of Directors of the Western Theological Seminary, in respectfully presenting to the General Assembly their Fourth Annual Report, would gratefully acknowledge the providential care and goodness of the Great Head of the Church to them and the institution over which they preside: that the lives of all connected with it, have been mercifully preserved, and that no disastrous occurrence has impeded its operations, or obscured its prospects.

The number of students in the Seminary at the date of the last annual report was sixteen. During the succeeding winter session the following eleven members were admitted, viz.

Messrs. Bela S. Allen, Wm. A. Adair, John Cloud, Alexander McCandles, John B. Graham, Joseph Kerr, John W. Johnston, Samuel Moody, and James Wilson, graduates of Jefferson College; James Porter, and Wm. Ramsay, graduates of the Western University of Pennsylvania.

During the year, the Rev. Mr. Williams discontinued his connexion with the Seminary; and Messrs. James Anderson, Alfred Hamilton, Robert Glenn, Thomas Beer, Joseph Reed, and Adam Torrance, having completed their intended course of preparatory studies, and received license to preach the Gospel, left the seminary and entered upon missionary and other labours. The present number of students in the seminary is therefore twenty. The students have been regularly examined at the close of each session by committees of the Board, and their reports have accorded with that of the Faculty in attesting, in the words of the latter, "that the conduct of the students has been highly creditable for industry, propriety of deportment, and, as they believe, for christian character."

The theological edifice, a plan of which was presented to the Assembly, in a former report, and which was in a state of progress, at the meeting of the last General Assembly, has been during the past year, so far carried forward as to have some of the rooms in one of its wings fit for occupancy since the first of April last, and the Board entertain the hope that it will be entirely finished before the close of the current year. This building consists of 1st. a central edifice, 60 feet in length, 50 in breadth, and 4 stories high, having at each of its ends a portico projecting 8 feet from the building itself, adorned with Corinthian columns, and to be finished in a corresponding manner, and with a cupola in the centre; and 2nd, of two wings, each extending in length 50 feet from the centre edifice, 45 in breadth, and 3 stories high. The exterior walls are constructed of brick, and all the interior ones of stone taken on the spot, on the excavation of the hill. This entire building has, besides, an oratory, or chapel, 45 feet by 25, containing a gallery with shelves sufficient to hold an extensive library, a dining hall, suits of rooms for the professors, and others for the accommodation of a steward, and from 70 to 80 rooms (chiefly single or for one occupant,) for the use of the students of the seminary. This structure occupies a position elevated about 100 feet above the adjacent town of Allegheny, and commands a distinct view of the city of Pittsburgh, with its contiguous villages, rivers, canals, factories, hamlets, and varied scenery, and for beauty and healthfulness of situation, and eligibility for useful and ornamental improvement, is surpassed by no similar institution on the continent.

On the subject of the financial concerns of the seminary, the Board would state, that on the building, during the two years of its progress, they have expended the sum of $9,074 81, and though no very accurate calculation as to the expense which must be incurred, before, its completion, can be made, they entertain the hope that an additional sum of little more than half this amount may be sufficient to meet the remaining expense.

The total receipts from donations, contributions and annual instalments, during the past year, have been $7,282 54½, and the total expenditures for the same period, $9,897 64.

From this statement it will be seen that the actual receipts into the treasury from these sources, have fallen short of the actual expenditures in the sum of $2,388 68, which the Board have been enabled to meet by a loan.

Of the appropriations made for the payment of the salaries of the professor and the teacher, the sum of $2,675 has been expended the last year, leaving on former appropriations to the fund, the sum of $1,475 yet uncollected and unapplied. Of the appropriations heretofore made for the theological edifice up to this time, there was after the rising of the last General Assembly the sum of $6,679 unexpended. For this object there has been applied the last year the sum of $7,222 64, making an excess over the appropriations of $544 64, which still remains to be provided for.

For the former of these objects, the Board now solicit the appropriation of $2,700; and for the latter the further sum of $5,000, making in all $7,700.

At the commencement of the winter session, the executive committee rented a house in the city of Pittsburg, till the first of March, for $70, with a view to afford such students as were inclined to avail themselves of it, the opportunity of making an experiment of boarding in common.

For the purpose of providing such articles, as might be needed in furnishing the house and be in due time transferred to the edifice, the following articles have been contributed by various benevolent individuals chiefly resident in Pittsburg, viz.

24 Chairs,
2 Tables,
5 Beds,
5 Bedsteads and sacking bottoms,

1 do of Over shoes,
1 do of Pantaloons,

2 Flannel Slips,	1 Bandana Handerchief,	Making of 25 shirts,
1 Surtout Coat,	Materials for 7 shirts,

In addition to the foregoing articles, the following donations were made by different individuals to the Students in the boarding house, viz.

15 Shirts,	½ Bushel of dried apples,	1 Barrel Indian meal,
3 Cravats,	½ do. of do peaches,	130 lbs. meat,
24 Collars,	3 lbs. of Butter,	From an individual in marketing, $3.11.
3 Bushel of Apples,	4½ Barrels of flour,
2 Cheeses,	Provisions valued at $3.00,

From this statement it appears that in connexion with articles enough to furnish in whole, five rooms in the seminary—and a number of others in part, a large proportion of the needful kitchen furniture has also been provided.

In pursuance of this arrangement, ten students clubbed together, and furnished their own servants and provisions, and the experiment seems to sanction the belief that if the students board in common, and on an economical plan, the expenses of boarding, washing, fuel and light, will not exceed the sum of one dollar per week. When therefore the theological edifice, and the conveniences intended to be connected with it, shall have been completed, it is confidently believed that there are few places of equal local advantages in this country, where the necessary expenses are less than they will be here.

During the last year the library of the Seminary has received in consequence of Mr. Campbell's visit to England and agency in that country in 1829, four hundred volumes of books; 400 pamphlets and reports, besides an additional box of books which is now on its way to this country. (Since arrived.) To Roger Lee, Esq. of Clapham Common, near London, the institution is particularly indebted for the collection and transmission of these donations, and for the exhibition of a continued interest in promoting its good in the metropolis of the British Empire. Besides these donations the Rev. John Hill, late of Old College Hoxton, England, on a late visit to Pittsburg made a gift of 22 volumes, and Wm. Leckey, Esq. a donation of Lowth on Isaiah; with some smaller donations in books by various individuals. While the value of these and all similar contributions in miscellaneous books, is duly appreciated, it is obvious that special and considerable appropriations in money can alone secure to the Seminary the possession of such rare, valuable, and expensive works, in the departments of Oriental, Biblical and Theological Learning, as seem necessary to such institutions.

Although the expenditure of the last year has exceeded the amount which the Board were enabled to bring into the Treasury by upwards of $2,000, yet they have not been neglectful of any practicable means to augment their resources.

Besides some local and occasional agencies, the Rev. John Joyce has been engaged for a short time in soliciting aid and collecting funds on the Atlantic coast during the fall and winter: and the Rev. J. F. Halsey has spent four, and Mr. James Anderson (a Licentiate of the Presbytery of Washington) six weeks in the same service; the former chiefly in New-England, and the latter in the bounds of the Presbytery of Steubenville. The greater portion of the funds expended thus far, however, have been collected within the bounds of the Pittsburgh Synod, and the Board have recently appointed the Rev. Wm. Wylie, to act as a soliciting agent for one year, a part of the time within the same bounds, and the other in such other parts of the Presbyterian church as may afford encouragement to such an undertaking.

In the conclusion of their report the Board would again respectfully call the attention of the General Assembly to the necessity of some additional means to meet the wants of this institution. The congregations within the bounds of the Synod in which it is located have shown in its behalf a distinguished liberality, but beyond these limits little comparatively has been done, and to a seminary which has been founded by the Presbyterian church, and relies upon her patronage for support, three-fourths of her churches have never contributed a single cent. The Board are aware that this has arisen in part from the fact that no application has been directly made, and in fact from the efforts which are making to endow theological seminaries in other parts of the church. But they still think that if some general and spirited exertions could be made under the direct agency of the General Assembly, the result would be to afford reasonable and substantial aid, at a time when it is especially and imperiously needed. As an undertaking begun by the solemn act and sanction of the whole Presbyterian church, might it not naturally be supposed that all her congregations, if suitably applied to, would feel willing to give something, at least to its completion?

The sooner the work of completely endowing our academical and theological institutions can be completed the more speedily will the way be opened for turning the un-roken and undivided resources of the church into those great channels, through which, rom the nature of the case, its broadest and most abundant and lasting streams must low before the precious blessings of the gospel can be conveyed to the nations. To this nportant consideration it may be added, that the great western valley will, in its grow- g numbers and its widening settlements, present ample room for the largest contribu- ons of moral influence which it will be in the power of existing or contemplated semi- aries of learning, whether literary or theological, to make for many years to come.

The term of service in the Board of Directors of the Rev. Messrs. Joseph Stockton, muel Tait, James Graham, Andrew O. Patterson, Thomas D. Baird, William M'Clain, d John Stockton, with Messrs. Aaron Kerr, Reddick M'Kee, and Thomas Henry, lders, expires at the present time.

Signed by order of the Board, FRANCIS HERRON, President.

NARRATIVE OF THE STATE OF RELIGION

Within the bounds of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, and of Corresponding Churches; May, 1831.

If the churches in this land are not unfaithful to God and to themselves, the spects of our nation are brighter far than even our past history.

What wonders will open to the view of the philanthropist and the christian o surveys this western world from the eminence of some fifty or sixty years nce! Already is our mountain of Zion watered and refreshed by copious show- s. Plants of grace are springing up on every side, healthful and vigorous: and e Sun of Righteousness is rising upon it with healing in his beams.

The past year has been such a year of revivals and rejoicing in the church never before was known in this land.

In former years details of revivals in the different churches have been given, but is year we can give only the name of the Presbyteries. And we are happy to say at forty-four have sent in reports of the visitation of God's Spirit, and of hun- eds of sinners converted by his power. In the Presbyteries of Champlain, bany, Troy, Watertown, Oneida, Otsego, Chenango, Courtland, Cayuga, Onon- ga, Tioga, Geneva, Ontario, Rochester, Genesee, Niagara, Buffalo, North River, w York 1st, New York 3d, Erie, Huron, Cincinnati, and West Hanover the re- ls have been powerful and general beyond any that have ever before been re- rted to the Assembly. In the Presbyteries of Columbia, St. Lawrence, Oswego, th, Hudson, Bedford, Long Island, New York 2d, Newark, Elizabethtown, iladelphia, District of Columbia, Carlisle, Columbus, Chilicothe, Miami, San- n, Kaskaskia, Cleaveland and Charleston Union, there have been revivals re or less powerful. Some of them in years past would have been denomina- l great and glorious works of grace, and in none of them are there less than two three or more churches blessed by the Spirit and some of them in a very signal nner. Besides these, some other Presbyteries have reported single churches ich have been revived within their bounds. The whole number of the urches thus visited is more than three hundred and fifty. Many of these revi- ls are at this time in progress, some of them increasing in power and inter- t, and almost every week adds the name of some new churches to the favored t. Our prayer to God is, that the number may never be diminished, nor the rk decline, until not only every church, but every soul shall be blessed.— ow many are already subjects of renewing grace it is impossible to estimate ith any degree of accuracy; but in this we may rejoice that many thousands immortal souls who were but a few months ago enemies to Christ, and led ptive by Satan, are now obedient servants to the Saviour, and rational expec- nts of eternal glory.

The character of this work, so far as we can learn, has generally been such as e friends of God must approve, and desire to see continued,—still, solemn, and some cases overwhelming. In general there has been but little to produce dis- st, or to awaken fear in the mind of the most timid and cautious christian. And is worthy of remark, that we hear but little of open and violent opposition.— he presence and power of God have been so manifest, that the most vile though ey refuse to repent, have not the hardihood to oppose or to revile. And for is we would give thanks to God, that while revivals are becoming more frequent, d more powerful, they are also becoming more pure from every thing of human igin.

In these great works of salvation some of all orders and ranks, and ages and character have been included. The child of six and seven years, yet in the infant school, and the aged sinner who had passed his four-score years in rebellion, have in the same congregation, been brought together at the feet of Jesus, and some of all the intermediate ages. The great and learned officers of state, and the most illiterate servants have been found together in the same prayer meeting on a level before the throne of God. The man of wealth and the poor man, have united in begging for mercy of Him who is no respecter of persons. It is however believed that no previous revival ever took so large a proportion of the wealth and learning and influence of society as this has done. Literary and professional men who are at the head of society giving the tone to public sentiment, have been brought into the kingdom in far greater numbers than ever before was known. Moral men, who have regarded themselves as approved of God on account of the purity of their lives, and the openly vicious and profane have been alike humbled before God on account of their vileness, and the just sentence of wrath which was upon them. In many instances the intemperate, tottering upon the verge of a drunkard's grave, have been rescued by the sovereign mercy of God, and made temperate, sober christians. Some of every character and condition in life have been taken, so that we need not despair of any, but should labor and pray in hope and faith for all. In some congregations, especially in the western section of the state of New York, the work has been so general and thorough that the whole customs of society have been changed. Amusements and all practices of a doubtful character, the object of which is simply pleasure, have been abandoned, and far higher and purer enjoyment is found in exercises of devotion, and engagements for the glory of God, and the salvation of men. So far as we can learn, the new converts come at once into all the designs and plans of benevolence which are the glory of the present day, and rejoice in bearing their part in the conversion of the world. Already have the treasuries of many benevolent societies felt their influence. It is also worthy of remark, that in very many instances, and we do not know but in all, where a person has wronged another, on his professing repentance before God, he has been solicitous to make a speedy and full restitution for the injury, and in all cases, the converts are immediately zealous friends of the temperance reformation, and friends of every thing that favors the cause of the Redeemer. All the effect of these revivals, that is worthy of regard, is the advancement of the cause of Christ in the hearts of individuals, in the church, and in the world. Should they continue and increase, as we pray they may, and produce no other effects than they have already done, they will shortly bring into our country all the blessings promised of God to the church in the latter days. They multiply the families that call on the name of the Lord; they change the moral aspect and habits of society, by giving the tone of christianity to public sentiment and practice; they silence the clamor of opposers, and close the lips of the profane; they rescue the sabbath from under the feet of the impious, break up the deep and strong foundations of iniquity, disperse the assemblies of the wicked, and fill the churches of God from the haunts of dissipation. They close up the fountains from whence flow the desolating streams of intemperance, licentiousness and every vice; and give increasing energy and triumph to all the plans of benevolence, by which this revolted world is to be brought back to the service and the favor of God. What more, or what different then, does the church need to bring in her millenial glory? While we pray God to multiply such revivals, and thus cause his kingdom to come, we would urge all the friends of the Redeemer and the ministers of Christ in particular, to be diligent and faithful in using the means by which they are promoted.

In the Presbyterial reports, Sabbath Schools, Bible classes, the distribution of religious tracts, faithful private conversation, three and four days meetings, observing seasons of fasting and prayer, frequent prayer meetings, especially at sun rising, have been mentioned as means which God has blessed. Neither from these nor other means however, ought we to expect success unless they are employed with a heart that earnestly desires the blessing, feels its entire dependence on sovereign grace, and relies with an unwavering confidence on the promises of God to grant the request of his people.

But especially from every Presbytery where revivals exist, we learn that God is pleased to mark with peculiar favor every well directed effort to promote entire abstinence from ardent spirits. Where this cause is triumphant, it is so sure a harbinger of a revival that there is no danger in crying, "the Kingdom of God is at hand." With respect to the kind of preaching which it pleases God to make effectual we are prepared to say; there is in it nothing peculiar—nothing but a full and plain exhibition of the great doctrines of the Bible which are expressed in our Confession of Faith: but such an exhibition of them as shows the sinner his entire voluntary wickedness, and that no palliation or excuse can be offered for his violation of God's law: that he is absolutely and entirely dependant on the Spirit of God, and that this dependence appears the strongest possible encouragement to immediate repentance and right moral action, because that Spirit is constantly striving with him and urging him to that point:—that now his eternal interest is suspended solely, on his own choice, and while it takes away all his excuses for impenitence, urges him to the immediate choice of life, by all the motives that can be made to bear upon the mind, and move the heart. We do hope that all these means will be more faithfully employed, with stronger desire, with more humility, faith, and prayer; and we pray that they may be more abundantly prospered of God. Then will the cry of coldness and death and dissentions which now comes from many of the Presbyteries cease to be heard in our great convocations.

Though we have dwelt thus long on things that demand our gratitude and praise, yet from the narrative of many Presbyteries, we might declare facts respecting the powers, and works of darkness, in the extreme painful and alarming. Ordinances of God are neglected and despised, the sabbath and the name of the Lord profaned, the servants of Christ defamed and slandered, and their benevolent designs perverted. Infidelity, universalism, papacy, and many errors and delusions still abound, and intemperance still prevails. And it is with extreme and unmingled regret, that we hear of some members of our churches who encourage the latter crime by making, vending, and using ardent spirits.

We do affectionately, but earnestly, intreat all such individuals by the love of Christ, and by the value of immortal souls, that they immediately reform, or renounce their profession of having the Spirit of Him who sacrificed himself to save the souls of men.

Other evils have been reported which are very distressing, but to dwell upon them, and to weep over the ruin they spread, will not redress them. As the Spirit of God is poured out and his kingdom advances we know that they will be diminished.

As the general affairs of the kingdom are very much conducted by societies of different names, in order to learn fully the advancement of the cause of Christ we must attend to their respective reports.

That noble institution, the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, in which our own church is equally interested with the Congregational and Reformed Dutch Churches, is making a steady and successful progress in its operations among the heathen. More than 1200 converts from heathenism are connected with the churches formed in its various missions; and it is a fact interesting to the Assembly that a majority of its missionaries and much the greatest number of its mission churches belong to our denomination. The whole number of its missionaries, clergy and laity, male and female, now in the field is 235.

Several churches in one of the interior Presbyteries of New York, moved by recent statements of a deficiency in the receipts of the Board, and several Presbyteries in different parts of the country, solicitous that more should be done in the Presbyterian church for foreign missions, have each resolved to furnish the means of support for one or more Missionaries, and it is earnestly hoped their example may provoke many to similar good works.

The Assembly has been pained to hear, since its present session commenced, that the distinguished friend of missions, and principal Secretary of the Board, as well as the devoted friend and able advocate of the oppressed Indians, Jeremiah Evarts, Esq. has been removed from his earthly labors.

The grand design of the American Bible Society to supply every destitute family in the nation with a Bible is nearly accomplished. This invaluable institution is well sustained by the benefactions of the church and every year witnesses an augmentation of its power and extension of its influence.

Home Missions, under the direction of the American Home Missionary Society, and the Assembly's Board, have been carried forward with increased energy, and they have been crowned with unprecedented success. The number of Missionaries reported by the Am. Home Mis. Society has been increased during the year from 342 to 463; those of the Assembly's Board from 198 to 233; making the whole number employed by both institutions 696: and not less than 900 congregations have been aided in their support. More than eighty churches aided by both institutions have been visited with special revivals of religion. The Missionaries of the American Home Missionary Society have made returns of 2533 additions to the churches on profession of their faith, and the number thus added to the churches aided by the Assembly's Board is estimated in their report at not less than 1500, making in all more than 4000 who have been admitted for the first time to the communion of the church. In view of such results who can refrain from lending a helping hand? Surely the wilderness and the solitary place has been made glad for them, and if this work is urged forward as it ought to be, every moral desert in our land will blossom as the rose.

The education of pious indigent young men for the ministry has been carried forward with unprecedented energy and success. And while we have put our hands to the work to train up ministers for the church and have prayed the Lord of the harvest to send labourers into the harvest, he has answered our request, not only in blessing the beneficiaries, and in preparing hundreds more for patronage in the churches, but he has poured out his Spirit upon most of the colleges and seminaries of learning in our land, consecrating the hearts, the talents, the education and the lives of the young men who are advanced in their literary course, to himself. Such efforts attended with such blessings will soon be able to meet the cry for more labourers, which comes from every part of the country, with a well educated and well trained host of pious ministers.

The American Tract Society, is yearly doing more and more to spread the knowledge of the gospel of Christ through the country. Not only are its silent preachers eminently useful where the living teacher cannot be sustained, but the cause of revivals and the salvation of souls in our congregations are promoted by their influence. By the monthly distribution of a single tract to every family, which has been adopted by many of our churches, so much good has been done that we hope every church will without delay engage in the work.

The American Sunday School Union is making vigorous and successful efforts to extend the blessings of sabbath school instruction throughout the country.—During the past year God has seen fit to visit these nurseries of the church in a remarkable manner. In many instances they have been the means of revivals, and thousands of scholars and teachers we trust have been brought into the fold of Christ. We rejoice to learn that there are now not less than 450,000 scholars connected with the Union, and that the resolution some time ago adopted to establish schools throughout the valley of the Mississippi is going into operation with flattering prospects of success.

The Seamen's Friend Society, the Colonization Society, together with kindred institutions, are making a happy and joyful progress in their enterprizes. While God is abundantly enriching the church, by giving fruitful seasons, and prospering all the means of wealth, while he is adding to her the influence and riches of thousands, who have hitherto been opposed, and while by the reformation of habits produced by the Temperance Society far more is saved to her than all that had been expended, is it not unreasonable and must it not be provoking to the God of heaven, that any benevolent society should be cramped and retarded in its operations for the want of more liberal support? "The liberal soul shall be made fat and he that watereth shall be watered also himself." As the large demands of these societies are more promptly and fully met we shall see the triumphs of the cross and the reign of grace.

From the General Association of Connecticut we learn that the same reviving influences of the Holy Spirit which have visited so many portions of our church have been poured out upon theirs. And often as those churches have been blessed with revivals of religion, yet such revivals—in respect to the number of the subjects; the rapidity of the work of conversion, the harmony of the churches and pastors, the absence of all to which the fastidious might plausibly object, and the overawing manifestation of the power of God, have rarely if ever, been witnessed there before. Not fewer than fifty congregations have experienced in a greater or less degree the special visitation of the Spirit of God since the commencement of the present year, and every week brings tidings that another and another of the churches is rejoicing in the same mercy of the Saviour. The cities of Hartford and New Haven have been particularly blessed. In Yale College about 120 of the students have given evidence of having passed from death unto life.

From the General Association of Massachusetts no report has been received.

the General Convention of Vermont, the General Association of New-ire, the General Conference of Maine, the Evangelical Consociation of sland and the Synod of the German Reformed Church, we learn much heering. Though not blessed with so many and so powerful revivals of , yet many of their churches are refreshed by gentle showers of grace, and al, the cause of piety and benevolence is advancing. And it is worthy rk, that in all these connections God is manifesting peculiar favor to the s and Seminaries of learning. In many of them, especially at Middlebury, uth, and Bowdoin, there have been interesting revivals of religion.

. these mighty works we are anew reminded that we live in the most event-d of the world; a period when holiness is to take the precedence of sin, ie conversation and control the customs of society. This precedence the as held too long, and values it too highly, to relinquish it without a struggle, God will prevail. It will be accomplished, not by might nor by power, the Spirit of Jehovah, yet through human agency. The place for Christ's s and people is at the feet of their Redeemer while they rely entirely up-

ng unknown in the Scriptures or untried in the church is needed in the ion of the world to God. The whole church is warned to be more hum-re prayerful and more faithful and devoted in the work of the Lord, exhis grace, and relying upon him for the fulfilment of all his promises:

LETTER

From the Rev. Colany Nee, Pastor of the Third Ecclesiastical Division of the Reformed Consistorial Church of the Departments of Aisne, Seine, and Marne, in France; addressed to the Rev. Ezra Stiles Ely, D. D. Stated Clerk, for the General Assembly of the P. C. in the U. S. of America.

Leme, Feb. 18, 1831.

Dearly beloved brethren in Jesus, our hope,

I have not had the pleasure of receiving the journal of your Assembly, nor the other documents which you mention in your late interesting letter. This came duly to hand, and edified and delighted me no less than your former favors. I hastened to send it to Paris, that it might be inserted in our religious papers. I hope that this year I shall not be the only person in France to reply to your fraternal and gratifying communications. I am persuaded that many of our brethren will like myself, esteem it their duty and pleasure, to cultivate a correspondence which is so precious, and so well suited to tighten the bonds of love which unite us to Him, who hath redeemed us from our sins with his blood, and made us kings and priests of God his Father.

Thanks be rendered to this tender Father, in the name of our Saviour Jesus Christ, for the new blessings which he has showered upon your dear churches.— May he continue to pour upon them, and upon each one of you, dearly beloved brethren, a superabundant measure of his Spirit! May he sanctify those who are called, and regenerate others! May he abound in all your churches! May he animate the pastors and their flocks; and himself train the teachers and pupils of the numerous Sunday Schools that you now have, and of all the others which he has put it into your hearts to establish hereafter! Yes, may they become, under his regenerating influence, so many nurseries of young christians! May they receive abundant dews of grace; and may all the States of the Union soon become like a garden of the Eternal, in which seasons of forgiveness and salvation follow each other, without interruption or cloud.

Brethren, well beloved in the Lord, ask of HIM these same mercies for France and Switzerland. You know that in these two countries the awakening is hardly begun, while in yours it appears already in full splendour. Still we are in circumstances well suited to bring it into our souls, and to show us visibly that our God makes every thing contribute to the advancement of his reign. Our brethren of Vaud and Berne are, by his goodness, about to enter again into the enjoyment of all their rights, as they will themselves inform you. A new era as to religion has also begun in France, since the astonishing revolution of July. The obstacles to the spread of the gospel, which the ancient government always suffered more or less to remain, have almost entirely disappeared. It is no longer necessary to obtain permission to spread the word of life and hold religious meetings. Already three new protestant churches, which do not receive stipends from the State, have been organized at Paris. Others of the same kind have been and will be formed in the country. Like those which I serve, they follow the same discipline as yours with respect to the holy supper. We admit to the table of the Lord only those who appear to have experienced the efficacy of his sacrifice, and to have felt the sanctifying influence of his Spirit. With you, dear brethren, I am sensible that this discipline is intimately connected with the purity of the church, and the extension of its limits. It is truly desirable that it should be introduced into all the protestant churches of France; but alas! it meets with great opposition in them, although it is conformable to their ecclesiastical discipline. Notwithstanding this, it is still considered a dangerous innovation, and many minds have already been excited against it. Yet this opposition, and that which the gospel meets, more or less, in all unregenerate hearts, do not prevent its advancing in the greater part of our churches. Almost every where the people begin to rise from that lifeless state, into which they were sunk. Many souls are renewed in Christ. Indifference and credulity daily lose some of their partisans. The old doctrines of the reformation resound in many pulpits. The work of God is spread abroad. Domestic worship is re-established. Bible classes are formed, and Sunday Schools organized. Our religious societies prosper, as you will no doubt learn from the brethren in Paris, and especially from the kind of Synod which we have formed in this part of France. This is to meet for the second time in the f June next, under favor of God, and will then consider it a duty to your excellent epistle, as it did, at its former session, to that of our of the Reformed Dutch Churches of the United States.

t not, dear brethren, that you will learn with as much joy as interest, that as movement most favourable to the gospel, begins to be manifest, among holics also of this kingdom. A large number of them have separated es forever from the Romish church. Some have entered into our com- and others have formed the new FRENCH CATHOLIC CHURCH, not the state. Among the latter there are some converted priests. At first re but about ten ecclesiastics, one of whom was a curate who served the of one of my parishes; and whom I believe to be truly renewed by the irit. After a little while, about fifty more priests joined the others, to the principles of their new church. Their first step was to shake off of the Pope and of their bishops, to constitute themselves an indepen- rch, to celebrate worship in French, and by means of the press to offer gratuitously, those communes which would receive them, and adopt nciples. This did well. Their voice was echoed in France. PREFACE TO THE STATISTICAL TABLE.

In the following table the reader will please to take notice, that P. attached to a minister's name, denotes that he is Pastor of some church; and P. added to the name of a church, signifies that it has a Pastor. W. C. stand for the words without charge; S. S. for stated supply; O. S. for occasional supply; V. for vacant; Presb. for Presbytery; Prest. for President of some college; Prof. for Professor in some college or theological seminary; Miss. for Missionary; Chap. for Chaplain to the United States Navy, or some public station; Ch. for Church; Cong. for Congregational.

The post-office address of a minister or licentiate, is to be sought for in the right hand column, on the same line with the name at the left; and the reader is not to regard any intervening name of a church, which may, or may not be the one in which the preacher whose name is opposite to it, is the pastor or stated supply. A church which is vacant and marked V., will often be found in the same line with a minister W. C., without charge; for, by this arrangement, the table is brought within a narrower compass than it could otherwise be.

The stated clerks of presbyteries are earnestly requested to make their future returns in the form of the printed report, forwarded to them as one sheet of this pamphlet, and chargeable only as one sheet of a periodical.

Particularly they are requested not to introduce into the tabular part of the Report any extraneous matter, but to obey strictly the regulations of the Assembly; for, new columns, and explanations not required, cost the Stated Clerk of the Assembly no little time in expunging them, before the reports can be sent to the printer. Each Stated Clerk of Presbytery is also respectfully reminded, that it is his duty to give the TOTALS of the columns in their proper places; and that the writer of this Preface is not answerable for all the arithmetical calculations of his brethren.

Funds collected for different missionary purposes in any congregation, should be returned in one sum, in the column for missionary funds, instead of being distinguished by the different objects for which they were collected.

All money collected for the charitable education of youth, in infant, sabbath, and other schools, academies, and seminaries, and especially in those of a theological character, should be named in one sum, under the heading of "Education Funds." When additional columns of figures are returned, they are worse than useless.

Resolved, That so much of this report as relates to the admission of persons into the church, be referred to a special committee, for the purpose of presenting some expression of the views of the Assembly on this subject. Dr. Richards, Dr. Spring, Mr. Francis M'Farland, Mr. Dickinson, and Mr. James C. Barnes were appointed this Committee.

The Committee to whom was referred Overture No. 11. viz: "On the appointment of a day of prayer for the conversion of the world," made the following report, which was unanimously adopted, viz:

It being understood, that Christians and churches, both in this country and in Europe, have at different times desired the public designation of a day to be observed by all Christians throughout the world as a day of fasting and prayer for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit on the whole family of man, and this Assembly being deeply impressed with the importance and high privilege of such an observance; and feeling urged and encouraged to more importunate supplications, in view of the recent revivals of religion in this land, as well as the signs of the present time in relation to the prospects of the church in other nations, therefore

Resolved, That it be recommended to the ministers and churches under the supervision of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, and the churches in correspondence with the same, to observe the First Monday in January, 1833, as a day of Fasting and Prayer, for the divine blessing on the ministry of the Gospel throughout the world, for the revival of religion in the whole of Christendom, and for the entire success of those benevolent enterprises which have for their object the world's conversion to God.

Resolved, That other denominations of Christians in the United States, and the Christian churches in all other countries, be and they hereby are affectionately, and with Christian salutations, invited to concur in the observance of the day above specified.

Resolved, That these resolutions be published with the signature of the Moderator and Clerk of the General Assembly, for the information of such Synods, Assemblies, Associations, Conferences, Conventions, and other Ecclesiastical Bodies as may choose to recommend the above observance to the churches under their care. And may grace, mercy, and peace be multiplied to all throughout the world who love our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Committees appointed to examine the Records of the Synods of Geneva, North Carolina, Tennessee, West Tennessee, and Genesee, reported respectively, and the Records were approved.

The Committee appointed to examine the Records of the Synod of Mississippi and South Alabama, reported that the Records had not been put into their hands. The Committee were discharged.

The Committee of Overtures reported Overture No. 16. viz: On the colonization of the free people of colour.

This Overture was taken up, and the following minute unanimously adopted, viz.

Whereas it is the opinion of this Body, that African Colonization is eminently calculated to benefit a long persecuted and deeply injured race, by furnishing to the free people of colour an opportunity to escape from the oppression which they suffer in this country, by removing the obstacles to the voluntary emancipation of the slaves, and especially by the facilities it affords for suppressing the horrid traffic in human flesh on the coast of Africa, and for the introduction of Christianity and civilization into that benighted continent, therefore,

Resolved, That it be earnestly recommended to the pastors of all the churches under the care of the General Assembly to bring the claims of the American Colonization Society before their respective congregations; and that it be recommended to the churches to take up collections in aid of its funds on the Fourth of July, or on some Sabbath near it.

The Committee on Overture, No. 4. viz: On dividing Ecclesiastical Bodies, made the following report, which was adopted, viz.

1. There is an orderly application from the Presbytery of Steubenville, of the Synod of Pittsburg, that a part of their territory be attached to the Presbytery of Athens and Synod of Ohio. The Presbytery of Athens say that they will not object to a change of the boundary line, especially as the territory in question is more convenient to them. It is understood that there are no organized churches within the district in question.

The Committee would recommend that the request be granted, and that the line dividing the two Presbyteries be so altered as shall make it coincident with the north line of Washington county from the Ohio River, to the west line of the Seven Ranges.

2. The Presbytery of Missouri requested the Synod of Illinois to take measures for the erection of a new Synod; whereupon the Synod divided the ministers and churches in the State of Missouri into three Presbyteries, viz. the Presbytery of St. Louis, the Presbytery of St. Charles, and the Presbytery of Missouri. The Synod of Illinois pray the General Assembly to erect a new Synod to be composed of the above named Presbyteries and to be called the Synod of Missouri; that the first meeting of the said Synod be held at St. Louis, on the second Thursday in October, 1832, and to be opened with a sermon by the Rev. Thomas Donnell who shall preside until a Moderator be chosen; or in case of his absence, then the senior minister present.

The Committee report, that the proceedings appear to have been regular, and recommend that the prayer of the Synod be granted.

3. The Presbytery of Muhlenburg request the General Assembly to detach them from the Synod of Kentucky, and connect them with the Synod of West Tennessee. But inasmuch as the Synod of Kentucky have not been consulted, your Committee would recommend that the further consideration of the subject be deferred until the Synod of Kentucky shall be consulted.

4. The Churches of Mount Pleasant, Bethany, Honesdale, and Carbondale, under the care of the Presbytery of Hudson, and Synod of New York, petitioned said Presbytery that they might be detached from them and connected with the Presbytery of Susquehanna and Synod of New Jersey.

The Presbytery of Hudson applied to the Synod of New York in behalf of the churches so petitioning, and obtained their consent to the transfer.

Your committee would therefore recommend that the churches of Mount Pleasant, Bethany, Honesdale, and Carbondale, be placed under the care of the Presbytery of Susquehanna according to their request.

The Committee to whom was referred Overture, No. 15, viz.: On ordination by a deposed minister or by laymen, made the following report which was adopted, viz.

That this paper contains a letter from a Minister in South Carolina to the Stated Clerk, requesting him to obtain a decision of the General Assembly, on the question, "whether the ordination of a Minister of the gospel, by the interposition of the hands of the laity is valid?" That the answer to this question should be in the negative is so obvious and evident, on all correct principles of ecclesiastical order, that your Committee are of opinion, that it is unnecessary for the General Assembly to give any further consideration to the subject.

The Complaint of certain members of the Presbytery of Philadelphia against the said Presbytery in the case of Mr. Holt, was withdrawn by the complainants.

The receiving of the report of the Committee appointed by the last General Assembly to attend the last meeting of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, and confer with that body in respect to measures to be adopted for enlisting the energies of the Presbyterian Church more extensively in the cause of Missions to the Heathen, was made the order of the day for this afternoon.

The motion to cite the Synod of the Western Reserve made on Saturday last, and put upon the docket was taken up. After considerable discussion, the following minute was adopted, viz.

Whereas a resolution was introduced citing the Synod of the Western Reserve, to answer certain charges brought by common rumor against the order and discipline of the Presbyteries and Churches belonging to that Synod; viz. that said Synod is chargeable with delinquency in permitting persons to be licensed to preach the gospel, and in permitting persons to be ordained to the office of Bishops and Evangelists, and in permitting persons to be received as ordained Ministers coming from other churches without being required by the Presbyteries to receive and adopt the Confession of Faith of the Presbyterian Church: and whereas the said Synod is further charged by common fame with having failed to take effectual care that the Presbyteries observe the Constitution of the Church, in this, that many churches have no Ruling Elders connected with them, and that the office of Ruling Elder has been allowed to go into disuse to a great extent throughout the bounds of said Synod:

After discussion, in which much information respecting the state and proceedings of said Presbyteries and churches was given,

Resolved, That instead of issuing a citation to the Synod of the Western Reserve, said Synod be directed to review and examine the state of the Presbyteries and churches under its care, and make a report to the next General Assembly with a special reference to these points. And further,

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly forward copies of the above minute to the Moderator and Stated Clerk of the Synod of the Western Reserve.

Adjourned till this afternoon at half past 3 o'clock.

Concluded with prayer.

TUESDAY, half past 3 o'clock, P. M. May 29th. The Assembly met and united in prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read.

The Committee appointed by the last General Assembly to attend the last meeting of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, and confer with that body in respect to measures to be adopted for enlisting the energies of the Presbyterian Church more extensively in the cause of Missions to the Heathen, and to report the results of this conference, and their views on the whole subject to this General Assembly, made a report, which was read and accepted, and the consideration of it made the order of the day for Thursday morning.

The Committee on Overture No. 2, viz: On Correspondence with Foreign Bodies; made the following report, which was adopted, viz:

That after mature consideration of the memorials presented to the Assembly, in connexion with resolutions which have been passed by this Assembly, affecting the subjects embraced in these memorials, and to a considerable extent transferring them to other items of deliberation and decision, they recommend that the following resolution be adopted, viz:

Resolved, That, at present, no change in the terms of correspondence with foreign bodies is expedient.

Adjourned till to-morrow morning at half past 8 o'clock.

Concluded with prayer.

The minutes of last session were read.

The Assembly took up the protest and complaint of a minority of the Synod of Virginia, against a decision of said Synod in favour of called meetings of Synod. The complainants and Synod were heard, after which it was resolved that the complaint be not sustained.

The following resolutions were offered and seconded, viz.

Be it resolved, by this General Assembly, That the Plan of Union of 1801, between the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, and the General Association of Connecticut, does not when properly construed, authorize any committee-man now to sit and act in any Presbytery as a Ruling Elder, unless he represents a church composed partly of Presbyterians and partly of Congregationalists; nor even then, unless in the express case of discipline provided for under the fourth head of that Plan of Union.

Be it further resolved, That the said Plan of Union, when truly construed, does not authorize any private person, not being a committee-man, to sit or act in Presbytery, in any case whatever.

Be it further resolved, That the said Plan of Union, when truly construed, does not authorize any committee-man to sit or act in any case in any Synod nor in the General Assembly.

After considerable discussion, it was resolved, That without expressing an opinion on the resolutions offered, it is inexpedient at this time to consider them.

The Committee to whom was referred the report of the Trustees of the Theological Seminary at Princeton, in regard to the claim of the Associate Reformed Synod of New York, made the following report, which was adopted, viz:

That they have examined the opinion of Charles Ewing, Samuel L. Southard, and William W. Phillips, to whom the subject was specially referred by the Trustees of the Theological Seminary at Princeton, with as much care and attention as their time and the pressing engagements of this General Assembly would allow; and your committee recommend the adoption of the following resolution, viz:

Resolved, That the said opinion and report transmitted to this Assembly by the Trustees of the Theological Seminary at Princeton, be accepted and approved; and that said Trustees be, and they are hereby empowered, to adopt and pursue any measures by amicable suit at law, or in equity, or by arbitration, if they deem it expedient or necessary, in order to settle and determine any claim or claims, which the Associate Reformed Synod of New York, or any other person or persons, or body corporate, may make to the property, which is the subject of the opinion referred to.

Resolved, That a Committee be appointed to draft a Pastoral Letter to the Ministers and Churches under the care of the Assembly, relative to the state of religion in our Church at the present time.

After considerable discussion, the question was taken, and the motion was decided in the affirmative—yeas 126, nays 122.

Adjourned till to-morrow morning at half past 8 o'clock.

Concluded with prayer.

THURSDAY morning, May 31, at half-past 8 o'clock. The Assembly met, and united in prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read.

The committee on leave of absence reported that they have given leave to Mr. Magie. This report was accepted.

Dr. Green and Dr. Richards were appointed a committee to prepare the Pastoral Letter resolved upon last evening.

The report of the Committee on Overture No. 3, viz: On reducing the ratio of representation to the General Assembly, was taken up, and after mature deliberation and amendment was adopted, and is as follows, viz:

That your committee, having attended to the business confided to them, and read the various documents put into their hands from several ecclesiastical bodies and Ministers of our church on the subject, and considered at large the different methods of change and ratios of representation proposed, have come with great unanimity to the following result, viz:

1. That a change materially reducing the present representation, by increasing its ratio, is expected and required by all, and proper to be attempted at the present Assembly.

2. That in view of the growing number of our members and ministers, amounting already to more than twenty Synods and a hundred Presbyteries, it has become a question whether the form of representation, as well as the ratio, ought not to be changed; and the Synodical form substituted for the Presbyterial; that is to say, that hereafter the election of Commissioners to the General Assembly should be by Synods and not by Presbyteries.

3. That both questions be overtured by the present Assembly to the Presbyteries, for their consideration and votes on each distinctly, so as to secure, if possible, a constitutional result at the next Assembly, fixing the proper changes; and hence the committee recommend to the Assembly, for their adoption, the following form of overture to the Presbyteries, viz. That every Presbytery be required to decide on the follow ng questions:

1. Shall the form of representation be changed from Presbyterial to Synodical?

2. If so changed, shall the ratio of Synodical representation, omitting fractions, be one Minister and one Elder for every twenty-five Ministers belonging to the Synod, with the privilege of nomination in the Presbyteries in such ratio and mode as each Synod may adopt?

3. If not changed in form, shall the second section of the twelfth chapter of the Form of Government be so altered as to read as follows, viz:

"The General Assembly shall consist of an equal delegation of Bishops and Elders from each Presbytery in the following proportion, viz: each Presbytery consisting of not more than twenty-four Ministers shall send one Minister and one Elder, and each Presbytery consisting of more than twenty-four Ministers shall send two Ministers and two Elders, and in the like proportion for every twenty-four Ministers in every Presbytery; and these delegates so appointed shall be styled Commissioners to the General Assembly."

The report of the committee who were appointed by the last Assembly to attend the Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, and confer with that body, &c. was taken up, and after some discussion the following resolution was adopted, viz:

Resolved, That while the Assembly would express no opinion in relation to the principles contained in the report, they cordially recommend the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions to the affection and patronage of their churches.

The committee appointed to examine the records of the Synod of South Carolina and Georgia made a report, when the records were approved, with the exception of a resolution recorded on pages 218 and 219, on the subject of admitting the representatives of Congregational and Independent churches to be members of their Presbyteries and Synod, in the same manner as Ruling Elders.

The committee appointed to examine the records of the Synod of Virginia, made a report, when the records were approved.

Adjourned till this afternoon at half past 3 o'clock.

Concluded with prayer.

THURSDAY, half past 3 o'clock, P. M., May 31st. The Assembly met, and united in prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read.

The Committee on Leave of Absence, made the following report, which was approved, viz: That they have given leave to the following persons, viz: Messrs. Little, J. Platt, Woodruff, M'Coy, Joseph Morrison, and Dr. Spring.

The Committee on Overture No. 7, viz. "A request from the Synod of Ohio to change the form of statistical reports from the Synods to the General Assembly," made the following report which was adopted, viz: That inasmuch as the General Assembly has required all the Presbyteries, to send up their statistical reports immediately after the last stated meeting, prior to the next succeeding Assembly; and as these reports anticipate the information communicated in the Synodical reports, about a year, therefore,

Resolved, That each Synod shall not be required to report in detail, but simply to report to the Assembly, the number of its Presbyteries, and of the members and alterations of the Presbyteries, agreeably to the fifth section of chapter eleventh on Form of Government.

The committee to whom was referred Overture No. 5, viz. "On subscribing the Confession of Faith," made the following report, which was unanimously adopted, viz.

That in their judgment any further legislation on the subject, by the Assembly, would be unnecessary and inexpedient. They consider the formula contained in our Book, and the rule adopted by the Assembly in 1830, viz. "that in their judgment every licentiate coming by certificate to any Presbytery in connexion with the General Assembly, from any portion of a corresponding ecclesiastical body, should be required to answer in the affirmative, the constitutional questions directed by chapter fourteenth of our Form of Government, to be put to our candidates before they are licensed; and that in like manner every ordained minister of the gospel coming from any church in correspondence with the General Assembly by certificate of dismission and recommendation, should be required to answer affirmatively the first seven questions directed by chapter fifteenth of our Form of Government to be put to one of our own licentiates, when about to be ordained to the sacred office," (p. 12, 1830,) sufficiently explicit; and would earnestly recommend these to the attention of the Presbyteries under the care of the Assembly.

As to the question submitted to them, "whether the Catechisms, Larger and Shorter, are to be considered as a part of the Standards of our Church, and are comprehended in the words, Confession of Faith of this Church?" the committee feel no hesitation in answering that question in the affirmative. It does not appear, that any doubts on that subject have ever been entertained, until very recently. The committee find in the minutes of the old Synod, at the union of the Synod of Philadelphia with the Synod of New York and New Jersey, in 1758, that the first article of the Plan of Union contains the following words, (Digest, p. 118,) viz. "Both Synods, having always approved and received the Westminster Confession of Faith and Larger and Shorter Catechisms as an orthodox and excellent system of Christian doctrine founded on the word of God, we do still receive the same as the Confession of our Faith: and also the plan of worship, government, and discipline, contained in the Westminster Directory, strictly enjoining it on all our members, and probationers for the ministry, that they preach and teach according to the form of sound words in said Confession, and Catechisms, and avoid and oppose all error contrary thereto." In the recital of the manner in which a Presbytery was received by the Synod of New York, 1763, we have the following record which is contained in the Assembly's Digest, p. 50—"It was agreed to grant their request, provided that they agree to adopt our Westminster Confession of Faith and Catechisms, and engage to observe the Directory as a plan of worship, discipline, and government, according to the agreement of this Synod."

In 1788, in the adopting act of the Confession, as entered in the Digest, p. 124, the Catechisms are distinctly mentioned as a part of our standards. "They also took into consideration the Westminster Larger and Shorter Catechisms, and having made a small amendment of the Larger, did approve, and do hereby approve and ratify the said Catechisms as now agreed on, as the Catechisms of the Presbyterian Church in the said United States. And the Synod order that the said Directory and Catechisms be printed and bound up in the same volume with the Confession of Faith and the Form of Government and Discipline; and that the whole be considered as the standard of our doctrine, government, discipline, and worship, agreeably to the resolutions of the Synod at their present sessions"—one of which resolutions was, (p. 123,) "that the Form of Government and Discipline and the Confession of Faith, as now ratified, is to continue to be our constitution and the confession of our faith and practice unalterably, unless two-thirds of the Presbyteries under the care of the General Assembly shall propose alterations or amendments, and such alterations or amendments shall be agreed to and enacted by the General Assembly." Accordingly, in the Directory for the administration of baptism, the Larger and Shorter Catechisms of the Westminster Assembly, are mentioned in connexion with the Confession of Faith, as adopted by this Church, and are to be recommended as containing a summary of the principles of our holy religion, taught in the Scriptures of the Old and New Testament.

The committee therefore recommend to the Assembly the adoption of the following resolutions, viz.

1. Resolved by the Assembly, That in receiving and adopting the Confession of Faith, as containing the system of doctrine taught in the Holy Scriptures, the Larger and Shorter Catechisms of the Westminster Assembly of Divines, are included, and do constitute an integral part of the standards of this Church.

2. Resolved, That the use of the Catechisms in the religious instruction of the young and of the children under the care of the Church, be affectionately and earnestly recommended to the sessions in connexion with the General Assembly, as the most effectual means, under God, of preserving the purity, peace, and unity of our Church.

Mr. Robert J. Breckinridge asked leave to resign his appointment as a delegate to the General Association of Connecticut, and the General Conference of Maine. His resignation was accepted; and the Rev. James Weatherby was appointed a delegate to these bodies in his place.

Resolved, That the following rule be sent down to the Presbyteries for their consideration and decision, and they are hereby required to send up their decisions respectively, in writing, to the next General Assembly, whether the same shall become a constitutional rule or not, viz.

When any emergency shall require a meeting of the Synod sooner than the time to which it stands adjourned, the Moderator, or in case of his absence, death, or inability to act, the Stated Clerk, shall, with the concurrence or at the request of three Ministers and three Elders, the Ministers and Elders being of at least two different Presbyteries, call a special meeting. For this purpose he shall send a circular letter, specifying the particular business of the intended meeting, to every Minister belonging to the Synod, and to the session (if practicable) of every vacant congregation; and between the time of issuing the letters of convocation, and the time of meeting shall elapse at least twenty days. And nothing shall be transacted at such special meeting besides the particular business for which the judicatory has been convened. It shall also be the duty of the Moderator to cause notice to be given in the public prints of the time and place of such intended meeting of the Synod.

The Judicial Committee reported on the appeal of the Presbytery of Missouri from the decision of the Synod of Indiana, and recommended with the consent of parties, the adoption of the following resolution, viz.

Resolved, That the appeal of the Presbytery of Missouri, for the reasons therein detailed, be sustained, and that the decision of the Synod of Indiana therein appealed from, be, and it hereby is reversed. This resolution was adopted by the Assembly.

The committee to whom was referred the subject involved in so much of the records of the Synod of Cincinnati as relates to the admission of persons to church privileges at the great meetings common in that region, made the following report, which was adopted, viz.

That they have given this subject a careful consideration, and recommend the adoption of the following resolutions, viz.

1. Resolved, That the order of the churches requires that all persons making a public profession of religion be introduced to the communion of the church only by an individual session regularly constituted.

2. Resolved, That it is the right and duty of sessions to take the exclusive oversight of their respective congregations, and that the practice of one session admitting to a Christian profession persons belonging or intending to belong to a congregation under the care of another session, is irregular, and ought not to be countenanced.

3. Resolved, That the purity and prosperity of the church, as well as the best interests of those immediately concerned, demand great circumspection in the admission of persons to church privileges; and that ordinarily it is deemed improper to receive persons immediately upon their indulging a hope of reconciliation with God, and especially in the case of the young, and of persons of previously immoral lives or lax principles, and of those concerning whom little is known.

The committee to whom was referred the report made to the last Assembly on the question, "Whether baptism by a Popish Priest ought to be considered as valid?" together with the whole subject, made a report, which, together with the report made to the last Assembly, and the whole subject, was committed to Dr. Alexander, Dr. Richards, Dr. Baxter, Dr. Beman, and Dr. Robert G. Wilson, with directions to report to the next General Assembly.

The Committee on Overture, No. 9, viz. "Advice asked respecting the following question of order by the Presbytery of Otsego, 'Is it contrary to chapter 17th, of the Form of Government, for a Presbytery to dissolve the connexion between a Minister and his congregation at the time when he presents his request for its dissolution, and the congregation joins issue by commissioners duly appointed for that purpose?'" made the following report which was adopted, viz.

Resolved, That it is not expedient for this Assembly to give a decided answer to the question; but to leave every Presbytery to act according to their own discretion in the premises.

The Committee on Mileage reported, that the number of miles travelled by the Commmissioners who have applied to draw from the Commissioners Fund, is 80,111, in coming to the Assembly; that the amount paid to the Treasurer for the Commissioners' Fund, is $2221 16 which affords 2 cents and 7 mills for each mile travelled; and that they have divided the fund among the Commissioners at this rate. The report was adopted. Ordered that the Trustees issue a warrant upon the Treasurer for $2221 16 to be paid to the Commissioners, out of the Commissioners' Fund, agreeably to the apportionment of the Committee of Mileage.

Resolved, That, it be the order of the day for to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock, to receive the report of the Trustees of the General Assembly, directed by the last Assembly. The Permanent Clerk was directed to inform the Board of Trustees of this resolution.

Adjourned till to-morrow morning, at half past eight o'clock.

Concluded with prayer.

FRIDAY morning, June 1st, half past 8 o'clock. The Assembly met, and united in prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read.

The committee on leave of absence reported, that they have given leave to the following persons, viz: Messrs. Brewster and Purdy. This report was approved.

The Committee of Overtures reported Overture No. 17, viz. on the subject of a Monthly Historical Journal. This report was put on the docket.

The Committee to whom was recommitted the report of the Committee on the reference from the Synod of Philadelphia, in relation to the right of Presbyteries to require every Minister or Licentiate coming from other Presbyteries, &c. to submit to an examination before he be received, with instructions to prepare a proposition on the subject, to be sent down to the Presbyteries, made a report. The minority of said committee also made a report. These reports were laid on the table.

The Trustees of the General Assembly made the following report, viz:

"The Trustees of the Assembly respectfully report, That in obedience to the resolution of the last General Assembly, they directed the Treasurer to have prepared and presented to your venerable body at its present sessions, as full and complete a statement of the respective funds under the care of the Trustees as is required by the said resolution, and to employ a clerk if necessary, so as to have it prepared in due season.

As soon as the Board commenced their annual sessions, they called upon the Treasurer to know if the accounts were prepared. He reported, that he had placed the books in the hands of a respectable gentleman, who is an able accountant, to have the statements prepared, but that owing to other engagements of the gentleman so appointed, and the Treasurer's feeble state of health for some time past, the entire work had not been accomplished. The statement of the accounts from June 26, 1799, to May 17, 1820, has been completed, and is now transmitted; the remaining period of twelve years is in progress, but cannot be furnished in time to be laid before the Assembly.

The Trustees beg leave to present herewith, a statement of the amount of all the stocks and securities for money, belonging to the Assembly. The accounts of the Treasurer as to receipts and disbursements, are annually examined, and found correct; and no difficulty exists in the account, except that in times past there were no specific accounts opened in the book with the several professorships and scholarships whereby it would appear at a single view, how these respective funds stood, and how they were invested.

The Trustees have decided to place these accounts in the hands of a committee with full powers to have the work done, so that no more delay shall occur."

The above report was accepted, and the Trustees are hereby directed to endeavour to complete this work, by the next General Assembly, and make a full report to that body.

Resolved, That the estimate of the present value of stock, &c. belonging to the General Assembly, accompanying the above report of the Trustees, be published in the Appendix to the Minutes.

Resolved, That Messrs. Matthew L. Bevan, James Schott, and Solomon Allen, be a committee to examine the state of the funds belonging to, or under the control of this Assembly, or of its Trustees, who are hereby authorized and requested to examine the whole subject of the funds, with full powers, to examine all the books and papers relative thereto, to employ the necessary accountants, and to make report in detail and lay it before the next Assembly on the second day of their sessions.

The Committee on Overtures No. 10 and 12, on various points of doctrine and order, reported that they had not been able to attend to the business committed to them. The committee were discharged; and the Overtures were referred to the next General Assembly.

The committee appointed to examine the records of the Synod of Pittsburg, made a report, and the records were approved.

The Committee on the History of the Presbyterian Church were continued.

Resolved, That the Assembly will this year make no change in the Board of Trustees of the General Assembly; nor in the Board of Trustees of the Theological Seminary at Princeton.

Resolved, That the Trustees of the General Assembly be requested to borrow a sum of money sufficient to meet the contingent expenses of the current year.

Whereas the collections paid by the Presbyteries to the Treasurer, are insufficient to meet the incidental expenses of the Assembly; and whereas the Assembly now owe for money already borrowed for this object, near $4000; and the Assembly are under the necessity of borrowing a further sum this year, therefore,

Resolved, That it be again earnestly enjoined upon the Presbyteries to attend to the resolutions of the General Assembly of 1830, found in page 31, of the printed Minutes of that year: and be careful to see that their congregations make the collection there recommended.

The report of the Committee on the Records of the Synod of Cincinnati, which was laid on the table, was taken up, and the records were approved, except a minute on page 9, respecting the division of the Presbytery of Cincinnati, which neglects to mention the names of the Ministers who were to compose the new Presbytery.

Overture No. 13, viz. "On publishing a new edition of the Book of Discipline and Form of Government," was taken up, and referred to the next General Assembly.

The reports of the majority and minority of the committee to whom was referred that part of the report of the committee on the reference from the Synod of Philadelphia in relation to the right of Presbyteries to examine candidates and Ministers coming from other Presbyteries, before they be received, was taken up; and the whole subject was indefinitely postponed.

The appeal of Dr. James Snodgrass against a decision of the Synod of Pittsburg, was called up, and the appeal was dismissed, on the ground that the appellant has not appeared either in person, or by proxy, to prosecute said appeal.

The Assembly, however, give to Dr. Snodgrass the privilege of prosecuting his appeal before the next General Assembly, if he can then show sufficient cause for its further prosecution.

The Committee of Overtures reported Overture No. 18, viz: On the subject of the books, records, and papers, of the late General Synod of the Associate Reformed Church. This Overture was put upon the docket.

The committee appointed to draft a letter to the Synod of Ulster, reported a letter, which was adopted, and ordered to be signed by the Moderator and Clerk, and transmitted by the Stated Clerk to the Synod of Ulster.

Ordered, that the letter from the Synod of Ulster, and the answer to the said letter, be printed in the Appendix to the Minutes.

Overture No. 18, was taken up, and the following resolution was adopted, viz:

Resolved, That the books, records, and other papers, late the property of the General Synod of the Associate Reformed Church, which were left in the charge of the Session of the Eighth Presbyterian Church in Philadelphia, subject to the order of the General Assembly, be committed for preservation to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly; who is hereby authorized to ask for and take charge of the same, wherever they may now be found.

The Rev. R. R. Gurley, General Agent of the American Colonization Society, by permission, addressed the Assembly.

Adjourned till this afternoon, at half past 3 o'clock.

Concluded with prayer.

Half past 3 o'clock, P. M. The Assembly met, and united in prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read.

The committee appointed to draft a Pastoral Letter to the Ministers and Churches under the care of the Assembly, relative to the state of religion in our Church at the present time, reported the draft of a letter, which was read and adopted, and ordered to be signed by the Moderator, and printed under the direction of the Stated Clerk, and sent to the churches.

The following accounts were presented, viz:

To Janitor of the Seventh Church, for services, &c. - -	43 13
	$102 51

The Permanent Clerk was directed to settle the above accounts amounting to $102 51, by a draft on the Treasurer of the Trustees of the General Assembly; for the payment of which, the Trustees are hereby directed to issue their warrant.

The Assembly having completed its business, the roll was called, agreeably to a standing rule, when it appeared that the following members were absent without leave, viz: Dr. Williams, Mr. Moses Hunter, Mr. Stanley,

Mr. A. M'Cready, Mr. Thomas Anderson, Mr. J. M'Combs, Mr. Henry, and Mr. James Paxton.

APPENDIX.

NARRATIVE OF THE STATE OF RELIGION

Within the bounds of the Presbyterian Church, in the United States of America and Corresponding Churches. May, 1832.

In reviewing the events of the past year, as detailed in the reports of the Presbyteries, we cannot fail to notice manifest interpositions of divine mercy. At the rising of the last Assembly, painful apprehensions were felt, by those who love our Zion, that times of darkness and trial were approaching. The political contentions which agitated the public mind, and the lamented controversies among ourselves seemed to present formidable barriers against the progress of the Redeemer's cause. A dark cloud obscured the future, and we could not but justly fear the frowns of divine displeasure. An unhallowed spirit of party, so far destroyed the harmony and Christian affection, among some of our members, as to excite exultation in the ranks of the enemies of the Gospel, and to clothe our church in mourning.

But amid the darkness caused by these discouragements, when confidence in man had failed, and we hardly dared to hope for help from God; the Lord himself has appeared to build up Zion, in troublous times: He has stretched out his own right arm, to accomplish the purposes of his mercy, and the mountains have flowed down at his presence. So signal have been the displays of unmerited mercy, that this year, which began in gloom and discouragement, has been gloriously distinguished, by the manifested presence of the Holy Spirit, and the signal triumphs of the Gospel. In the midst of deserved wrath, God has remembered mercy. Instead of inflicting upon us those spiritual judgments, which our criminal ingratitude and abuse of mercy deserved, the Great Head of the Church has displayed the riches of his grace, in order that his overpowering goodness may lead us to repentance.

And it seems a remarkable circumstance, designed to bring our whole church in the dust before God, and to banish forever the baleful spirit of sectional jealousy from our councils, that the showers of blessing have descended upon all portions of our wide extended bounds, and crowned the labours of our ministry generally, with precious tokens of divine approbation.

It is thus worthy of special commemoration, that while our prospects at the beginning of the past year were darkened by uncommon discouragements; while the obstacles, to the progress of a work of grace, were never more formidable; and while our sins, seemed to call for the visitations of wrath; we are called upon to record more of the loving kindness of the Lord towards our churches generally, and more of the triumphs of grace over the powers of sin, than in any other year of our history.

In giving to our churches a brief narrative of the progress of religion within our bounds, since the last meeting of the Assembly, it is rendered less important to enter into particular details, by the fact, that most of this information has already been diffused, through the numerous channels, by which religious intelligence is so generally disseminated. All that can be expected, from this body, is a condensed view of the general results of the blessed revivals, which so many of the churches have enjoyed.

It is our delightful privilege to report, that sixty-eight Presbyteries have been blessed with the special influences of the Holy Spirit, reviving the churches, and bringing perishing sinners to the saving knowledge of the truth. In these highly favoured Presbyteries, about seven hundred congregations are reported as having been thus visited in rich mercy. In many of these places, thus refreshed by the showers of divine grace, the displays of the power of the Gospel have been glorious, almost beyond example. Several Presbyteries have had their whole territory pervaded by a heavenly influence, and every congregation has become a harvest-field for the ingathering of souls, to the fold of the good Shepherd. The following list includes those Presbyteries, which have been distinguished by a mighty prevalence of the work of God, viz.

Londonderry,	Chenango,	Elizabethtown,
Champlain,	Delaware,	District of Columbia.
Troy,	Cayuga,	Ontario,
Albany,	Geneva,	Chillicothe,
Columbia,	Buffalo,	West Hanover,
Watertown,	Detroit,	Lexington,
Oswego,	Hudson,	Niagara,
Oneida,	North River,	Hopewell,
Otsego,	Newark,	Georgia.
Cortland,

These bodies send us the animating message, that all or nearly all their churches have enjoyed a precious season of revival. "Never," says the report from West Hanover, "have we had the privilege of recording so many signal triumphs of Almighty grace." "The angel having the everlasting Gospel in his hand, has passed through our borders, and has brought salvation to almost every house." "So powerful and extensive has been the divine influence among us, that one district is known, where not one adult could be found, unconcerned, upon the subject of religion." "On some occasions, a whole congregation, without one exception, have been prostrate before God, anxiously inquiring for salvation." "Eighteen of our congregations have been revived, and in one of them 300 hopeful conversions have taken place." "Every church within our bounds," says the report from Niagara, "has shared in the ascension gift, the outpouring of the Holy Spirit."

The following Presbyteries report a very interesting work of grace, within their respective bounds, extending however only to a part of their congregations.

Tioga,	Philadelphia,	St. Charles,
Bath,	Newcastle,	Ebenezer,
Bedford,	Carlisle,	Charleston Union,
New York,	Huntingdon,	Shiloh,
New York, 3d,	Erie,	Muhlenburg,
Long Island,	Cleaveland,	Winchester,
Onondaga,	Cincinnati,	Orange,
Huron,	Athens,	North Alabama,
Portage,	Miami,	Louisville,
Grand river,	Oxford,	Concord,
Ohio,	Madison,	Tombigbee,
Steubenville,	St. Louis,	Union,
Newton,	Trumbull,	South Alabama.
Susquehanna,

Thus the voice of praise and thanksgiving is heard from our most distant borders. An harmonious testimony comes from the north and the south, the east and the west, proclaiming that the past has been a year of the right hand of the Most High.

In the details of these numerous revivals, we cannot fail to notice some circumstances, which distinguish the present age, and manifestly deserve particular attention. One of these is the general extension of this work of grace. Formerly, it was a prevalent opinion, that some places and some communities were so entirely occupied and strongly fortified by the enemy, that no rational hopes could be cherished, that they would ever rejoice in the presence and power of the Holy Spirit. So that in reference to the existence of a work of grace in such localities, we have been ready to say if the Lord would make windows in Heaven, might such a thing be! But these conclusions of unbelief have been put to shame, by the easy conquests which divine love has recently achieved, in the very strong holds of proud infidelity, over the congregated forces of the world, the flesh, and the devil. Some sterile regions, where scarcely a plant of righteousness was ever seen, have become like the garden of the Lord. And in some communities, heretofore distinguished by the triumphant dominion of worldliness and impiety, the transformation, produced by the influence of the gospel, is so great, as to force all men to exclaim, "What hath God wrought!"

It is another distinguishing characteristic of the recent revivals, that so many of the subjects of renewing grace have been found in those classes of society, in which instances of conversion have usually been of very rare occurrence. We have been accustomed to consider men of wealth and political eminence, whose characters were already formed under an unholy influence, as far removed from all probability of conversion, and almost beyond the reach of the means of grace. But we have lately been most impressively taught, not thus to limit the Holy One of Israel. In many places, the most numerous instances of conversion have been found, among the most active and influential members of society. And in several instances, the leading persons in the community, consisting of professional men, men of wealth, talents, and high political standing, have been subdued to the obedience of faith, and led willingly to renounce forever all glory, excepting that which is found in the cross of Christ.

One more distinctive trait in the work of grace, with which our churches have been so extensively blessed, is found in the resistless energy which has accompanied it. Several of our reports recount such triumphs of grace, over all opposition, as have rarely been witnessed. So overpowering have been the manifestations of the divine presence, in some places, that hardly a single adult, in a whole community, remained unaffected. Large congregations have been brought by the mighty power of God, anxiously to inquire with one united voice, what must we do to be saved? Often, and in places far distant from each other, has the thrilling spectacle been presented, before angels and men, of the wealthy and the learned, the eminent and high-minded, falling prostrate at the footstool of mercy and prayer. The barriers of pride, the fortresses of false religion, and the strong holds of infidelity and licentiousness, have been utterly demolished, by the manifested presence of the Holy One. Bitter party contentions have been forgotten, and deadly foes have come hand in hand, bathed in tears of contrition, to the Saviour's feet.

We cannot omit to mention the extraordinary extension of this gracious influence. From the shores of the northern lakes, to the plains of Florida; from the Atlantic border, to the banks of Missouri, we hear one united testimony, that the Lord hath appeared to build up Zion. In the crowded city, and the forest wild—in the halls of legislation, and the cottages of the poor—in the circles of refined elegance, and the cabins of servitude—among men of letters, and savages of the forest, there has been one pervading influence, one indiscriminate transformation of character. They do all speak in our own language the wonderful works of God.

It is a very interesting and gratifying circumstance, that the same reports, which announce these revivals, so wholly unexampled in number and extent, generally contain direct testimony as to the means which have been blessed to their production and promotion. From these authentic sources, the Assembly has collected some valuable information upon a subject so vitally important; and commends it to the special attention of all the churches. In examining the narratives, which the most highly favoured Presbyterics have given, of the gracious operations of the Spirit of God, within their bounds; there is the clearest evidence, that the blessings bestowed, have been in proportion to the appropriate means employed. A spirit of fervent prayer, deep humiliation, and active effort in the churches, and a course of devoted, persevering, and judicious labours, on the part of the ministry, uniformly preceded the displays of pardoning mercy.

And in these spiritual harvests the amount of good actually accomplished, has appeared to depend upon the diligence and fidelity, with which the field has been cultivated: insomuch that in several cases, the reports distinctly state, that the work of grace extended to every place where an active and faithful ministry was enjoyed. The heart-searching appeal, which this statement addresses to all our members and ministers, needs no argument to enforce it.

Upon another subject of deep interest, there is a general, unbroken testimony from all parts of the church, which have been blessed with a refreshing from the presence of the Lord. We refer to the rich and precious blessings which have attended the numerous protracted meetings which have been held throughout our borders. Whatever honest difference of opinion there may have been, as to the utility of such convocations; whatever fears may have been cherished as to their tendency, the question now seems decided, that the Lord has signally owned and abundantly blessed them, and that the seal of divine approbation is visibly and indelibly fixed upon them. From all portions of the church we hear the language of praise, for the great things God has done by means of protracted meetings, and of the glorious displays of converting grace which have rendered them eminently seasons of mercy.

Among the means which the Lord has graciously owned and blessed during this year of jubilee, many of your reports specially commemorate the influence of temperance societies. It is now a well established fact, that the common use of strong drink, however moderate, has been a fatal, soul-destroying barrier against the influence of the gospel. Consequently, wherever total abstinence is practis a powerful instrument of resisting the Holy Spirit is removed, and a new avenue of access to the hearts of men opened to the power of truth. Thus, in numerous instances, and in various places, during the past year, the temperance reformation has been a harbinger, preparing the way of the Lord; and the banishment of that liquid poison, which kills both soul and body, has made way for the immediate entrance of the Spirit and the word, the glorious train of the Redeemer.

Signally efficacious also in promoting this glorious work of grace, have been those institutions which afford religious instruction to the young—which convey the messages of salvation to children, before they are steeled against them by pride and prejudice—which apply the balm to their diseased hearts before the malady becomes inveterate, and which present the overtures of a Saviour's love to those who are on the threshold of life, and not yet fully enlisted under the banners of satan. The discovery seems to have been reserved to bless this age of the world, that the fairest and most promising field of religious effort, is afforded by early childhood—that it is not wise to wait until the enemy is entrenched and fortified, before the attempt is made to dislodge him—and that there is a method of preaching the Gospel, most effectually, to a whole generation of children. Sunday schools and Bible classes accomplish this most benevolent object. And the history of the Holy Spirit's operations during the past year, in blessing so many hundreds of our churches, and calling so many thousands of sinners to repentance affords a full and cheering testimony upon this subject. Sunday schools have proved the nurseries of revivals; their teachers have been found efficient, devoted labourers in gathering souls to Christ; and their pupils have come in lovely bands at the Gospel call, clustered round the cross, given up their young hearts to God, and sung hosannah to the Son of David: blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

We notice only one thing more in the reports of revivals, and that is the mighty power with which the simple truths of the Gospel have been attended. We have been too prone to believe, that the champions of infidelity were only to be encountered by subtle and skilful argumentation—that the pride of unsanctified intellect was only to be humbled by triumphant reasoning; and that the fortresses of high-minded impenitence were only to be successfully assailed, by the combined forces of learning and eloquence. But the experience of the past year has made us wiser. We have had a practical comment upon that inspired declaration—not by might nor power, but by my Spirit, saith the Lord.

While the high places of satan's kingdom have been invaded by the power of the gospel, while many of the conquests of redeeming mercy have been achieved among those who were considered beyond the reach of any gracious influence, while a mighty host of men, high-minded, talented men, have laid their honours down at the Saviour's feet; these wonderful events are not to be ascribed to any new energy of human means. No prophet has arisen clothed with miraculous powers, to overwhelm opposers with resistless demonstration; no new messages from heaven have furnished with mightier weapons the soldiers of the cross. On the contrary, the word has been preached with greater plainness and simplicity than ever. And the solemn inculcation of the doctrines of the cross, and earnest, urgent appeals to the understandings and consciences of men, have been the means, rendered mighty through God to the pulling down streng holds, and subduing proud hearts to the obedience of faith.

Who can estimate the precious influence which must be exerted by these 700 renovated churches, upon the whole population of our country—upon present and future generations? What energy of moral power is thus imparted to the cause of truth. How many fountains of salvation are thus opened to gladden the dry and thirsty land. The fruits of this astonishing work of grace are valuable to the church and the world, beyond all human computation. In numerous communities, the predominating influence is now consecrated to the cause of God. How many mothers have been prepared by grace, to train up their children for the kingdom of heaven. And what a noble army of young men has renounced the honours of the world, and devoted themselves to the cause of the Redeemer. Never, until the destinies of eternity are unfolded, can be known the full amount of blessings bestowed in these dispensations of mercy. Verily the Lord hath done great things for us, let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

Every minister and member in our communion should be encouraged and animated, by such rich experience of Divine goodness, to more entire devotedness, and untiring diligence, in the Master's cause. The most affecting motives are presented, to lay aside all distinctions of party, and let the only strife be who shall be most humble, devoted, and self-denying.

The past year has been distinguished, by the flourishing condition and evident progress of our benevolent institutions. That noble enterprise, which is conveying the waters of life to every family in the land, continues to be prosecuted with undiminished zeal and encouraging success. Several whole states, and large portions of other states are reported as fully supplied with the word of life; and the friends of this blessed cause are pressing forward, towards the accomplishment of their great purpose, to put a Bible in every human habitation where it will be received.

The American Tract Society is successfully engaged in extending its operations, and the Divine blessing evidently rests upon them. Its numerous branches and agencies are fountains of spiritual health and life, opened in every portion of the land. They send their precious messages of grace, to persons and places inaccessible to the living heralds of salvation; and thus extensively employ an instrumentality, which the Holy Spirit often uses in rousing slumbering consciences, and subduing rebellious hearts. The monthly distribution, wherever it has been enjoyed, has proved a powerful auxiliary in diffusing the influence of vital godliness, and has been attended with decided tokens of divine approbation.

The system of Sunday-school and Bible-class instruction has been more extensively adopted, and followed with richer blessings to the church, than in any former year. In most of the congregations in our connexion, these nurseries of early piety are established, and have been generally honoured by the special smiles of the great Head of the church. In almost every report which brings the glad tidings of the visitations of the Holy Spirit, there is a cordial testimony to the efficient aid of this instrumentality. Indeed it would seem, in very many instances, that the prosperity of Zion, and the ingathering of souls to Christ, have been proportionate to the wise and faithful labours which have been employed, in this department of Christian exertion.

The American Sunday School Union, is still extending the sphere of its vast operations, and prosecuting the noble design of planting these seminaries of Christian instruction co-extensively with our country's population. Superior to all sectarian distinction, that excellent society pursues the single grand object, of giving the knowledge of the Bible to the children of our land; and the wide extended fields of its labours, on either side of the Alleghany, are becoming fruitful as the garden of the Lord. Such a plan of benevolence, sustained by seventy thousand teachers who are engaged in leading nearly six hundred thousand young immortals, to the saving knowledge of the Redeemer, cannot be contemplated by Christians, without emotions of wonder and gratitude. Surely it is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes.

The cause of temperance continues to extend and multiply its triumphs notwithstanding the machinations of satan, and the madness of the multitudes, who are striving to demolish the only barrier which can secure them from destruction. The testimony of our churches, as to the signal success, which has crowned the efforts of the friends of this cause, the astonishing effect which has thus been produced upon public sentiment, and upon the habits and customs of the higher classes, and especially as to the unquestionable connexion between total abstinence from ardent spirits, and the success of the Gospel, is of the most decided and gratifying character. The formation of a temperance Association in each congregation, has taken place extensively, with the happiest results. While, therefore, in view of these things, the friends of temperance are called upon to thank God and take courage; let them remember that much, very much, remains to be done. Let them not remit their vigilance and activity, for their foes never slumber. All the powers and resources of the kingdom of darkness are vigorously employed in opposition. Much indeed has been done, in staying this plague, among the more intelligent and elevated orders of society, but all the energies of Christian benevolence are demanded, to stem the torrent which is spreading misery, and guilt, and ruin, through the dwellings of labour and poverty. A great work is still to be effected in the church. The sons of Levi must be purified. The accursed thing must be removed from the camp of the Lord. While professing Christians continue to exhibit the baleful example, of tasting the drunkard's poison; or, by a sacrilegious traffic, to make it their employment, to degrade and destroy their fellow-men; those who love the Lord must not keep silence; but must lift their warning voice, and use all lawful efforts, to remove this withering reproach from the house of God. Let all our congregations become efficient Temperance Associations, let all our ministers and elders be united, consistent and persevering in this cause, and we may derive from experience a full persuasion, that the ravages of the direful foe will be arrested; that the rising race will be rescued from his deadly grasp, and thus a most formidable obstacle, to the success of the Gospel, will at last be removed.

The records of the past year afford cheering evidence of the steady progress, and extended influence of Christian Missions. The host of the Lord, enlisted under these banners, has received a great increase in strength and numbers. Every revival forms a centre of missionary influence; and every renewed heart glows with ardent desire for the spread of the gospel. To the precious cause, much of talents influence and property has been recently consecrated. Churches which have been blessed by the effusions of the Spirit, are usually liberal, in furnishing the means of sending the treasures of salvation to the destitute and the perishing. Your reports furnish examples of this sort worthy of particular notice. Two of the churches, which have lately enjoyed a season of revival, have contributed, one six thousand dollars, and the other four thousand, exclusively to the missionary cause. The subject of foreign missions excites a much deeper interest than formerly. Students in theology are directing their views anxiously towards this field of labour; and a number of young men of high promise, have recently devoted themselves to carry the Gospel to distant heathen lands.

The American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, continues to enjoy the favour of the great Head of the Church, in the increasing success and extent of their vast operations. It must afford a lively joy to every pious heart to reflect, that every quarter of the globe receives spiritual blessings, through this noble institution of our own land, which is connected with our own church, and which seems destined to exert a very important influence in producing the final triumph of the cross, and in causing the kingdoms of this world to become the kingdoms of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ.

The Assembly would hail with pleasure the appearance of a deeper interest in the subject of Foreign Missions, recently manifested in the churches of the West by the establishment of a Western Foreign Missionary Society. We would that all our churches might have a strong sense of their obligation to send the Gospel "to every creature," and afford fairer evidence of the sincerity of their daily prayer, "thy kingdom come."

The Assembly's Board of Missions reports a gratifying amount of labour and success. The whole number of missionaries employed during the past year is 256. The ministerial labour performed is equal to 154 years. The congregations and stations supplied, are about 400. The missionaries, employed by that Board, have reported about 600 Sabbath schools, and 300 catechetical and Bible classes. All the benevolent institutions of the day are attended to by the missionaries. The number of temperance societies, either formed or promoted by them, is estimated at 350, containing 15,000 members. In nearly 50 of the congregations, supplied by the Board, "times of refreshing from the presence of the Lord" have been experienced; and more than 1000 have been added to them. The additions to all the churches, sustained by the Board, is estimated at 2000.

The American Home Missionary Society has conducted its operations with increasing efficiency and success. Its missionaries, during the last year, have been 509, who have been employed in 745 congregations and missionary districts, in the United States and Upper Canada; and 177 of this number have had their fields of labour, west of the Allegheny mountains. These missionaries have reported 361 years of ministerial labour performed. Sabbath schools, Bible classes, temperance societies, and other benevolent efforts sustained and blessed in the congregations aided; 187 special revivals of religion, 9,257 hopeful conversions, of whom 6,033 have been added to the churches on profession of their faith, and 1,356 by letter, making in all, 7,389 reported as added to the churches under their ministry during the last year; and the labours of the missionaries, in every respect, have been more signally blessed, than in any previous year.

The Board of Education of the General Assembly has, during the last year, through the divine blessing, been prospered to an unusual degree; and its prospects of extensive usefulness, in training the sons of the church for the work of the ministry, are of the most auspicious kind. This is a cause so important in its character, and so very urgent in its claims upon the patronage and prayers of all God's people, that we feel called on to recommend it to their special attention and regard. It has pleased God to suspend the conversion of the world, upon the preaching of the gospel. The raising up, therefore, of a sufficient number of holy, faithful, and devoted men, to supply the wants of our country, and of the world, lies at the very foundation of Christian missions.

The Board have under their care at this time, 267 youth, in various stages of preparation for the work of the ministry, in fifteen states of our nation; and have made arrangements for carrying forward their agency, during the coming year, in every part of the Presbyterian Church.

The American Education Society, in connexion with the Presbyterian Education Society, which is a co-ordinate body, has now under its patronage 673 beneficiaries, having received 226 during the year. It has expended the last year $41,362 56. From former beneficiaries there has been refunded during the year, the sum of $1,312. The young men under patronage have earned, by their industry, the gross sum of $15,568. Fifty-six, in seven theological seminaries, have earned on an average $58 each. About 60 of the beneficiaries will this year complete their course of study, and receive license to preach the gospel; 10 of whom are expecting to devote themselves to foreign missions. And it is expected that the coming year will witness a great enlargement of the operations of this institution.

This good work has received a new impulse, during the past year, resulting from the many precious revivals, which have been enjoyed. The direct effect of these has been, not only to excite zeal and liberality in the cause of raising up faithful ministers, but also to furnish young men from among the subjects of renewing grace, prepared to devote themselves to the labours of the ministry. In one Presbytery, there are eighty young men of this description, who have already commenced a course of preparation for the sacred office. From the whole church, therefore, there will come a great company of the sons of the prophets, willing to become labourers in the vineyard of the Lord. Many of these must be supported by the charities of the pious, during their preparatory studies. And every man of wealth in our connexion, who has felt the power of a Saviour's love, would do well to support one student through his course of education. And it is anxiously hoped, that young men thus assisted, will complete a thorough course of study, and not hasten into the ministry with a meagre, scanty preparation; and that, when their studies are completed, they will not linger round the great cities, but will feel sacredly bound, to go far away among the destitute, to make full proof of their ministry, and thus save the church from reproach, and their patrons from distressing fears, that they have laboured in vain and spent their money for that which is not bread.

In connexion with this subject, it is a privilege to be able to state, that several colleges have shared in the revivals which have blessed so many of our churches; and that a goodly number of the students are thus prepared by grace to devote themselves to the Lord. The Theological Seminaries, under the care of the Assembly, are in a prosperous, flourishing state. A missionary spirit prevails extensively, in those schools of the prophets, and the number is increasing, of those who are preparing to be messengers of salvation to pagan nations. Thus from these fountains, there issue annual streams, which not only gladden the city of God; but also refresh the barren wastes, and cause the desert to rejoice and blossom as the rose. It affords much satisfaction to the Assembly to be informed that the seminary established by the Synod of South Carolina and Georgia, located in Columbia, is now in successful operation; having two professors and sixteen students; and promises much good to that section of the church, where from peculiar circumstances, such an institution is so vitally important.

The American Seamen's Friend Society, is actually engaged in promoting the spiritual welfare of those who go down to the sea in ships, and do business in the great waters. The blessed effects of such benevolent labours are manifest in all our sea ports; and in almost every vessel that sails from our shores. In every city, sailors now feel that they have a church, and a minister of their own; and that there are some, who care for their souls. The measures which have recently been adopted, to send missionaries to seamen in foreign ports, promise to exert an auspicious influence upon the religious state of the world.

The American Colonization Society pursues its noble enterprise with increasing success. To collect the children of a degraded wretched race, as the free people of colour certainly are, and to transport and plant them as a Christian people on the shores of Africa, is surely a design of such unmingled mercy, that every good man must hope and pray for its accomplishment.

From the General Association of Connecticut, we learn, with no ordinary emotions of pleasure, that so powerful and extensive have been the revivals, in the State, during the past year, that almost all the churches have enjoyed these blessings. Those gathered into the visible fold of Christ in this great harvest, are vastly more numerous and more valuable as to character and influence, than in any former year. The happy effects of this mighty work of grace are not confined to its immediate subjects; but are gloriously manifest in the elevation of Christian character, in the moral state of the community at large, and in the flourishing condition of all benevolent institutions. Yale College has been greatly favoured of the Lord; and one hundred and ninety of its students are now the professed followers of the Lamb.

From the General Association of Massachusetts, we rejoice to hear similar glad tidings. More than two hundred churches, in connexion with that body, have enjoyed special effusions of the Holy Spirit, and more than six thousand souls have professedly passed from death to life. Protracted meetings have been generally adopted and greatly blessed; and the temperance reformation has afforded efficient aid, in promoting the work of God.

From the General Convention of Vermont, the General Association of New Hampshire, the General Conference of Maine, and the Evangelical Consociation of Rhode Island, we receive reports, that the state of religion generally is decidedly and increasingly favourable. Many of the churches, in connexion with those bodies respectively, have enjoyed refreshings from the presence of the Lord. Benevolent institutions are generally prosperous; temperance is spreading its triumphs; the standard of morals is rendered more pure and elevated; and literary institutions are becoming more and more the nurseries of piety, and efficient auxiliaries in building up Zion.

Thus these ecclesiastical bodies unite with the Assembly, in a grateful acknowledgment of the unequalled blessings, which the Head of the Church has graciously bestowed upon this highly favoured nation. He hath not dealt so with any people. Bless the Lord, O our souls, and all that is within us, bless his holy name.

But while we remember the days of the right hand of the Most High, it becomes us to be duly affected by the bereavements with which our churches have been visited, in the removal by death of many of our beloved brethren. While we affectionately cherish their memory, let us be admonished by their departure that the time is short. Let us therefore work while it is day, for the night cometh when no man can work.

Finally, in view of all these interesting events, and all the encouragements, dangers, and responsibilities, resulting from the present state and prospects of the Presbyterian Church; the General Assembly would affectionately say to all the ministers, elders, and members in our connexion:

Therefore, beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord; forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

By order of the General Assembly,

EZRA STILES ELY, Stated Clerk.

May 31st, 1832.

PASTORAL LETTER.

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, to the Ministers and Churches under their care:

DEARLY BELOVED BRETHREN:

You will perceive by the narrative of the state of religion which we this year publish, that the God of all grace has been pleased, during the last year, to pour out more copiously of his blessed Spirit on the people of our denomination in this land, than perhaps in any period of equal extent, in former times. For this signal and ineffable benefit, we desire that you may unite with us in ascribing humble and fervent thanksgivings to Him from whom we have received this transcendent mercy, and "from whom cometh down every good and every perfect gift."

And suffer us to remind you, dear brethren, that one of the best and most acceptable expressions of gratitude to God for the unspeakable favour we have received, is, to be exceedingly careful not to abuse it. It is of more importance than we know how to express, that we should, together with much prayer for direction and aid from on high, use all our influence and put forth our best efforts, to preserve the glorious revivals of religion with which we have been blessed, from all that may mar their beauty and prevent their extension; and where any thing of an injurious tendency has already taken place, that we should labour to correct the evil as speedily as possible.

Let it not be supposed, however, that we would willingly say any thing that might encourage or countenance those who condemn all revivals of religion—condemn them because they may be attended by some errors and irregularities, which, it is readily admitted, ought to be deplored and avoided. Far, very far, be this from us. Those who cherish an aversion to revivals of religion, because they are accompanied by imperfections and are liable to abuse, should recollect that there is nothing with which the human powers and passions have to do, whatever be its general excellence, that is not open to the same objection. In revivals of religion in which there are confessedly some things to be lamented—as there was in the abuse of the miraculous gift of tongues in the primitive church of Corinth—there may still be numerous and sound conversions of sinners unto God: and "what is the chaff to the wheat, saith the Lord?" There remain in our land, and in our beloved church, many congregations, in which formality and a Laodicean spirit are mournfully prevalent. Little reason have they to felicitate themselves, that they are free from all the extravagancies which they censure in others, and which it is not denied do exist in certain places, and to a limited extent. Let them rather remember, that a congregation in which many souls are born into the kingdom of God, although some false pretensions to piety and some censurable practices appear, is on the whole, in a state infinitely preferable to that of a congregation in which hundreds are going quietly down to eternal perdition, and in which the wise virgins are slumbering and sleeping with the foolish. Let congregations of this latter description be exhorted to rouse themselves from their spiritual lethargy, make use of the means and efforts which God is wont to bless, and cry mightily to him, that they may partake in those gracious visitations with which others are so remarkably blessed and distinguished—partake of them, purified from all that is justly offensive either to God or man.

Having thus endeavoured to guard against a misconstruction of our purpose, we desire, with parental solicitude and affection, to caution and warn the ministers and churches of our communion, against some of the most common errors and improprieties, to which revivals of religion are exposed, and from which, we grieve to say, some of the congregations within our bounds cannot plead an entire exemption.

1. In a time of the revival of religion let it be remembered, that while all proper means are to be used to deepen and cherish serious impressions, and to awaken and alarm the sinfully secure, an undue excitement should be carefully avoided. Here is the fruitful source to which may be traced nearly all the abuses which so often mar, and deform, and bring into disrepute, the work of God, when sinners are awakened in clusters, and led to inquire with great anxiety what they must do to be saved. If, instead of distinguishing between deep, and genuine, and salutary convictions of sin, and the mere effusions of animal passions and nervous sensibility, the latter are encouraged and stimulated, as leading to a desirable issue, the most baneful effects are likely to ensue—effects, multiform in appearance and character, but in all, deplorable and pernicious. Therefore,

2. We advise, that with tenderness, but yet with unshaken firmness, all bodily agitations and noisy outcries, especially in worshipping assemblies, be discouraged, and as far as possible prevented. Inculcate the truth that every appearance of this description is a weakness, or an error, which, so far from promising any thing beneficial, is likely to lead to the most disastrous results—so far from deserving to be cherished and applauded, is to be discountenanced and deprecated, and as speedily as may consist with Christian kindness and forbearance, entirely suppressed.

3. Guard against every species of indecorum in social worship—such, particularly, as is manifestly apparent, when several individuals pray, or exhort, or converse, at the same time. This is an irregularity pointedly rebuked and forbidden by the apostle Paul, in the xiv. chapter of his first epistle to the Corinthians; and his summary and repeated injunction is, "Let all things be done to edifying—Let all things be done decently and in order." But besides the particular irregularity specified, we would dissuade our brethren in the ministry and the eldership of our churches, from introducing or countenancing any practice in their public religious assemblies which savours of ostentation, or which may have a tendency to ulterior evils, that they would themselves deprecate and seek to avoid. We designedly leave this as a general but important monition: the application of which to particular instances or cases, our brethren must judge of for themselves.

4. There may be, in a revival of religion, an excess of social meetings and exercises. That such meetings should be frequent in the time of a revival, we not only admit but recommend. Yet it ought not to be forgotten, that they may be carried to a hurtful extreme; and such an extreme they certainly reach, when they encroach, to any considerable extent, on the ordinary duties of life; or when they leave very little time to the thoughtful and inquiring for private meditation, self-reflection and examination, secret prayer, reading the Holy Scriptures, and other books of instruction, direction, and serious exhortation, which, as they have opportunity, they ought to peruse.

5. Meetings of pious women by themselves, for conversation and prayer, whenever they can conveniently be held, we entirely approve. But let not the inspired prohibitions of the great apostle of the Gentiles, as found in his epistles to the Corinthians and to Timothy, be violated. To teach and exhort, or to lead in prayer, in public and promiscuous assemblies, is clearly forbidden to women in the Holy Oracles.

6. Let not the settled order of churches be disturbed. Let official elders be respected, and in the absence of pastors or other authorized ministers of the gospel, let the elders, or deacons, or other Christians of standing and experience, rather than young converts, take the lead in the social exercises of religion.

7. Listen to no self-sent or irregular preachers, whatever may be their pretensions to knowledge, piety, and zeal.

8. Let no doctrine, inconsistent with the sacred scriptures as explained and summarily taught in the doctrinal standards of our church, be promulged and favoured in any of our churches. That the word of God contained in the Old and New Testaments, is the only infallible rule of faith and practice, is a sacred principle which we steadfastly maintain. But when almost every description of persons who profess any regard to Christianity, are ready to declare their adherence to the same principle, it becomes indispensable for Christians who would walk together in the peace, and order, and comfort of the gospel, to state in what manner they understand the great truths of Divine revelation. This has been done by our church, in our Confession of Faith and Catechisms; and he who teaches any doctrine plainly and palpably inconsistent with the evident meaning of these excellent formularies, should be regarded by Presbyterians as an errorist, whom they ought not to encourage, but to discountenance, reject, and avoid.

9. Let not apparent converts be hurried into the church, and brought to the table of the Lord, without a careful examination; nor, ordinarily, without a suitable period of probation, by which the reality of their religion may be better judged of than it can be by any sudden indications, however plausible.

Nothing is more directly calculated to injure ultimately the cause of God and the credit of our holy religion, than urging or permitting individuals to make a public profession of religion, as soon as they have experienced some serious impressions, and flatter themselves that they have been renewed in the temper of their minds. All experience shows that such persons often and speedily dishonour the profession, and not unfrequently become open apostates, and sometimes avowed infidels. We know and admit, that after all possible care which the churches can take, instances of deception will occur; for it is the prerogative of God only to search the heart. But to use all proper means to preserve the purity of the church, and save religion from reproach, is a sacred duty, incumbent on all church officers: and it is a duty which, when faithfully performed, will, to a great extent, secure its object—the church will rarely be disgraced by self-deceived hypocrites, and eventual apostates. As well might men pretend that no care should be taken to preserve their health, because disease cannot always and certainly be avoided, as that no care should be taken to preserve a sound state of the visible church, because its members and its ministers do in some instances, and in despite of all precaution, become profligates and a public scandal. Let the church do its duty, and leave the event to God.

10. Finally—let no measures for the promotion of religious revivals be adopted, which are not sanctioned by some example, or precept, or fair and sober inference, drawn from the word of God. This is a safe general rule, applicable to numerous particular cases, which we have neither time nor inclination to specify. Some variety of opinion will exist, and may lawfully and properly be indulged, in regard to the measures which are best calculated to produce revivals, and to conduct them, where they exist, to a happy result. But we earnestly counsel, that for every measure contemplated, a warrant be carefully and impartially sought in God's unerring word. If such a warrant can be fairly made out, let the measure be adopted; but otherwise, let it be promptly abandoned; for it must be remembered that the Bible contains not only a safe, but a complete rule of duty.

Thus, beloved brethren, we have raised our warning voice, to caution you against certain things, by which those displays of God's special grace which we denominate revivals of religion, may be clouded and counteracted; and the incalculable benefits which might otherwise be derived from them, may be finally and irretrievably lost. Let us receive instruction from past times—let us for a moment turn away our attention from all that is now passing in our country, to what was witnessed in the days of the celebrated evangelist Whitfield, and at a still later period, in the southwestern parts of our land.

In both these instances, there was certainly a most powerful and promising religious awakening; and for a time the happiest effects were experienced. Numerous conversions of a solid and lasting character took place and many and most desirable additions were made to the church of Christ. But through the subtility of Satan, and the inflamed and misguided passions of men, doctrines were at length taught and measures adopted—with a view, as it was loudly proclaimed, to promote and extend the revivals—which were speedily followed by the most disastrous consequences. The Holy Spirit was grieved away; excesses which shocked all sober minds succeeded; every form of fanaticism and religious error appeared; soon the passions, which had been raised to their highest tone, subsided into apathy, and carelessness in regard to all religion; a season of the most lamentable spiritual declension and deadness followed; infidels multiplied, and infidelity proclaimed its triumphs; revivals of religion were reproached and ridiculed, and a deep prejudice against them was excited and fostered, which, in some places and in many minds, has not yet been removed.

It is, dear brethren, to prevent the recurrence of such evils as these, that with great solicitude for your welfare, we entreat you to be on your guard. Think not that vigilance, caution, and prayer, in relation to the abuse of revivals, is superfluous. Hear, on this subject, the eminent and justly venerated President Edwards. He remarks, that in a time of revival, the chief exertions of the great adversary will be likely to be made with the friends and promoters of the work, to drive them into such excesses and extravagances as shall ruin its credit, and ultimately bring all religion into disgrace. And in this his success will be rendered the more probable, if he can first persuade such persons, that they are in no danger on that side. It was "while men slept," that the enemy came and "sowed tares:" not while they were in a state of indifference, but while they were not watching against his devices. It is not while men are in a state of indifference, that the false conversions, represented by the tares, are brought in; but while men are asleep in a far different sense—while their passions are in such a state of excitement as blinds their minds to the danger. Then the great deceiver can work to the best advantage, both in promoting false conversions, and in leading into dangerous extremes those who are zealous promoters of the work.

Such is the monitory language, of at once the most powerful defender of revivals of religion, and the ablest corrector of their abuses, which our country has ever seen. Let us hear and regard his voice, uttered as it is in concert with the voices of men the most distinguished for wisdom, piety, and prudence, from the period of the protestant reformation to the present hour. Doing thus, and looking earnestly to our covenant-keeping God to crown our endeavours with success, it is scarcely too much to hope, that revivals of religion will spread throughout our whole land; and that their heavenly influence and lustre will continue and increase, till they mingle with the noon-tide splendour of the millenial day.

OPINION

Of the Hon. Charles Ewing, Hon. Samuel L. Southard, and Rev. W. W. Phillips, D. D., a Committee of the Trustees of the Theological Seminary at Princeton, on the claims of the Associate Reformed Synod of New York, for the Mason Library, &c.

The Associate Reformed Synod of New York, presented a Memorial to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of the United States, in May, 1831, desiring the restoration of certain property, which they allege was unlawfully transferred to the Theological Seminary at Princeton. Upon consideration of this Memorial, and of a report of a committee, the General Assembly, "Resolved, that the memorial and the report be referred to the Trustees of the Theological Seminary at Princeton, for the purpose of investigating the claims of the memorialists, and if in the judgment of the said Trustees, the property in question belongs either in law or equity, to the Associate Reformed Synod of New York, the said Trustees be hereby advised by this Assembly, to deliver the property to the Synod aforesaid." This resolution and the documents mentioned in it, having been presented to the Board of Trustees of the Seminary at their meeting in September last, were referred by them to a committee to consider and report thereon.

The committee feel, and therefore express regret, that the subject of the memorial had not been definitively acted on by the General Assembly. With that body and before the organization of this Board, the arrangement was made whereby the property in question was placed in this Seminary. This Board are merely Trustees, with limited and subordinate powers. And whatever may be the legal exteut of those powers, this body, the committee presume, would justly feel deep, if not invincible repugnance, to dispose of any part of the property placed under their charge, without the assent, sanction, and authority, in explicit terms, of that judicatory which has the superintendence of the affairs of the church, and to whom this Board are bound regularly to make report of their acts and measures.

The committee, however, proceed to discharge the duty assigned to them, which, as will be seen by the resolution of the General Assembly, is to investigate the claims of the memorialists, and to ascertain whether the property in question belongs either in law or equity to the Associate Reformed Synod of New York.

This property was transferred by the General Synod of the Associate Reformed Church under the following, being the fourth article of union adopted by the General Assembly in 1821, and by the General Synod in 1822. "The Theological Library and funds belonging to the Associate Reformed Church shall be transferred, and shall belong to the Seminary at Princeton."

The memorialists insist, that "the transfer made by the General Synod, was contrary to the laws of the land, and vested no title to the property in the Theological Seminary;" and "that the Associate Reformed Church still retain the legal right to the property, and have the legal power to recover the same."

The property, they say, belonged to the Associate Reformed Church, and the General Synod were Trustees of it for that church, by common consent: "The fact being that the property in question belonged to the Associate Reformed Church, and the General Synod being only the Trustees, by common consent." Let us, then, in order to pursue the prescribed inquiry, assume these positions to be true. But in doing so, we wish to be distinctly understood, that we do not ad*mit or deny* their truth, nor is our assumption of them here to be, on any other occasion, used or argued as a recognition of their soundness. We assume them simply to conduct the inquiry on a basis which the memorialists will not gainsay, whatever may be the results to which it may justly lead.

The memorialists also insist, that the act of a majority of the General Synod in forming an union with the General Assembly, operated only on those members who thought proper to pass under the jurisdiction of the latter body; that the existence and identity of the Associate Reformed Church, its judicatories, and its constitution were not thereby invalidated or destroyed; and that such of its original members as did not change their allegiance, remained and constituted as before, the Associate Reformed Church. Let these positions also be assumed.

By the constitution of the Associate Reformed Church, its judicatories were a General Synod, particular Synods, and Presbyteries. The General Synod was formed in 1804.

Without entering into an inquiry, whether the General Synod was dissolved by the acts and resolutions of 1822, let us consider it, first, as not dissolved; and secondly, as dissolved; in order that both views may be followed out to their legitimate results.

If the General Synod was not dissolved, and is now a constitutionally existing body, and this Board or the General Assembly should become satisfied that the transfer was illegal and invalid, and that a restoration of the property ought to be made, it seems a very obvious and just conclusion that it should be replaced in the hands from which it was received; it should be restored to the General Synod itself, and not to any inferior judicatory, however large and respectable, or however great a proportion of the individual members of the church may be comprehended within its bounds. Justice to the different parts of that church, some of whom have urged, and all of whom may urge their claims to it, requires that it should be restored to the body representing the whole, and not a body avowedly representing but a part, and by part, here, is meant, a part of those who are of the faith of the Associate Reformed Church in the United States, and who as such have interposed claims to this property, and who not only belonged to that church, but were actually united together, when the property, or a considerable portion of it was acquired.

If the act of alienation was valid, and vested the legal title in the alienees, although it might be subject to the trust and for the benefit of the cestuique trusts, for whose use, by the way, it should be observed, it has always been open and applied, although not indeed exclusively, the cestuique trusts can have no right to have the legal title transferred to them, or to demand more than to have the full benefit and enjoyment of the property according to its appropriate uses and purposes.

If the alienation was invalid and void, because without authority in the alienors, then the property ought to be restored to the General Synod if now in existence. The latter conclusion seems irresistible, if the positions advanced by the memorialists are sound, and as already remarked, we have for the present, ex argumenti gratia, assumed them to be so. The transfer of the property conveyed no right or title to the Seminary. Nor did the mere change of possession, under such circumstances. Where, then, are the right and title? The answer must be, In the General Synod, if that body is now in existence. And it must, we presume, be in existence, if the act of the majority of the Synod in forming an union with the General Assembly operated only on those who passed under their jurisdiction, and if the existence and identity of the Associate Reformed Church were not thereby invalidated or destroyed. An illegal act of this nature, on the part of a majority of Trustees, where there is no charter of incorporation, and where no specific number of Trustees is required to hold or execute the trust, cannot destroy the rights or interest of the minor part of them, opposing the act, protesting against its adoption, and remaining faithful to their duty.

In the second place, let the supposition be made that the General Synod was dissolved, and has now no existence. Who may claim this property? Does it belong either in law or equity to the Associate Reformed Synod of New York?

The Synod of New York did not, we presume, on the dissolution, become the successor of the General Synod, and as such, invested with its powers, duties and titles to property. Such successorship or investiture, we think, can find no support in the constitution of that church. That particular Synod could not exercise the ecclesiastical jurisdiction of the General Synod. It could not, for example, exercise ecclesiastical jurisdiction over a presbytery or congregation not previously subordinate to it. The reason seems obvious and conclusive; the Synod of New York is, according to the constitution only an integral part of the Associate R formed Church, or perhaps, more correctly speaking, the representative of integral part. That Synod cannot, therefore, be entitled to the property in question in the character of successor to the General Synod.

Can the Synod claim, in the capacity of cestuique trusts, or as representing, in synodical assembly, those who are the cestuique trusts, and on the ground that as there is no Trustee, the General Synod being dissolved, the cestuique trusts, or their representatives, ought to have the possession of the property?

It is, we believe, a very clear proposition, that a portion only of beneficiaries, or in technical language, of cestuique trusts, cannot be entitled to the trust property. The extent of the inquiry prescribed to us, as already remarked, is, the claim of the memorialists, and the advice to deliver, contained in the resolution of the General Assembly is only, if, in the judgment of this Board, the property belongs to the Synod of New York. It cannot belong even in equity to that Synod, if others are jointly interested in it; if others are joint proprietors. Nor will the advice of the General Assembly give this Board authority to deliver up the property, if the Synod of New York is only jointly and not exclusively entitled.

From the documents submitted to us it appears, that of the Associate Reformed Church as it stood at the union in 1822, the Synod of New York, the Presbytery of Big Spring, and two congregations in the Presbytery of Philadelphia, did not coalesce with the General Assembly, but steadfastly adhered to their ancient constitution and frame of church government. These bodies are exclusive of the Synods of the West, and of Carolina, which had sometime before withdrawn from the jurisdiction of the General Synod. Of these bodies, the Presbytery of Big Spring, it is said, dissolved within a year after the union; but whether they united with some other religious judicatory or denomination, or whether they dissolved in such manner as to cease to belong to the Associate Reformed Church, or whether they still remain without having forfeited any of their rights, we do not find materials from which to gather an opinion. One congregation went into the Synod of the West; and, in the language of the memorial, "one remained unconnected with any ecclesiastical body." With respect to the first of these congregations, we should hesitate to say that they had forfeited any rights as members of the Associate Reformed Church, because the particular Synod to which they were attached being dissolved, they had, to obtain the benefit of that government and superintendence in spiritual affairs which a Synod was designed to afford, united with a regularly constituted Synod of precisely the same religious faith. But with respect to the latter congregation, we see nothing to impair or diminish their rights as a portion of the Associate Reformed Church. They remained to all intents and purposes a portion of that church, as effectually as the Synod of New York.

The position, then, taken by the memorialists, and on which their claim rests, that they are "what remains of the original Associate Reformed Church, and in all respects necessary to constitute her identity, the very same church, to which the property was given, and to the use of whose Seminary it was devoted," cannot, in our opinion, be correct.

The Synod of New York being, as appears to the committee from the documents submitted to us, but an integral part of the Associate Reformed Church, cannot be the owner, nor entitled to a transfer of the whole property. If the congregation above mentioned, had applied for such a transfer, the propriety of declining it, would, it is presumed, be very obvious. Yet, in principle, a transfer to another integral part, although more numerous and higher in ecclesiastical rank, cannot, it is believed, be more proper. The Board will observe, that the consideration of a division of the property is not referred to this body, by the resolve of the General Assembly, nor are there materials in the possession of the Board, whereby any apportionment could be made, if it were proper to do so, which, however, the committee, by this remark, do not intend in any wise to suggest, or to approve, or condemn.

The committee desire to be distinctly understood as expressing no opinion on the soundness of the general positions assumed by the Synod of New York, and mentioned herein as preliminaries to our investigations. We desire, also, to be understood, as giving no opinion on the validity or legality of the original transfer. The occasion, we think, does not call for such opinions; and we have neither the right nor the disposition to volunteer opinions or advice. We propose simply to say, that in our judgment, the property in question does not belong either in law or equity to the Associate Reformed Synod of New York.

REPORT

Of the Union Theological Seminary.

The Board of Directors of the Union Theological Seminary present to the General Assembly the following Report:

The following students have been admitted into this Institution during the past year, viz. Henry Ballentine, John Dabney Shane, Theodoric Prior, A. J. M'Nair, Samuel Matthews, Samuel B. O. Wilson, James W. Philips, and Benjamin M. Smith.

The number of students connected with the Institution during the past year has been forty-six.

The following young gentlemen have completed the whole course prescribed in the plan, and have received certificates usual in such cases, viz. A. M'Vane, P. Pierson, and D. L. Lindley.

Four hundred and ninety volumes have been added to the library during the year, which now contains 2955 volumes.

The new edifice is still in a state of progress, and will be completed during the ensuing year.

Mr. Elisha Ballentine has been employed, during the past year, to aid in giving instruction to the students in the department of Biblical Literature; and, during the summer, the Rev. B. F. Stanton gave instruction in the department of Christian Theology.

The past year has been one of deep affliction to this infant institution. We have been deprived, by death, of a long-tried and efficient friend of the Seminary, in the lamented Dr. Rice. This event cast a cloud over the prospects of this school of the prophets. But our consolation has been that the Lord reigneth; and, in the spirit of resignation to this mournful dispensation, we hope we have been able to say, "It is the Lord, let him do what seemeth good in his sight."

On the 8th day of November last, the Rev. Dr. Baxter was chosen to fill the chair of Professor of Christian Theology, and early in December entered on the duties of his office. He has been inaugurated during the present meeting of the Board.

The prospects of the Seminary are brightening, and we hope ere long to see it filled with young men who shall be a lasting blessing to the church and the world.

The officers of the board are,

Rev. J. Caldwell, D. D., President.
Rev. Wm. Hill, D. D., 1st Vice President.
Rev. S. L. Graham, 2d Vice President.
Rev J. H. C. Leach, Secretary.

Of the Western Theological Seminary.

The Board of Directors of the Western Theological Seminary, on a review of the past year, respectfully submit to the General Assembly, the following Report:

The number of students in the Seminary at the date of the last report was 20. During the summer session, Mr. Alexander M. Junkin, who had formerly been a member, returned and resumed his studies, and at its close, Mr. Alexander Brown and Mr. Aaron Williams, having completed their regular course, terminated their connexion with the Institution.

At the commencement, and during the course of the winter session, the following ten students were admitted, viz.

Mr. T. T. Coulter,	graduate of	Jefferson College.
John Eagleston,	do	do
William Eakins,	do	do
Robert M. Findley,	do	do
Thomas Galt,	do	do
William Gray,	do	do
Junius Marks,	do	do
P. L. M'Aboy,	do	Ohio University.
John Newton,	do	Jefferson College.
William Orr,	do	West. University Penn.

During the winter session, Mr. B. S. Allen, a member of the second class, was removed by death; and several other students were for a season seriously indisposed, but have mostly regained their usual health. The present number of students in the Seminary is 29. The Professor says in his report, "The deportment of the students during the term has been exemplary. The tone of missionary feeling elevated; four out of our number having already resolved to devote their lives to foreign fields of labour. The spirituality of the body, I would hope, is advancing, and for this end, the Head of the church has been pleased to visit us more than usually with bodily afflictions."

The members of the Seminary have, as usual, been examined at the close of each session, on the several branches of study required in the plan, and these examinations have been in general satisfactory. The experiments made by the students to combine manual labour with study, have been successful and gratifying; the sum of $290 having been paid them for work done upon the Theological edifice, under the inspection of the superintendent.

With the adoption of a judicious system of economy in the refectory, and of facilities for turning the results of the manual labour of the students to the best account, there can remain no doubt that the necessary expenses of a residence at the Seminary, may be reduced far below what has formerly been usual in such cases.

In grading the hill, and finishing various apartments in the edifice, the Executive Committee have expended, during the past year, the sum of $3,953. The chapel and library, two entries, a suit of rooms for the Professor, and forty students' rooms have been completed during the year; leaving besides the remaining entries about thirty rooms yet to be finished. The portico and cupola are now in progress, and the removal of a portion of the rock near the south front of the edifice still remains to be accomplished.

The efforts of the Board in the provision of funds for the endowment of the Seminary during the year, have been chiefly confined to the collection of instalments due on subscriptions taken in former years; and the expenditures, besides about $800 collected by the agency of the Rev. William Wylie, and money borrowed, have been principally sustained by these subscriptions. The Board, in the progress of their improvements, have borrowed the sum of $2,800, and there remains $1,500 due to different individuals; making a total of $4,300. When this statement is taken in connexion with the fact that no considerable progress has yet been made in the endowment of Professorships, and that much is yet to be done, to complete the principal edifice itself, to say nothing of other buildings embraced in the plan, it will be apparent to the Assembly, that great efforts must be made before this Institution can be placed on a permanent footing, and fully realize those prospects of usefulness which are held out to it. At the date of the last report there was in the Treasury, the sum of $735 59 cents, and there has been received on account of subscriptions and donations, during the year the sum of $5,931 41 cents, of which, there remains a balance of $120 91. There has been expended on account of the edifice and the general expense fund, the sum of $4,645 68; and for the payment of the salary of the Professor and the Teacher the sum of $1,900.

For the former of these objects, the Board ask an additional appropriation of 5,000, and for the latter the sum of $2,500.

The following articles have also been received towards furnishing the rooms in the Seminary, viz.

From the congregation of Bricceland's Cross Roads—1 bedstead and bedding complete, 2 towels and 2 chairs.

From do. of Steubenville—1 room entirely furnished.

From Mrs. O'Hara—1½ dozen tumblers, 3 pitchers and 3 wash bowls.

From Mr. Patterson—1 room furnished.

From a Friend, through Professor Halsey—2 brass candlesticks for the public rooms.

From the Dorcas Society of the Second Presbyterian Church, by Rebecca L. Patterson—2 straw matrasses, 4 bolsters, 5 pillows, 3 pillow-slips, 2 looking glasses, 1 shovel and poker, 2 quilts, 1 bed-spread, 1 comfortable, 2 chairs, 1 sacking-bottom, 1 dozen shoe brushes, 1 broom, wash basin, pitcher, tumblers.

From individuals of the First Presbyterian Church, through Mrs. Herron—2 table cloths, 1 piece of calico, 10 pair of sheets, 7 pillow cases and 7 tickings for do., 15 shirts, 22 pillow-slips, 7 sheets, 4 comfortables, and 10 common collars, and sundry remnants of linen and muslin.

From Mrs. Holmes of Pittsburgh—1 room furnished.

The Board have also received during the last year, two valuable boxes of books for the library, through the kind and persevering exertions of Robert Lee, Esq. of Clapham Common, (England,) making, both of them, an addition of near 300 volumes to the Seminary library, which still greatly needs a larger number, expecially of classical and standard works.

The term of service of the following Directors expires during the sessions of the present Assembly, viz. Messrs. Thos. E. Hughes, Wm. Jeffery, Thos. Barr, C. C. Beattie, Robert Johnson, Thomas Hoge, and Alan D. Campbell, ministers; with Messrs. George Plumer, Benjamin Williams, and Samuel Thompson, elders.

Commending this Seminary to the guardian care of the Assembly, and to an affectionate interest in its prayers, the Board of Directors, in the conclusion of their report, would again advert to its pecuniary necessities, and renew the expression of their desire and their hope, that it may yet more largely share in the liberality of the various portions of the Presbyterian Church. FRANCIS HERRON, President.

LETTER TO THE GENERAL SYNOD OF ULSTER.

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. of America, to the Moderator and members of the General Synod of Ulster, in Ireland.

PHILADELPHIA, June 2d, 1830.

Very Dear Brethren in the Lord,—We desire to enter into a friendly and brotherly correspondence with you; so that we may know your state, your encouragements, and your trials, and rejoice with you in your joys, and weep with you in your sorrows; and that you may take the same interest in us. Holding the same common symbol of faith and practice, and called by the same name, it seems to us highly proper, that we should cherish the spirit of a holy brotherhood, in all the concerns of our common Lord and Master, in his kingdom, in this world. We congratulate you on the all-important change which has lately taken place in your body, freeing you from those who deny the only Lord God and Redeemer, Jesus Christ; so that now in the unity of the spirit, in Christ Jesus, you will be able to live in the bonds of peace.

As several of our members are in correspondence with their brethren of the Synod of Ulster, we suppose you are not altogether ignorant of the state of our church, as to extent, doctrine and discipline. You know we hold the same standards with yourselves. A copy of our Constitution, with the Assembly's Digest, is herewith transmitted to you, for your acceptance.

We believe you will rejoice with us in the prosperity of the benevolent societies of our country. Our Bible operations are prosperous. Many large sections of our country have already a Bible in every family willing to receive it; and we are not without hopes that every similar family in our whole country, will have a copy of the Holy Scriptures, within one year from this time. Our National Bible Society issued from its own presses 238,000 copies during the past year.

Our Tract operations are also extensive, and progressing, through all our states. The American Tract Society issued our 62,000,000 of pages of religious tracts during the past year. In many sections of our country, a religious tract is placed in every family which does not refuse it, once a month, and the effects are good.

Our Missionary operations, both foreign and domestic, appear to be blessed by the Great Head of the church. In addition to all that we are permitted to do for the heathen abroad, and in our western wilderness, there are now more than 600 domestic Missionaries busily engaged in building up the waste places of Zion in our own land.

Our Sabbath Schools are flourishing to a very encouraging extent. About 550,000 children are in these Schools, in the several states and territories of our Union, taught by about 55,000 teachers: and a late resolution of our American Sunday School Union, has given us a pledge, that in reliance on Divine aid, there shall be a Sabbath School established, within two years from this time, in every settlement in which it shall be found practicable, in all the great Valley of the Mississippi, extending from Canada on the North, to the Gulf of Mexico on the South, and from the Allegheny mountains on the East, to the Rocky mountains on the West; a territory very nearly twelve hundred miles square; having a population of nearly 4,000,000, and supposed to contain more than 500,000 children of suitable age for Sabbath School instruction. The subject of temperance, of infant schools, and of Sabbath sanctification, are receiving considerable and encouraging attention.

We have no doubt these societies are doing very great good. For the particular state of religion within our bounds, and through our country, we refer you to the NARRATIVE appended to our Minutes, herewith transmitted.

Desiring a favourable and speedy reply, and wishing you grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and our Lord Jesus Christ, we subscribe ourselves,

EZRA FISK, Moderator.
JOHN McDOWELL, Perm't Clerk.

By order of the General Assembly,
EZRA STILES ELY, Stated Clerk.

LETTER FROM THE GENERAL SYNOD OF ULSTER.

The General Synod of Ulster, to the Moderator and Members of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

Dearly Beloved Brethren in Christ:

Your much esteemed communication was presented to us at our annual meeting at Colerain, in June, and afforded heart-felt joy to every member of our body. We anticipate much satisfaction and improvement from the correspondence to which you invite us, which we trust will be blessed by the Great Head of the Church to be the means of increasing and strengthening that attachment to each other, which our common faith and worship and discipline tend to produce. It will give us pleasure to hear of the outpourings of the Spirit from on high upon you, of your increase and prosperity; of your order and your joy; and to make known to you, in return, our state, and our trials, and our blessings. At the time when our testimony as a Christian Church can be unanimously given to the truth as it is in Jesus Christ, it is with delight we feel ourselves called on to join in closer bonds of fellowship with our brethren abroad.

We consider it to be one of the distinguishing features of the present times, that, awaking from the slumber of ages, Christians take an interest in the state of those who are ready to perish around them and in lands far distant from them; and that churches holding the same important religious doctrines, and the same views of church government and discipline, feel themselves drawn, by the bond of Christian love, to seek a closer connexion with each other, than they have hitherto done. Here we see the doing of the Lord, preparing the way, by the increasing intercourse and more zealous co-operation of his Churches, for the destruction of the strong holds of error and sin, the enlargement of His kingdom, and the manifestation of His glory in the world. The sameness of feelings, of desires, of enjoyments, and of hopes, which must ever prevail among all those who are truly united to Christ, should teach us, that all the members of His elect family on earth, though far separated from each other, should consider themselves brethren and sisters in the Lord, and should endeavour to become fellow labourers in promoting each other's edification, and helpers of each other's joy.

We have derived much encouragement from hearing of the success with which it has pleased God to crown your labours in the wide spread field which is placed before you on your continent. We have no doubt it will gladden the hearts of many among your people, who look to Ulster as the place of their fathers' sepulchres, to hear, that the Lord has mercifully begun to revive His work among us, and that the churches, where their ancestors worshipped, are beginning to cast a broader and more refreshing shade around them. Our people have hailed with joy the intelligence, that you have invited us to cultivate a closer brotherly love, and a more intimate fellowship with you. There are few families among us who have not dear relatives in your country. We have no doubt that on many family altars, here and with you, dear friends are offering up supplications for each other; that these meet before the throne of Jesus, and, through him, are accepted and answered. May our mutual prayers for each other as churches, be heard and owned, and bring down upon us an abundant increase of grace, mercy, and peace, from the Lord!

We rejoice, brethren, to hear of the number of Synods, of Presbyteries, of churches, of communicants, of ministers, and of candidates for the ministry, which are under your care. The Lord hath done great things for you, whereof we are glad!

It has given us sincere gratification to learn from your Narrative of the State of Religion among you, that "in some of your churches, the work of the Lord has been marked and powerful;" and that, "in others, the Spirit's influence has distilled like the dew, moistening the roots of piety, and fertilizing the fields of Zion."

From the present state of the parent Presbyterian churches in Scotland, and from the number, the harmony, and order, of your churches so widely spread over your vast continent, we learn the excellence of our form of church government, and its tendency to promote spiritual edification, restrain vice, advance holiness, and preserve the spirit of unity, in the bonds of peace. Hearing of the revivals of vital godliness in other Presbyterian churches, and visited in our own with tokens of love for good, we thank God and take courage.

In the account you give us of the number, variety, and extent of your religious institutions, we mark the effects of divine grace, in producing those fruits of righteousness, which, in Christ Jesus, are to the praise and glory of God. We are following you, and the churches in England and Scotland, in these works of faith and labours of love. We have also among us our Bible societies—our religious tract societies—our Sabbath school unions—our infant schools—our home missions, and our auxiliaries in aid of missionary societies, which send the Gospel to heathen lands.

Temperance societies have also been established among us. There are above three hundred societies of this kind in Scotland, containing forty-four thousand members, and having enrolled among them one hundred and ninety ministers. In Ulster, there are one hundred and fifty societies, containing fifteen thousand members; of whom, one hundred and sixty are ministers.

Notwithstanding the late separation of seventeen Arian ministers, we continue to have under the care of our General Synod, two hundred and sixteen ministers, two hundred and twelve churches, and, according to the best calculation we can as yet make, considerably above half a million of people.

We thank Almighty God, that, after the long continued struggle for the truth in which we have been engaged, we have not been left wearied in well-doing, but are endeavouring to stand in that watchfulness, and advance in that life and vigour, which should at all times characterise the churches of the Lord Jesus Christ. A healthful change, both of feeling and of action, has begun. Admiring the form of your statistical returns we are taking means to introduce a similar system among us. The education of our candidates for the ministry has attracted, and is continuing to receive, an increase of attention. New churches are springing up within our bounds, under the most favourable circumstances. No less than forty new congregations have been erected, and have obtained ordained pastors within the last twelve years; while in the majority of these congregations, whose ministers have recently withdrawn from our Synod, a goodly number of the people have remained faithful to the truth, and still form congregations under our care. Annual pastoral addresses, from the Synod to the people of our communion, have been resumed; and we have also seen cause to renew the godly practice of recommending to our churches days of public humiliation, or of thanksgiving, according to the circumstances of the times, and the aspect of Providence.

We transmit to your Clerk a copy of our Code of Discipline, which will now require several alterations to adapt it to the altered circumstances of our church: together with copies of our last pastoral address, and of the minutes of our Synod for a few years past.

From these you will learn, that while we have still reason to mourn over the things in which we come short, yet we have much cause to rejoice. The Sun of Righteousness has arisen upon us, with healing in his wings. We trust the great King of Zion will continue to bless us, and will soon enable us to take a place among the Presbyterian churches in the world, as one holding fast the truth, and walking in the beauty of holiness.

Earnestly desiring a continuance of the correspondence thus happily commenced, and fervently praying that the Lord may bless and keep you, and make his face to shine upon you; we subscribe in the name, and by order, of the General Synod of Ulster. JAMES MORGAN, Moderator of Synod.

JAMES SEATON REID, Clerk of Synod.

Belfast, July, 1831.

LETTER TO THE GENERAL SYNOD OF ULSTER.

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States to the General Synod of Ulster.

Beloved in the Lord,

Your acceptance of our proposed correspondence, has been truly grateful to our feelings: and the reading of your communication in our Assembly, composed of more than three hundred ministers and ruling elders, as the representatives of our whole church, has excited a Christian interest in your prosperity and trials, which, we trust, will never be forgotten. This same influence will be widely extended and diffused when we shall send down, in our printed minutes, your epistle to our Christian brethren, comprising twenty-one Synods, one hundred and ten Presbyteries, and more than two hundred thousand members in communion. We hope that this correspondence, thus happily commenced, will be continued, and become the means, by the blessing of God, as our correspondence with the evangelical churches of France has already been, of strengthening each other's hands and encouraging each other's hearts.

We greatly rejoice in the union both in doctrine and effort which prevails among you. There never was a deeper necessity for united affection and united action among the ministers of Christ and the children of his grace, than at the present day. The signs of the times admonish us, that there are labours to be performed, and triumphs to be achieved, which demand the harmonious and concentrated moral powers of the church. The enemies of our King and his cause, are numerous and vigilant. The entire world, with its wide spread desolations, makes an affecting appeal to our hearts—the waste places in the midst of Christendom, need the cultivation of a thousand strong hands, and millions of dying pagans lift up an affecting cry in our ears to come over and help them. In these circumstances, we have no doubt, that every minister and every Christian ought, under the banner of the cross, and at the command of the great Captain, to come up to "the help of the Lord against the mighty."

It is truly refreshing to our hearts to learn from your fraternal letter, that God has, to some extent, revived his work within the bounds of your Synod. As Christians we cannot but rejoice in this event; but when you add to this consideration, the fact that some of our ministers and elders, and many communicants in our churches, look to your isle as the land of their forefathers and the home of their childhood, you are prepared to estimate our spiritual joy on hearing that God has sent down his Holy Spirit upon that portion of Zion. This good news from a far country, has been indeed like cold water to a thirsty soul. We are happy, too, that the blessed and cheering results of the work of God, in your country and ours, have been essentially the same, evincing at once the identity of the gospel both in its intrinsic nature and its sanctifying effects. With us, as with you, Bible Societies, Tract Societies, Sunday School Unions, Sunday Schools, Home and Foreign Missions, and Temperance Societies, have been generally, if not uniformly, greatly strengthened and promoted by revivals of religion. With us, it has not been an unusual event to witness a copious outpouring of the Spirit of God in those places where efficient steps have been taken to aid the temperance reformation. In this point of view, it is cause of gratitude to the great Head of the church, that so much has been effected of late within your bounds in this truly important work. We rejoice to hear, that "In Ulster, there are one hundred and fifty societies, containing fifteen thousand members, of whom one hundred and sixty are ministers." It is matter of equal gratitude and joy, that societies of this character are multiplying in number, and increasing in efficiency, in Scotland and other parts of Europe. In relation to this vitally important interest, and indeed, in relation to most of the great institutions of the day, which are designed to aid in the work of enlightening and saving the world, Christians, in every land, have reason to bless God, and take courage, and move onward. In these increased efforts to do good which are now put forth by the church, and in the manifest smile of Heaven which attends these efforts, we may read the promise of better things to come. A brighter and a happier day, we trust, will soon arise upon the Zion of our God. Now, if ever, the united prayer ought to go up from thousands of broken and believing hearts, "Thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven."

In your recent struggles for the "faith once delivered to the saints," our hearts have deeply sympathized with you; and it is matter of Christian congratulation, that in the final separation of the Arians from your communion, no more than seventeen ministers have been found among the errorists, while two hundred and fifteen have continued the advocates of the doctrines of the Reformation, and are still steadfast in the faith. In all this business, painful in itself, we rejoice that the blessing of God has crowned your efforts, and, at length, placed your ministers and churches in a situation in which you may let your light shine, and become a blessing to many who are ready to perish. Our own churches have never been agitated, and we fondly hope they never may be, by the Unitarian controversy. While our Congregational brethren, in some parts of New England, have passed through severe conflicts in relation to this matter, the Presbyterian ministers, with hardly an exception, have professed and publicly defended the doctrines of the Trinity, the true Deity of Jesus Christ, the necessity and the reality of the atonement, and justification by faith in his blood alone. We are thoroughly convinced that Arianism, or any other form of Unitarianism, would not be tolerated for a moment in our church. In relation to those great doctrines which are commonly denominated the doctrines of the Reformation, and which are the doctrines of our Confession of Faith, we would remark, that they are received and defended, as presenting the system of truth taught in the Holy Scriptures.

The Assembly are not a little gratified in the information which has been received from the Synod of Ulster, in relation to the increased and zealous attention which is bestowed on the subject of educating pious young men for the gospel ministry. We are deeply impressed with the consideration, that this matter lies at the very foundation of most of the great movements of the day for evangelizing the world. Much of the prosperity with which God has visited our church, has been connected with the increase of ministers by new and efficient efforts for the education of pious young men for the sacred office. We pray, that the same blessed results may be speedily witnessed in the Synod of Ulster, till all your desolations shall be repaired, and multitudes of efficient missionaries shall issue forth from your isle to bless the distant and dying heathen. The subject of missions, both foreign and domestic, is exciting throughout all our bounds, a deeper and deeper interest; and to the spirit of our churches, respecting this subject, we are not a little indebted, under God, for the progress of truth and holiness which has been recently witnessed among us. Not a few of the most powerful and extensive revivals of religion which have been reported for some years past to the Assembly, have occurred under the labours of domestic missionaries, or have been in some way, connected with the prosecution of Home Missions. There is much waste territory in the midst of the largest and most flourishing churches in Christendom; and it is, no doubt, the duty and the spiritual interest of the kingdom of Jesus Christ to cultivate this territory, and gather in a rich harvest of grace on earth, for endless glory in heaven.

The General Assembly express their cordial thanks to the Synod of Ulster for the documents which accompanied their letter, and desire a continuance of these mutual expressions of Christian kindness.

Deeply impressed with the responsibility which rests upon the ministers and churches within the bounds of the Synod of Ulster and of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, in relation to the glory of Jesus Christ and the salvation of men, both in our respective countries and among the unevangelized nations of the earth, we most affectionately invite you to unite with us in fervent and persevering prayer to Almighty God, that his presence may shine upon us, and his Spirit fill our hearts, and his gospel travel forth in grace and power, till earth and heaven unite in one grateful and universal song.

Earnestly imploring the benediction of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Ghost to rest upon you, we subscribe ourselves, in the name and by the order of the General Assembly, your brethren in the gospel.

JAMES HOGE, Moderator.

PREFACE TO THE STATISTICAL TABLE.

In the following table the reader will please to take notice, that P. attached to a minister's name, denotes that he is Pastor of some church; and P. added to the name of a church, signifies that it has a Pastor. W. C. stand for the words without charge; S. S. for stated supply; O. S. for occasional supply; V. for vacant; Presb. for Presbytery; Prest. for President of some college; Prof. for Professor in some college or theological seminary; Miss. for Missionary; Chap. for Chaplain to the United States Navy, or some public station; Ch. for Church; Cong. for Congregational.

The post-office address of a minister or licentiate, is to be sought for in the right hand column, on the same line with the name at the left; and the reader is not to regard any intervening name of a church, which may, or may not be the one in which the preacher whose name is opposite to it, is the pastor or stated supply. A church which is vacant and marked V., will often be found in the same line with a minister W. C., without charge; for by this arrangement, the table is brought within a narrower compass than it could otherwise be.

The stated clerks of Presbyteries are earnestly requested to make their future returns in the form of the printed report forwarded to them as one sheet of this pamphlet, and chargeable only as one sheet of a periodical.

Particularly they are requested not to introduce into the tabular part of the Report any extraneous matter, but to obey strictly the regulations of the Assembly; for, new columns, and explanations not required, cost the Stated Clerk of the Assembly no little time in expunging them, before the reports can be sent to the printer. Each Stated Clerk of Presbytery is also respectfully reminded, that it is his duty to give the TOTALS of the columns in their proper places; and that the writer of this Preface is not answerable for all the arithmetical calculations of his brethren.

Funds collected for different missionary purposes in any congregation, should be returned in one sum, in the column for missionary funds, instead of being distinguished by the different objects for which they were collected.

All money collected for the charitable education of youth, in infant, sabbath, and other schools, academies, and seminaries, and especially in those of a theological character, should be named in one sum, under the heading of "Education Funds." When additional columns of figures are returned, they are worse than useless.

SUMMARY STATISTICAL REPORT

Of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, for June 1, 1831, *corrected.

The General Assembly now has under its spiritual government TWENTY SYNODS; ONE HUNDRED AND FOUR PRESBYTERIES; 1584 ordained bishops; 216 licentiate preachers; 215 candidates in a course of preparation for the ministry; 2253 churches; and 182017 communicants. From April 1st 1830, to April 1st 1831, we have returns of 20,354 persons received to the full communion of the Presbyterian Church, of whom 15,357 were added on examination and profession of their faith; and 4997 were, by certificate, either translated from sister churches, or removed from one of our congregations to another. In the same period, 4390 adult persons, and 12198 infants, were baptized; which gives a total of 16,588 baptisms. The collection of funds reported for the same year amount to $ 47,501 70 for domestic and foreign missions; $ 3880 39 to defray the expense of the Commissioners to the last Assembly; whose joint travel to and from Philadelphia was very near to 100,000 miles; $ 16,884 39 for the use of different Theological Seminaries; $33,317 14 for education purposes; and $218 54 for the contingent expenses of the General Assembly. The total of these collections is $ 101,802 16.

Our increase, during the year past, has been, in Synods 1; in Presbyteries 6; in churches 95; in ordained ministers 93; and in the additions of communicants 4369. After making allowance for deaths, dismissions, and other removals, our net gain appears to be no more than 8688. This is owing to no returns from many churches. The real increase cannot have been less than 15,000; and our total of communicants, if all reported, would be 190,000. Our 1800 ordained and licensed preachers of the Word exceed in number those of 1830 by 89. Our licentiates are fewer than they were a year ago, by 4, and our Candidates for the ministry, by 13. The baptisms of adults last year exceeded those of 1830 by 1135; the infant baptisms decreased by 4; and the increase in the total of baptisms was 1131. The grand total of charitable contributions reported in 1831 exceeds that of 1830 by the sum of $ 17,509 32.

EZRA STILES ELY, Stated Clerk of the General Assembly.

* N. B. For several years past the Stated Clerk has employed a first rate accountant to foot up the columns of the Summary View; but to his mortification he learns that the most accurate may err; and that in 1830 a mistake was made in giving the amount of the Education funds raised at $ 126,130 77, instead of $ 26,130 77. This led to the error of saying in 1831 that "the grand total of charitable contributions is less this year than the preceding year by $ 82,490 68." The Stated Clerk expresses his thanks to the Rev. Allen G. Gallaher, of Tennessee, for having made such friendly inquiries as led to the correction of the above report.

SUMMARY STATISTICAL REPORT

Of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, for June, 1832.

This Church of Christ, under one General Assembly of Bishops and Ruling Elders, which, with the delegates from corresponding bodies, in May last, consisted of 322 persons, comprehends, according to the returns made, TWENTY-ONE SYNODS; ONE HUNDRED AND TEN PRESBYTERIES; 2381 congregations; 1730 ordained bishops; 205 licentiates; making 1935 preachers of the gospel; 220 candidates for the ministry; and 217,348 communicants. Of these communicants, 34,160 were added during the last year, on examination and the profession of their faith, and 6886 by certificate; making a total of 41,046 additions. In the same period, the baptisms returned amount to 24,246; of which 9650 were of adults, 13,246 of infants, and 1806 not distinguished, the total of baptisms only having been returned by some churches and presbyteries. The annual collection of moneys for charitable purposes reported, amount to $ 69,231 70 for domestic and foreign missions; $ 4954 11 for defraying the travelling expenses of commissioners to the last Assembly, whose actual mileage in going to and returning from that meeting exceeded 170,000 miles; $12,132 81 for different Theological Seminaries; $50,932 94 for the purposes of charitable religious education, especially of pious, indigent young persons in schools, colleges, and seminaries; and $567 83 for the contingent expenses of the General Assembly. The total of these funds reported as having been thus contributed is $137,819 39.

Our increase during the past year has been in Synods 1; in Presbyteries 6; in particular churches, or duly organized congregations 128; in ordained bishops 146; in candidates for the ministry 5; in the number of communicants added on examination above those of last year 18,803; in communicants added by certificate 1889; in adults baptized 5260; in infants baptized 1048; in the total of baptisms 8115; and in the total of charitable contributions $36,017 23. There has been a decrease in the number of our licentiates since June 1831, of 11 persons.

After making allowance for deaths, dismissions, suspensions and other removals, the actual increase in the communicants of the Presbyterian Church during the year, has amounted to 35,331 persons; which shows our net gain in numbers to have exceeded that of 1831 by 26,643 communicants. Our actual increase of ordained and licensed preachers of the word, has been 135.

SUMMARY STATISTICAL REPORT

Of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, for June 1, 1831, *corrected.

The General Assembly now has under its spiritual government TWENTY SYNODS; ONE HUNDRED AND FOUR PRESBYTERIES; 1584 ordained bishops; 216 licentiate preachers; 215 candidates in a course of preparation for the ministry; 2253 churches; and 182017 communicants. From April 1st 1830, to April 1st 1831, we have returns of 20,354 persons received to the full communion of the Presbyterian Church, of whom 15,357 were added on examination and profession of their faith; and 4997 were, by certificate, either translated from sister churches, or removed from one of our congregations to another. In the same period, 4390 adult persons, and 12198 infants, were baptized; which gives a total of 16,588 baptisms. The collection of funds reported for the same year amount to $ 47,501 70 for domestic and foreign missions; $ 3880 39 to defray the expense of the Commissioners to the last Assembly; whose joint travel to and from Philadelphia was very near to 100,000 miles; $ 16,684 39 for the use of different Theological Seminaries; $33,317 14 for education purposes; and $218 54 for the contingent expenses of the General Assembly. The total of these collections is $ 101,802 16.

Our increase, during the year past, has been, in Synods 1; in Presbyteries 6; in churches 95; in ordained ministers 93; and in the additions of communicants 4369. After making allowance for deaths, dismissions, and other removals, our net gain appears to be no more than 8688. This is owing to no returns from many churches. The real increase cannot have been less than 15,000; and our total of communicants, if all reported, would be 190,000. Our 1800 ordained and licensed preachers of the Word exceed in number those of 1830 by 89. Our licentiates are fewer than they were a year ago, by 4, and our Candidates for the ministry, by 13. The baptisms of adults last year exceeded those of 1830 by 1135; the infant baptisms decreased by 4; and the increase in the total of baptisms was 1131. The grand total of charitable contributions reported in 1831 exceeds that of 1830 by the sum of $ 17,509 32.

EZRA STILES ELY, Stated Clerk of the General Assembly.

* N. B. For several years past the Stated Clerk has employed a first rate accountant to foot up the columns of the Summary View; but to his mortification he learns that the most accurate may err; and that in 1830 a mistake was made in giving the amount of the Education funds raised at $ 126,130 77, instead of $ 26,130 77. This led to the error of saying in 1831 that "the grand total of charitable contributions is less this year than the preceding year by $ 82,490 68." The Stated Clerk expresses his thanks to the Rev. Allen G. Gallaher, of Tennessee, for having made such friendly inquiries as led to the correction of the above report.

SUMMARY STATISTICAL REPORT

Of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, for June, 1832.

This Church of Christ, under one General Assembly of Bishops and Ruling Elders, which, with the delegates from corresponding bodies, in May last, consisted of 322 persons, comprehends, according to the returns made, TWENTY-ONE SYNODS; ONE HUNDRED AND TEN PRESBYTERIES; 2381 congregations; 1730 ordained bishops; 205 licentiates; making 1935 preachers of the gospel; 220 candidates for the ministry; and 217,348 communicants. Of these communicants, 34,160 were added during the last year, on examination and the profession of their faith, and 6886 by certificate; making a total of 41,046 additions. In the same period, the baptisms returned amount to 24,246; of which 9650 were of adults, 13,246 of infants, and 1806 not distinguished, the total of baptisms only having been returned by some churches and presbyteries. The annual collection of moneys for charitable purposes reported, amount to $ 69,231 70 for domestic and foreign missions; $ 4954 11 for defraying the travelling expenses of commissioners to the last Assembly, whose actual mileage in going to and returning from that meeting exceeded 170,000 miles; $12,132 81 for different Theological Seminaries; $50,932 94 for the purposes of charitable religious education, especially of pious, indigent young persons in schools, colleges, and seminaries; and $567 83 for the contingent expenses of the General Assembly. The total of these funds reported as having been thus contributed is $137,819 39.

Our increase during the past year has been in Synods 1; in Presbyteries 6; in particular churches, or duly organized congregations 128; in ordained bishops 146; in candidates for the ministry 5; in the number of communicants added on examination above those of last year 18,803; in communicants added by certificate 1889; in adults baptized 5260; in infants baptized 1048; in the total of baptisms 8115; and in the total of charitable contributions $36,017 23. There has been a decrease in the number of our licentiates since June 1831, of 11 persons.

After making allowance for deaths, dismissions, suspensions and other removals, the actual increase in the communicants of the Presbyterian Church during the year, has amounted to 35,331 persons; which shows our net gain in numbers to have exceeded that of 1831 by 26,643 communicants. Our actual increase of ordained and licensed preachers of the word, has been 135.

The subject of the Overture is the case of Mr. Alexander Maclin, a licentiate, from the Presbytery of Belfast in Ireland, who desires to be received into connexion with the Presbyterian Church of the United States of America, and under the care of the Presbytery of Newton. The credentials produced in the case of Mr. Maclin are such as are required by the regulations relating to foreign ministers and licentiates in the Digest, Part xi. Chap. 1. Sect. 1. The extracts from the Records of the Presbytery of Newton, and the documents accompanying, show that the proceedings of Presbytery in the case have also been according to the above mentioned regulations. The Committee therefore recommend that Mr. Alexander Maclin be received into connexion with the Presbyterian Church, and under the care of the Presbytery of Newton.

Resolved, That it be the order of the day for to-morrow afternoon to receive the report of the Board of Education, and also the report of the Board of Missions.

Resolved, That the Assembly will this afternoon attend the anniversary of the American Sunday School Union.

The committee appointed to consider the expediency of appointing a special season of fasting, humiliation, and prayer, in relation to the conversion of the world to God, &c., and to whom was also committed Overture No. 11, made a report, which being read and amended, was adopted, and is as follows: viz.

The General Assembly, deeply impressed by the signs of the times, in which they are called as office-bearers in the Church of Christ, to take an active part in the recommendation and prosecution of measures for the spread of the Gospel, judge it to be weightily incumbent on them to call the special attention of the churches andpeople under their care to this most important and interesting concern. It is believed, that no well informed Christian, who seriously and impartially contemplates the aspect and movements of Protestant Christendom at the present time, can resist the conviction, that the prophetic annunciations, relative to the latter day glory of the Church militant, are rapidly tending to their accomplishment. The various indications which point to such a conclusion, the Assembly deem it unnecessary to recite. They are public and palpable, and very many of our people, with an exemplary zeal and liberality, have connected themselves with the institutions and operations which concentrate their influence, like so many different rays of light, in one common and glowing point, to scatter the moral darkness of the world, and introduce the dawn of the millennial day. Among the indications of the most auspicious character, the Assembly reckon the general concert for prayer, which, for a considerable time past, has been observed by the friends of evangelical truth, and benevolent Christian enterprise, in the four quarters of the earth. At the meeting of the General Assembly of the last year, an additional measure was adopted, in compliance with overtures from various quarters, calling for the public designation of a day to be observed by all Christians throughout the world, as a day of fasting and prayer for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit on the whole family of man. For this purpose, the first Monday of January last was accordingly designated; and it is understood that the day was observed, both in the old world and in the new, with much solemnity, and in many instances with a sacred pleasure and humble hope in God, the recollection of which is still delightful and animating. This General Assembly, therefore, do earnestly recommend to all the churches and people under their pastoral superintendence, to continue the observance of the same day of the coming year, and for the same purpose as that to which the specified day of the present year was set apart. Let the whole of the first Monday of January, 1834, be observed as a season of special prayer—of united, fervent, believing prayer, for the conversion of the world to God. And if it be thus observed, prayer will of course be accompanied with deep humiliation—with a sincere prostration of soul before the holy and all-seeing God, in view of personal guilt, and of the sin of the Christian world in so long neglecting to obey, as they ought to have done, one of the last commands of their redeeming God, before he ascended to his throne in the heavens, to disciple all nations, and to preach the Gospel to every creature—to send the messages of salvation to the perishing millions of the unevangelized world. And the Assembly would earnestly recommend that this observance be connected with fasting, and abstinence from secular labor. The great spiritual object is an union of hearts, and of unfeigned, ardent, and repeated aspirations, supplications, and intercessions at the throne of eternal mercy, through the prevalent intercession of the great Mediator and Advocate of his people there, that the Holy Spirit may come down in a copious effusion of his special, new-creating, soul-saving influence, for the conversion of the world to God—for the consolation, encouragement, and abundant success of the missionaries who are now in the field of labor; for raising up, qualifying, sending forth, and blessing the labors of additional missionaries—a host of apostolic, devoted, self-sacrificing men, into all heathen lands, and all destitute portions of lands already partially gospelized; for enlightening, directing, and animating all missionary associations, and for a special benediction on all Theological Seminaries, Colleges, Academies, common and Sabbath schools; for the translators of the Holy Scriptures, and for all Bible and Tract societies and distributors; for inclining the minds of the whole Christian community to devote a liberal portion of the worldly substance which God has given them, for the promotion of his cause, and the building up of his kingdom on the ruins of Satan's empire; and generally for a rich divine blessing on all the benevolent and Christian associations, plans, and exertions which characterize and are the glory of the day in which we have our lot in life.

In regard to supplying the accessible reading population of the globe with the Holy Scriptures, within a definite period, which is now in the contemplation of the American Bible Society, the Assembly recommend the subject to the serious consideration of the religious denomination to which they belong. The Assembly have no hesitation in urging on their fellow Christians the importance of renewed, increased, and vigorous exertions in support of the Bible cause. The world will never be converted to God, till all kindreds, people, and tongues, that are found on the face of the earth, shall read or hear in their own language the wonderful displays of the divine wisdom, goodness, and mercy in the plan of man's redemption, by the incarnation, obedience, sufferings, and death of the Lord Jesus Christ, as made known in the volume of inspired truth. The special efforts for supplying the United States with the sacred Scriptures seem to have terminated, as many apprehended they would, in a state of apathy or inaction, as if a season of rest and remissness might lawfully follow the accomplishment of so great a work. This is an error which must be strenuously resisted. The work of translating, printing, and distributing the Bible is scarcely more than commenced. Could the great and noble object contemplated by our national Bible Society be fully achieved, millions of additional copies of the Scriptures would speedily be necessary to meet the wants of new converts from heathenism and the increasing population of the earth. American Christians ought not to think of relaxing, while they live, their efforts for multiplying the copies of the oracles of God, nor of abating the importunity of their prayers, that these oracles may be rendered, by the Spirit that indited them, the power and the wisdom of God unto salvation, to all who read or hear them.

Resolved, That the ecclesiastical bodies in correspondence with the General Assembly, and other Christian denominations generally both in our own and other lands, be respectfully requested to unite in the observance of the day above specified.

The committee appointed to count the votes for directors of the Theological Seminary, reported, when it appeared that the following persons are elected for three years, viz.

Resolved, That the complainants in these cases have leave to withdraw their complaints, and that the consideration of all the other papers relating to the 2d Presbytery of Philadelphia be indefinitely postponed.

The above report was approved, and the resolution unanimously adopted.

The Assembly then united in prayer, returning thanks to God, for his goodness in bringing this matter to such an amicable adjustment.

The committee appointed to examine the records of the Synod of Philadelphia made a report, when it was resolved, that the records be approved, it being understood that in this resolution, the Assembly, from considerations of discretion and peace, pass no judgment on the proceedings of the Synod in the case of the Second Presbytery of Philadelphia.

The committees appointed to examine the Records of the Synods of Geneva, New Jersey, Cincinnati, Illinois, West Tennessee, and Mississippi and South Alabama, reported respectively, that the records have not been put into their hands. Resolved, that the committees be discharged.

The committee appointed to examine the records of the Synod of New York reported, that the business of the Synod appears to be very loosely done, and carelessly recorded—examples of which are found on pages 259, 260, 264, 267, 271, 273, 276, &c. And on page 277, it appears that the Synod decided that the death of Rev. Mr. Griffith should be no bar in the way of the prosecution of an appeal by his prosecutor from the decision of the Presbytery of Bedford acquitting Mr. Griffith. With these exceptions, the committee recommended that the records be approved. Their report was adopted.

The committee to examine the records of the Synod of the Western Reserve reported, and their report was laid on the table.

The committee appointed to receive the returns from the Presbyteries, on the proposed alterations in the Constitution, and to state the results, made the following report, which was adopted, viz.

There are one hundred and eleven Presbyteries, of which 56 are requisite to authorize any alteration of the Constitution: forty-six Presbyteries appear to have voted for, and seventeen against, the proposed article relative to the calling of special meetings of Synod, which proposed amendment is of course not adopted:

That twenty Presbyteries have voted in favour of a Synodical representation in the General Assembly; and that sixty-seven Presbyteries have voted in favour of the proposed increase in the ratio of Presbyterial representation.

Three Presbyteries have voted against any change; and one for such an alteration as the Assembly has never proposed.

The Committee therefore recommend that the Assembly, in conformity with the authority thus constitutionally intrusted to them, should adopt the following Minute, viz.

Resolved, That the 2d Section of the 12th Chapter of the Form of Government be, and the same is hereby so amended as to read thus—The General Assembly shall consist of an equal delegation of bishops and elders from each Presbytery in the following proportion, viz. each Presbytery, consisting of not more than twenty-four ministers, shall send one minister and one elder; and each Presbytery, consisting of more than twenty-four ministers, shall send two ministers and two elders, and in like proportion for every twenty-four ministers in every Presbytery: and these delegates so appointed shall be styled Commissioners to the General Assembly.

Resolved, That the several synodical committees, which may hereafter authorise the publication of any edition of the Constitution, be charged with inserting the foregoing alteration.

Inasmuch as no decision has been made by a majority of the presbyteries, on the proposed amendment to the Constitution, sent down by the last Assembly, in relation to the calling of special meetings of Synod, Resolved, that it be again sent down to the Presbyteries for their consideration and decision, and they are hereby required to send up their decisions respectively in writing, to the next General Assembly, whether the same shall become a constitutional rule or not; viz.

When any emergency shall require a meeting of the Synod sooner than the time to which it stands adjourned, the Moderator, or in case of his absence, death, or inability to act, the Stated Clerk shall, with the concurrence, or at the request of three ministers and three elders, the ministers and elders being of at least two different Presbyteries, call a special meeting. For this purpose, he shall send a circular letter, specifying the particular business of the intended meeting, to every minister belonging to the Synod, and to the session (if practicable) of every vacant congregation; and between the time of issuing the letters of convocation and the time of meeting shall elapse at least twenty days, and nothing shall be transacted at such special meetings besides the particular business for which the Judicatory has been convened. It shall also be the duty of the Moderator to cause notice to be given in the public prints of the time and place of such intended meeting of the Synod.

The Assembly took up the report of the committee appointed by the last General Assembly, to examine into the state of the funds belonging to, or under the control of, the Assembly, or its Trustees, which was made on Friday last, and referred it to the committee just appointed on the report of the Board of Trustees.

The Committee to whom was referred the report of the Board of Education made the following report, which was adopted; viz. The Committee on the report of the Board of Eduation feel much gratification in the review of the labours and the success of the Board in this most important branch of Christian benevolence. Much has been done; yet much more must be attempted and accomplished in order even to supply our own church with a sufficient number of well qualified ministers; much more to do our part in sending the gospel to all the world. Our efforts must be redoubled, or we shall fall behind the age in which we live, and be unable to see, even in anticipation, that better age which is rapidly approaching. The Committee recommend the adoption of the following resolutions.

1. That the report be published under the direction of the Board of Education.

2. That it be earnestly recommended to all our churches and their members, and especially to all the Presbyteries, to give all diligence to this great work, which is obviously of primary importance to the progress of the kingdom of Christ.

3. That the Presbyteries and Executive Committees of Education be particularly enjoined to report their proceedings to the Board in full accordance with the plan of operation and connection by the Board adopted and recommended.

The Committee, to whom was referred the report of the Synod of the Western Reserve, made a report, which, being read and amended, was adopted, and is as follows, viz. After having maturely considered the subject referred to them, they recommend to the Assembly, without approving the views of the Synod in relation to order and discipline, as stated in their report, that the report be accepted and printed in the minutes of the Assembly.

The report of the Synod is as follows.

Report of the Synod of the Western Reserve to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, in relation to the direction to this Synod, by the last Assembly, recorded in their printed Minutes, page 327.

At the stated meeting of the Synod of the Western Reserve, held at Detroit, Oct. 8. 1833, the following resolution was adopted; viz.

Resolved, that in reference to the points named by the Assembly, as having been charged by common rumour against this Synod; the Synod having, as their custom is, and agreeably to the direction of the Assembly, devoted a part of their sessions to review and examine the state of the Presbyteries and Churches under their care, do report to the next General Assembly:

1. That the Synod see no ground for the charge of delinquency in relation to the permission alleged in the first specification. The Synod would remark, that previously to the resolution of the Assembly on this subject in 1830, it is believed that a difference of practice prevailed in our Presbyteries, in the reception of members from corresponding churches; some of them admitting members from such churches (as has been common in other Presbyteries in different parts of the country) without any formal profession of adopting the Confession of Faith of the Presbyterian Church. But since the passage of that resolution by the Assembly, the Synod believe that no such practice has obtained in any of our Presbyteries. In regard to the allegation respecting persons licensed and ordained by our Presbyteries, without receiving and adopting the Confession of Faith, the Synod have no knowledge or belief of the prevalence of any such practice in any of our Presbyteries.

2d. That in relation to the remaining allegation, viz. on the subject of ruling elders, the Synod do not discover any reason for the charge of having violated the constitution of the church, inasmuch as that constitution does not make the Eldership essential to the existence of a church, and as the number of members in many churches is too small to admit the election of suitable persons to fill that office: and where this is not the case, the fact of there being Congregationalists intermingled with Presbyterians in many churches, is a sufficient reason for the non-existence of the Eldership, according to the plan of agreement between the General Assembly, and the General Association of Connecticut; from the spirit of which, the Synod believe, that none of our Presbyteries have departed.

However, with regard to the charge of the Presbyteries allowing the office of ruling elder to go into disuse, the Synod would say, that during the last year, there have been more ruling elders elected and ordained, in the churches connected with our Presbyteries, than during any three or four years previously.

By order of the Synod of the Western Reserve,

Attest, Wm. Hanford, Stated Clerk.

The report of the Committee to examine the records of the Synod of the Western Reserve, which was laid on the table, was taken up, and adopted, and is as follows, viz. That the records be approved, with the exception of the sentiment on page 154, viz. that the eldership is not essential to the existence of the Presbyterian Church. In the opinion of the committee the Synod advance a sentiment that contravenes the principles recognized in our Form of Government, Chap. ii. Sect. 4. Chap. iii. Sect. 5. Chap. v. Chap. ix. Sect. 1, 2.

The committee on Mileage reported in part, when it was resolved, that the Comissioners from Newburyport, Clinton and Madison be struck off from the list of applicants for a portion of the Commissioners fund, on the ground that their respective Presbyteries have paid nothing into this fund.

Resolved, further, that the Commissioners from the following Presbyteries, viz. Cortland, Genesee, Onondaga, Oswego, Rochester, and Ontario, be allowed to draw from the Commissioners' fund only the amount that their Presbyteries have respectively paid in.

The report of the Committee on Mileage was then recommitted.

Resolved, that Dr. Green, Mr. Ludlow, and Mr. Boyd, be a committee to report a plan for increasing the Commissioners' fund.

The Committee on Overture No. 4, viz. A reference from the Presbytery of West Tennessee, requesting an answer to the two following questions, viz. 1. What are the nature and duties of the office of Deacon? 2. What is the Scriptural and appropriate mode of ordination?—made the fol- o wing report, which was adopted; viz.

In answer to the first inquiry, "what are the nature and duties of the office of Deacon?" we reply—The answer we conceive to be explicitly given in our Form of Government, Chap. 6. Their duties there are plainly made to consist in distributing the charities of the church to which they belong, to the poor of that church. Over charities, collected for any other purpose than those specified, their office gives them no control. In addition to this, the temporalities of the church generally may be committed to their care.

In answer to the second inquiry, "What is the Scriptural and appropriate mode of ordaining them." We reply—Our Form of Government, Chap. 13th, Sect. 4. declares, that such, whether Elder or Deacon, shall be set apart to their respective offices by prayer. The imposition of hands, however, we are aware, in many of our churches is practised, and as it is plainly in accordance with Apostolical example, it is the opinion of the Committee that it is proper and lawful. We conceive that every church in this respect may with propriety be left to adopt either of these two modes, as they think suitable and best.

Adjourned till this afternoon at half past 3 o'clock.

Concluded with prayer.

FRIDAY, half past 3 o'clock, P. M. The Assembly met and began with prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read.

Resolved, That the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper be administered to the members of the General Assembly, and such other professing Christians, as may choose to unite with them, in the 1st Presbyterian Church, on Sabbath next, at 5 o'clock, P. M.

Dr. J. McDowell, Dr. Spring, and Mr. Barnes, were appointed a committee to make arrangements for this service.

The Assembly resumed the appeal of Dr. James Snodgrass. The Synod were heard in explanation of the grounds of their decision. The appellant and the members of the Synod then withdrew.

The roll was then called, to give every member an opportunity to express his opinion; after which the final vote was taken: when it was resolved, that the decision of the Synod be affirmed, and the appeal dismissed.

The committee appointed to count the votes for members of the Board of Missions, reported, when it appeared that the following persons are elected for four years, viz.

MINISTERS.	LAYMEN.
W. A. M'Dowell, D. D.	Joseph P. Engles,
J. M'Dowell, D. D.	William Maxwell,
John Breckinridge,	Alex. W. Mitchell,
Albert Barnes,	John Haswell,
William Gibson,	William Brown,
Ezra Stiles Ely, D. D.	Frederick Nash.

The committee to whom was referred Overture No. 2, made a report, which was read and adopted, and is as follows, viz.

The committee appointed to consider and report on Overture No. 2, which is in the following words, "Is it lawful and consistent with the order of our church, for a church court to re-consider and set aside its own decision in a case of discipline, after a lapse of five or six years from the time the decision was made, after the court has so changed, that many of its members were not members at the time of the decision, and when no new testimony is proposed?"—beg leave to report, that in their opinion, the proper answer to this Overture, will be found included in the following principles, viz.

1. Our Book of Discipline, Chap. ix. Sect. 1, provides, that if after a trial before any judicatory, new testimony be discovered, which is supposed to be highly important to the exculpation of the accused, it is proper for him to ask, and for the judicatory to grant, a new trial.

2. It is very conceivable that after the lapse of five or six years, the sentence of an ecclesiastical court, which was originally considered as just and wise, although no new testimony, strictly speaking, has appeared, may in the view of the church, appear under an aspect, equivalent to new testimony, and calling for re-consideration; yet,

3. Inasmuch as the frequent re-consideration of cases adjudged by the inferior Judicatories, without the appearance of new testimony, admits of great and mischievous abuse, and might lead to an endless recurrence of reviews and reversals of former decisions, in the absence of a majority of the court pronouncing the same; it is evidently more regular, safe, and for edification, when a review of a decision, without the disclosure of new testimony, is thought desirable, to refer the case to the next higher Judicatory.

Mr. Solomon Allen presented his report to the Assembly, as their agent in publishing the book of Psalms and Hymns, which was approved, and is as follows, viz.

Overture, No. 15, viz. an application from the Presbytery of Columbia, for leave to receive the Rev. Mr. Fraser, a foreign minister, was taken up, and dismissed, for want of his credentials, and the proceedings of the Presbytery in his case—the Presbytery having failed to send them up.

Overture, No. 16, viz. an amendment to the Constitution to be sent down to the Presbyteries, on the subject of appeals, complaints, &c. being finally decided in the Synods, was taken up, and committed to Dr. Hoge, Mr. Hamner, and Mr. S. S. Davis.

The Committee on Mileage made the following report, which was adopted, viz.

That they find the number of miles travelled by Commissioners, attending the Sessions of the General Assembly, who are entitled to a portion of the funds to be 75,918; and that the fund to be apportioned among them is $1627 98 being 2 1-7 cents per mile. They would further state, that the whole amount of the Commissioners fund is $1706 90; but $79 will be returned to six Presbyteries, in the sums respectively contributed by them.

Ordered, That the Trustees issue a warrant upon the Treasurer for $1627 98 to be paid to the Commissioners, out of the Commissioners' fund, agreeably to the apportionment of the Committee of Mileage: and further for $79, to be returned to the Commissioners from the six Presbyteries alluded to in the above report.

The Committee on Overture No. 12, made the following report, which was adopted; viz. The Committee to whom was referred the petition of the Presbytery of Abingdon, requesting the General Assembly to dissever them from the Synod of Tennessee, and to connect them with the Synod of Virginia, having considered the reasons assigned by said Presbytery, in support of their petition, and having conferred with the members of the Synod of Tennessee, who are in the Assembly, and with the delegate from the Presbytery of Abingdon, are of the opinion, that no interest of that portion of the Church will suffer by a delay, and therefore recommend that the subject be postponed till the next General Assembly.

Resolved, That this Assembly appoint two ministers as delegates to attend in their name, the Congregational Union of England and Wales, to meet in the month of May A. D. 1834, in London; provided the attendance of such delegates be no expense to the Assembly.

Nominations were made for delegates to attend the above Union; and the election was made the order of the day for Monday morning.

Leave was asked for the Rev. Joseph Brown, the Secretary of the American Seamen's Friend Society, to address the Assembly. Leave was granted, and Mr. Brown addressed the Assembly; after which it was resolved, unanimously that this Assembly regard the American Seamen's Friend Society, as justly claiming an important place among the Benevolent Institutions of our land, and cheerfully recommend to the churches under our care to contribute to its funds promptly and systematically.

The committee on Overture No. 3, viz. a question from the Presbytery of Bethel, respecting holding communion with the followers of Wm. C. Davis, a deposed minister, and calling themselves Independent Presbyterians, reported, that in their judgment the questions proposed in said Overture ought to be answered in the negative. They therefore would recommend the adoption of the following resolution, viz. Resolved, that while this Assembly readily acknowledges the right of the Session, to determine according to the Scriptures and the Constitution of our Church, the qualifications for admission to sealing ordinances, yet they feel it to be their duty to declare, that in their judgment, the services of those who have received only lay-ordination, and of those who have been deposed from the gospel ministry, are unscriptural and unwarrantable; and therefore an attendance on their ministrations cannot be in the order of the gospel, and ought to be discouraged and discountenanced by every friend of the Redeemer's kingdom.

Dr. John McDowell was appointed a member of the Standing Committee on publishing the Confession of Faith in the Synod of Philadelphia, in the place of Dr. Jacob J. Janeway.

Dr. Alexander, one of the committee, to whom was referred by the last Assembly the question, "whether baptism by a Popish priest ought to be considered as valid?" made a report, when, after some discussion, it was resolved, that this subject, with all the papers relating to it, which have been before the Assembly, be committed to Dr. Miller, Dr. Alexander, Dr. Green, Mr. Breckinridge, Mr. Barnes, Dr. Spring, Dr. McAuley, and Dr. McCartee, to report to the next General Assembly.

The Judicial Committee reported on the complaint of John Cochran against the Session of the Eighth Presbyterian Church in Philadelphia, and against the Presbytery of Philadelphia, and their report was adopted, and is as follows, viz.

The complaint of John Cochran against a decision of the Session of the Eighth Presbyterian Church of Philadelphia, which was dismissed by the Presbytery of Philadelphia as "irrelevant and unfounded," appears to have been regularly conducted, except that it is brought directly to the Assembly, from the Presbytery, instead of being carried first to the Synod; and no reasons are assigned for this course. Your committee would therefore recommend, that this case be sent to the Synod for adjudication, should Mr. Cochran choose to prosecute his complaint.

The committee on giving leave of absence, reported that they have given leave to the following members, viz. Mr. Ostrom, Mr. Hamilton, Mr. Gordon, and Mr. Walker.

George A. Baxter, D. D., or in case of his absence, the oldest minister present, open the Synod with a sermon, and preside until a Moderator is chosen.

Rev. Thomas Brown and Rev. Gideon S. White, of the Presbytery of Union, stated that the Committee on Mileage had made a mistake in apportioning their share of the Commissioners' fund. Resolved that their cases be referred to the committee of Mileage; and in case it be found that a mistake has been made, resolved that their due proportion of the Commissioners' fund be allowed them; and in case there is not sufficient in the Commissioners' fund, the Treasurer is hereby directed to pay them out of the Contingent fund.

Agreeably to the order of the day, the Assembly proceeded to the election of delegates to the Congregational Union of England and Wales. The ballots were taken and committed to Mr. E. W. Crane, Mr. Farnsworth, and Mr. Harris.

The committee to draught a narrative of the state of religion, made a report; which, being read and amended, was adopted, and ordered to be printed in the appendix to the Minutes.

Resolved, that it be recommended to all the pastors, as soon as they get a printed copy of the above report, to read it from their pulpits, accompanied with such remarks as to them may seem expedient.

The committee appointed to draught a letter to the United Secession Church of Scotland, reported the draught of a letter which, being read and amended, was adopted.

Ordered, that it be signed by the Moderator, and Permanent Clerk, and be transmitted by the Stated Clerk, to the United Secession Church of Scotland.

The Committee on the Commissioners' fund made the following report, which was adopted; viz.

The Committee have, with deep solicitude, considered the subject committed to them, and believing that without spirited exertions to raise money for this fund, there is imminent danger, that the harmony of our church will be destroyed, and that its capacity of acting in concert with efficiency, in all its great and interesting measures for promoting the gospel, will be speedily terminated, for want of a full representation of the churches in the General Assembly, propose the adoption of the following resolutions.

1. Resolved, That it be and hereby is earnestly recommended to the several Presbyteries and all the ministers under the care of the General Assembly, to urge upon the people under their care, the equity, the importance and the absolute necessity of contributing to the Commissioners' fund, in order to secure the attendance of Commissioners at the Sessions of the General Assembly, from those sections of the church, which are at the greatest distance from the place of the Assembly's meetings, and which in the divine Providence are least able to sustain the burden of expense, both of time and money, in giving such attendance.

2. Resolved, That in the judgment of this General Assembly those Presbyteries that are wealthy, and that have judged it proper to pay the expenses of their own Commissioners, are bound in a peculiar manner to contribute liberally to the general fund, in order that they may bear their due proportion of the expenses of Commissioners who attend from distant Presbyteries; which Presbyteries, and their Commissioners, in the Providence of God, are not able to pay their own expenses; and this General Assembly would fain hope, that the wealthy Presbyteries will esteem it both their privilege and their duty to make such contributions.

The Committee to whom was referred Overture No. 14. viz. "Is a minister of the Gospel in our connexion, ex-officio authorized to organize churches in the bounds of Presbyteries, without any previous order of Presbytery, directing such organization," made a report recommending the following resolution which was adopted accordingly, viz.

Resolved, That except in frontier and destitute settlements, where, by Form of Government, Chap. xv. Sect. 15, it is made a part of the business of Evangelists to organize churches; and except in cases where it is exceedingly inconvenient to make application to a Presbytery, for which provision is made in the act of Assembly of 1831, it is not the prerogative of a minister of the gospel to organize churches without the previous action of some Presbytery directing or permitting it; since in Form of Government, Chap. x. Sect. 8, to form new congregations, is enumerated among the powers of the Presbytery; and since in Chap. iv. of Bishops or Pastors, no mention is made of any such power being lodged in the hands of an individual minister.

The committee appointed to count the votes for delegates to the Congregational Union of England and Wales, made a report, when it appeared that the following persons are duly elected, viz.

Rev. Thomas M'Auley, D. D. or in case of his failure, Rev. Robert McCartee, D. D.; and Rev. Ezra Stiles Ely, D. D.; or in case of his failure the Rev. Ezra Fisk, D. D.

The Committee on Overture, No. 17, viz. an Overture to the Presbyteries on the subject of the ratio of representation, reported the following resolution, which was adopted, viz.

Resolved, That it is inexpedient to make any new Overture to the Presbyteries on the subject of representation in the Assembly for the present.

The committee appointed to count the votes for Directors of the Western Theological Seminary made a report, when it appeared, that the following persons are elected for three years, viz.

MINISTERS.	ELDERS.
Francis Herron, D. D.	Harmar Denny,
Matthew Brown, D. D.	John Hannen,
Ashbel Green, D. D.	Hugh Campbell,
Elisha P. Swift,
David Elliott,
John Stockton,
Elisha McCurdy,

And Samuel Ralston, D. D. for two years in the room of Rev. John Anderson, D. D. resigned: and Rev. Robert Patterson for one year, in the room of Joseph Stockton, deceased.

The resolution of the West Lexington Presbytery and complaint against them, and also an answer to the dissent and complaint of Messrs. Campbell, Taylor, and others, reported by the Judicial Committee, was taken up, when it was resolved, that the Assembly of 1816 have decided the point in the complaint. The Presbytery is referred for this decision of the Assembly to page 60, of the Digest, Sect. 7.

Adjourned to meet this afternoon at half past 3 o'clock.

Concluded with prayer.

MONDAY, half past 3 o'clock, P. M. The Assembly met and began with prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read.

The Assembly proceeded agreeably to the order of the day, to the election of a Professor of Ecclesiastical History and Church Government. The ballots were taken, and committed to Mr. S. Steele, Mr. J. Talmage and Mr. Murray.

The Committee appointed to draught a letter to the Congregational Union of England and Wales, reported the draught of a letter which was read and adopted. Ordered, that it be signed by the Moderator and Permanent Clerk, and be transmitted to the Congregational Union of England and Wales by the Stated Clerk.

Whereas the General Assembly regard the American Colonization Society as an Institution eminently calculated to benefit the people of colour, in these States, and alike calculated to benefit the Continent of Africa to which the blessings of civil and religious liberty are conveyed by the emigrants sent to Liberia, and through missionaries of the cross to whom every facility for accomplishing their important objects is given by the society—Therefore,

Resolved, That this General Assembly approve highly of the great objects prosecuted by the American Colonization Society; and desirous of encouraging that Institution in its arduous and important undertaking, do earnestly recommend it to all the pastors of the churches under their care to take up collections in aid of the Society on the 4th of July next, or on the Sabbath immediately preceding or succeeding that day.

The Committee to whom was referred the report of the Trustees of the General Assembly in relation to the funds; and also the report of the committee appointed by the last General Assembly, on the same subject, made a report, which was read, amended, adopted, and is as follows, viz.

That from the report of the Trustees, it appears that the permanent fund belonging to the Theological Seminary at Princeton, including the Profes-sorships, which has been received by the Treasurer of the Trustees of the General Assembly, and which is applicable to the support of the Professors, amounts to $79,566 48.

That of this sum there has been, from time to time, expended over and above the interest, $14,108 27—leaving the amount of the Permanent fund, including the Professorships, at this time $65,458 21.

The committee deplore the fact that any part of the permanent fund has been used. The Trustees have done it, however, to meet appropriations made by the Assembly, from time to time, when they had no funds to meet such appropriations, and were obliged to borrow, if the appropriations of the Assembly were met, and instead of borrowing elsewhere, they borrowed of the permanent fund, expecting that the church would repay it to such fund; and the Assembly from year to year have voted appropriations in ignorance of the state of the funds, though they have repeatedly attempted to get an accurate statement. Most of the portion of the permanent fund which has been used, has been for the annual payment of the Professors' salaries, the interest not being sufficient for this purpose: and a portion has also been borrowed and used to meet the current contingent expenses of the Assembly, the collections for the contingent fund, urged again and again upon the churches by the Assembly, having been for several years, entirely inadequate to meet the current expenses of the Assembly.

The Permanent fund of the Theological Seminary, including the professorships, amounting now, as stated before, to $65,450 21; at the present rate of interest will yield about $3446. The sum necessary to pay the present annual salaries of the Professors, including the addition made by the present Assembly to Professor Hodge's salary is $5800. From this statement it will be seen that there will be needed annually to meet the payment of Professors' salaries, the sum of at least $2354, over and above the interest of the present permanent fund. Provision must be made to raise this sum annually, or the operations of the Seminary must be suspended.

From the report of the Trustees it appears also that the permanent fund of the Seminary for education, including scholarships, which has been paid in, amounts to $63,380 33. Of this sum there has been used $5988 39.

In view of the preceding facts the committee, recommend the adoption of the following resolutions.

1. That it is inexpedient, in any case, for the Assembly to authorize the Trustees either by loan to the contingent fund of the Seminary or of the Assembly, or in any other way, to use any part of the permanent funds of the Seminary, which were given with an express understanding that nothing but the interest was to be used.

2. That it be enjoined upon the Trustees, agreeably to the directions of the Charter, to lay before the Assembly annually, at as early a period of their sessions as practicable, an exact state of the accounts of the Corporation.

3. That the Trustees be, and they are hereby requested and directed to transfer from the permanent fund applicable to the payment of Professors' salaries, to each Professorship, such sums as may be sufficient to make each Professorship good, equal to the amount which was originally paid in on such Professorship.

4. That the Trustees be also requested and directed to transfer from the Permanent Education or Students' fund, to such Scholarships as may have had any of their capital withdrawn from them, such sums as may be suffi-ent to make each Scholarship good, equal to the amount which was original-paid in, on such Scholarship, so far as such fund is sufficient for this purpose.

5. That the Trustees be requested to consider whether safe investments f the funds, or a part of them, may not be made, so as to produce a high- r rate of interest than they now yield; and if so, they are advised to endea- or to effect a change of stock.

6. That a committee be appointed whose duty it shall be, in such way as ney may deem best, to procure from the churches a sufficient sum to meet ne necessary expenses of the Seminary for the ensuing year, and further endeavor to restore and increase the permanent fund: and to carry the bject of their appointment into effect, they are hereby authorized to appoint n agent or agents, and to compensate them out of monies they may raise.

7. That it be respectfully suggested to the Assembly whether it be ot expedient, that agreeably to the provisions of the Charter, a part of the resent Board, not exceeding one-third, be changed, especially on account of he advanced age of some of the members.

Dr. J. McDowell, Dr. Green, Dr. Ely, Mr. Alexander Henry, and Mr. Ambrose White, were appointed a committee to procure funds for the Seminary, agreeably to the sixth resolution of the preceding report.

The Assembly proceeded to the election of Trustees of the General Assembly, when the following persons were elected, viz.

Mr. Matthew Newkirk, in the room of John Neilson, Esq. deceased; James Bayard, Esq. in the room of Andrew Bayard, Esq, deceased; Mr. Mathew L. Bevan, in the room of Mr. Thomas Latimer, deceased; Mr. Solomon Allen, in the room of Mr. Robert Smith; Mr. Ambrose White, in he room of Mr. Alexander Fullerton, and the Rev. John McDowell, D.D. n the room of the Rev. Archibald Alexander, D. D. The other mem- bers of the Board were continued.

The Committee appointed to count the votes for Professor of Ecclesiasti- al History and Church Government made a report, when it appeared that he Rev. Ezra Fisk, D. D. was elected to this office.

Dr. Hoge and Mr. S. Steele were appointed to inform Dr. Fisk of his election.

The Stated Clerk reported, that agreeably to a trust reposed in him, he had distributed 150 copies of the Constitution in the following manner, viz. To the Presbytery of Huron, six; to the Presbyteries of Champlain, Oswe- go, Angelica, Niagara, Cleaveland, Winchester, French Broad, and Grand River, five each; to the Presbyteries of Londonderry, St. Lawrence, Delaware, Washington, Portage, Salem, Madison, Illinois, Transylvania, and South Carolina, four each; to the Presbyteries of Otsego, Chenango, Cayuga, Ontario, Newark, Erie, Crawfordsville, Missouri, Abingdon, Union, West Tennessee, and Bethel, three each; to the Presbyteries of Troy, Tioga, Genesee, Buffalo, Long Island, Lewes, District of Columbia, Hartford, Detroit, Trumbull, and Louisville, two each; to the Presbyteries of North River, Philadelphia, Blairsville, Cincinnati, and Oxford, one each; and to a delegate from the Synod of the Reformed Dutch Church one. The above report was accepted and approved.

The committee to whom was referred the report of the Western Theolo- gical Seminary made a report, which being read and amended, was adopt- ed, and is as follows, viz.

1. That the report be approved, with the exception of a clause which no- minates a Professor, and be printed in the Appendix to the Minutes.

2. That an appropriation be made of $2,300 for the payment of the sa- laries of the professor and teacher.

The subject of printing the Form of Government, and the Discipline and Directory, in a volume separate from the Confession of Faith and Catechisms, postponed by the last Assembly for the consideration of this, was taken up, and indefinitely postponed.

The committee to whom was referred Overture, No. 16, viz. an amendment to the Constitution on the subject of appeals, complaints, &c. made a report, when the whole subject was indefinitely postponed.

Resolved, That the Assembly will this year make no change in the Board of Trustees of the Theological Seminary at Princeton.

Resolved, That the Permanent Clerk be directed to settle the following accounts, viz.

For Stationary, - - - - - - -	$6 55
Janitor, - - - - - - -	35 77½
Permanent Clerk, - - - - - -	30 00
	$72 32½

The calling of the roll was dispensed with.

The Assembly having completed its business, Resolved that this meeting be dissolved, and that another Assembly, chosen in the same manner, be required to meet in the Seventh Presbyterian Church in Philadelphia, on the third Thursday in May 1834, at 11 o'clock A. M.

Concluded with prayer, singing, and the apostolic benediction.

APPENDIX.

NARRATIVE OF THE STATE OF RELIGION

Within the bounds of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, and Corresponding Churches. May 1833.

On reviewing the reports sent up from the Presbyteries, the General Assembly find occasion for grief and joy, humiliation and gratitude. For grief and humiliation, that notwithstanding all that has been done and is now doing to remove existing evils from our country and the churches under our care, so much remains in both to be deplored. The melancholy fact still meets us, that the day which God has set apart to himself and, in the exercise of his benevolent and supreme authority, required men to keep holy, is extensively desecrated. The sacred stillness which ought to characterize it, is often broken by the hum of business, and the noise of mirth and dissipation.

Though signal success has crowned the efforts which have been made to dry up the fountains of intemperance, they still send forth their polluting, fiery streams, withering and blasting every thing fair and lovely in their course. And what is cause for the bitterest lamentation is, that some of the members of our churches, instead of aiding those who have bound themselves by a solemn pledge to abstain forever from this poison of body and soul, continue its use, its sale, and its manufacture.

The reports from the churches likewise reiterate the fact, that in some places infidelity and the man of sin are marshaling their forces, and commencing a course of systematic and vigorous operation to resist the progress of truth and holiness. And it deserves special notice, that not unfrequently they are found rallying around a common standard and combining their efforts to oppose the truth as it is in Jesus. While the Assembly regret this unholy warfare, they regard it as no equivocal indication of alarm in the camp of the enemy, and among the signs of the approaching triumph of the Gospel over error, infidelity, and all the powers of darkness.

During the past year the arm of the Lord has been revealed in judgment. That fearful pestilence, which for seventeen years has been traversing the old world, covering the nations with sackcloth and hurrying its victims to the congregation of the dead, has, in the righteous providence of God, swept over our land. Probably in no former instance have divine judgments been so manifestly commissioned to reprove sin. Comparatively few of the professed followers of the Lord Jesus, and even of the strictly temperate, have fallen by this desolating scourge. An overwhelming majority of its victims were selected from the ranks of intemperance and licentiousness. But we are pained to learn that there is so little evidence that this awful visitation has been extensively sanctified either to the Church or the world. It is feared that the following language concerning Israel may with propriety be applied to both; "When He slew them, then they sought Him; and they returned and inquired early after God; and they remembered that God was their rock, and the high God their Redeemer. Nevertheless they did flatter Him with their mouth, and they lied unto Him with their tongues: for their heart was not right with Him, neither were they steadfast in His covenant."

The past year has been less distinguished than were the two preceding years by the power of renewing and sanctifying grace. Many professing Christians have cherished a lukewarm and worldly spirit. They have greatly neglected family religion, weekly meetings for prayer and religious improvement, and the monthly concert, and withheld their contributions from those benevolent enterprises, which under God are the only hope of the spiritual renovation of the world.

tinctly recognize the sovereignty of God, they would nevertheless solemnly warn the churches against abusing this glorious and pride-abasing truth. It was never designed to cut the sinews of exertion, but to encourage effort. The facts that God bestows gratuitous favors upon our self-destroyed race, according to his own wisdom and goodness, and that he has promised to give the Holy Spirit in answer to the prayers of his people, afford sufficient encouragement to seek his reviving influences. And these facts pointedly rebuke the sin of those who seek an apology for their unbelief and sloth in the doctrine of divine sovereignty. Such will do well to remember, that the least defection in heart from the blessed Saviour—all indifference to his kingdom and the interests of perishing souls, is the object of divine abhorrence. "These things, saith the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the beginning of the creation of God: I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot. I would thou wert cold or hot. So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot I will spew thee out of my mouth." It will be soon enough to seek comfort from the sovereignty of God under the absence of special divine influence, when we have repented of all our sins, and discharged all our duties. The Assembly would therefore address the churches under their care in the following language of the evangelical prophet, "Ye that make mention of the Lord, keep not silence, and give him no rest till he make Jerusalem a praise in the earth."

But notwithstanding our departure from God, he has not wholly abandoned us to the blighting and deadly influence of spiritual judgments. In the midst of deserved wrath, he has remembered mercy. The general attendance upon the means of grace has been good. Weekly lectures and prayer meetings are maintained.

The monthly concert of prayer is observed in most, if not all the churches, and we cannot but hail the growing interest that is manifested in it, as a decided indication of an increase of the missionary spirit, and more ardent desire for the conversion of the world. We learn also that Biblical and Catechetical instruction has been more abundantly dispensed. Sabbath school operations have been prosecuted with augmented zeal, and received renewed tokens of divine approbation. From among those placed under their enlightening influence, the Shepherd of Israel has gathered many lambs into his fold, and "out of the mouths of babes and sucklings perfected praise."

Objects of Christian charity, though sharing less in the affections and contributions of the Lord's people than they ought, are regarded with continued attention. Their hearts are evidently expanding with that celestial charity that "seeketh not her own," and they are doing more to bring back a revolted world to their allegiance to God.

We would also notice, with fervent gratitude, special divine favor in the effusions of the Holy Spirit. "He has not dealt with us according to our sins, nor rewarded us according to our iniquities." From ninety-two Presbyteries, which have made reports, it appears that 62 have been favored with "times of refreshing from the presence of the Lord." Upon more or less of the churches under the care of thirty-six of these Presbyteries, divine influence has descended like the morning dew or gentle showers. In some of them a few only of their congregations, while in others several, and in some nearly all have been cheered and blessed with these gracious visitations. Their good effects are apparent in the increased humility, zeal, and activity of the disciples of the Saviour, and the accessions to their number from the world of such as we trust he will own as his, when he shall make up his jewels.

But the Lord has done greater things for us than these, whereof we are glad. Twenty-six of the Presbyteries report revivals of equal extent and power with any which occurred in preceding years. The Lord has made bare his arm in behalf of his heritage. His people have been humbled and revived, and exhibited delightful evidence of increased devotedness to his service, and proud rebels have been made to bow at his feet. From them he has taken all the armor in which they trusted, silenced their self-justifying pleas, and constrained them to ascribe righteousness to him, and sue for mercy at the foot of the cross. These glorious exhibitions of divine power and grace have been made in all portions of our widely extended limits.

Nor are the subjects of renovating mercy confined to any particular age or class.

They are found among the aged and the young, among the rich and the poor, the bond and the free, the learned and the ignorant, the polished and the rude. Yet all, notwithstanding this diversity of condition and circumstances, agree in ascribing their rescue from endless sin and suffering to God's rich and discriminating grace. They acknowledge Christ as their Master and Lord, and cheerfully devote themselves to his service. For all these trophies of redeeming mercy, let Zion's God be praised. The Assembly regard revivals of religion as the great purifyers of our moral atmosphere, and the most important means of replenishing the church on earth with living, active members, and of peopling heaven with redeemed sinners. They would therefore exhort the churches to pray without ceasing, "O Lord, revive thy work," and to act in accordance with this inspired petition.

In regard to the means which have been blessed in promoting this precious work of mercy, the churches have reported little that is new or extraordinary. The truth, plainly exhibited and pungently applied, has been, (as it always must be,) the grand instrument. It has been successfully presented by means of Sabbath school and Bible class instruction, protracted meetings, and most of all, the ordinary exercises of the pulpit. In these revivals God has signally appeared as the answerer of fervent, believing prayer. The progress of the temperance reformation has likewise often prepared the way for the gracious footsteps of our God.

It is gratifying to find that the benevolent institutions of the age have prosecuted their God-like work with increasing zeal, and have generally received liberal patronage.

The American Bible Society has issued 91,168 Bibles and Testaments, making an aggregate of 1,533,668 since its organization. It reports continued attention to the supply of our own country, and the re-supply of many portions. Donations have been made for the printing of the Scriptures at Bombay, the Sandwich Islands and Burmah. The Board have resolved to appropriate $30,000 the present year for printing and circulating the Scriptures in foreign countries and among the aborigines of our own, and adopted a resolution in connexion with other kindred institutions to supply as speedily as possible every accessible portion of our world with the word of God.

The spirit of Missions both Foreign and Domestic is manifestly increasing. More has been contributed to this cause than during any preceding year. The American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions have now under their direction two hundred and twenty-seven labourers in various parts of the world, and thirteen ordained missionaries and three assistants have recently received appointments to foreign fields. In the wane of long established systems of idolatry, the facilities of intercourse with almost the whole world, the readiness of the nations to receive the Gospel, the translation of the Scriptures into various and some of the most difficult languages, together with the power of the press in diffusing Christian knowledge, the church possesses unprecedented advantages for furnishing the entire population of the globe with the means of salvation. With these encouraging facts spread out before us, the ear of faith can scarcely fail to hear the ascended Saviour saying,—"Behold I say unto you, lift up your eyes, and look on the fields, for they are white already to harvest."

The Western Foreign Missionary Society is commencing a course of operation truly laudable and encouraging. It has sent one Missionary to Africa. It is preparing to send two Missionaries very shortly to Northern India; and other plans of Missionary effort, both among the aborigines of our own country and the Pagans of other lands, are maturing.

The Assembly's Board of Missions has labored with pleasing progress, in the work of supplying our destitute churches with the bread of life. It has employed within the year two hundred and sixty-nine missionaries. It has six hundred Sessional and sixty-four Presbyterial Auxiliaries, embracing one thousand ministers, and one thousand five hundred churches. The Missionaries report thirty new churches organized, thirty-two houses of worship erected, and several others in progress. Four thousand individuals are employed in giving instruction, and twenty-five thousand children are taught in Sabbath schools. They have also eight hundred Bible classes, embracing ten thousand learners; and five hundred temperance societies have been established, whose members amount to twenty-five thousand. God has also honoured their labours by making them instrumental in producing several interesting revivals of religion.

The success of the American Home Missionary Society has been highly encouraging. During the year past, it has employed six hundred and five ministers, who have laboured as missionaries or agents in eight hundred and one congregations. The amount of ministerial labour reported to have been performed is four hundred and sixteen years and nine months. The number added to the churches on profession of their faith is four thousand two hundred and eighty-four; the whole number added six thousand and forty-one. One hundred and one churches have been blessed with revivals, and three thousand four hundred and thirty-five hopeful conversions have been reported. Connected with the churches aided by the society, are seven hundred and seventy Sabbath schools, embracing thirty-one thousand one hundred and forty scholars. They further report three hundred and seventy-eight Bible classes, containing eleven thousand pupils: and fifty-three thousand seven hundred and forty-six persons who are pledged to the principle of total abstinence from intoxicating drinks.

The operations of the American Tract Society have been considerably extended during the year. They have printed nearly forty millions of pages of tracts, and circulated little less than fifty millions. A number of new tracts have been added to their former publications. They have entered upon the great work of furnishing the world with those leaves which are for the healing of the nations, and have appropriated for the present year ten thousand dollars to foreign parts. These they are urged to occupy by providential indications, and the imploring cry of millions who are famishing for the bread of life.

The Board of Education of the General Assembly has been much prospered in its efforts to furnish men for the Gospel ministry. They have now under their care, regularly reported and enrolled, four hundred and twenty students. Not regularly reported, but estimated to be under the care of eighteen auxiliaries, 22, making a total under their care from nineteen states, and pursuing their studies in 81 schools and seminaries of learning, four hundred and fifty young men. Of these, fifty are studying with reference to foreign fields, and six for Liberia. The Board are acting upon the pledge given to the Churches to receive and sustain every young man of suitable qualifications for the ministry applying for patronage. They are also as far as practicable striving to educate men within those portions of the country where they will probably labour, after they enter upon the great work.

The American Education Society is prosecuting its work with increasing vigour. At present it is sustaining between six and seven hundred young men in a course of education for the ministry.

The Presbyterian Education Society, a co-ordinate institution, has now four hundred and seventy-one students in seventy-one seminaries of learning. During the year past one hundred and sixty-two have been received, and twenty-five have been licensed to preach the Gospel. No worthy applicant has ever been refused the benefactions of the society, and both Boards have pledged themselves never to refuse one. They are already educating men in nearly every section of the United States and are labouring to excite the zeal of their patrons to extend their operations until it can no longer with truth be said,—"the harvest is plenteous, but the labourers are few." In view of the indispensable necessity of an increase of well qualified ministers, in order to carry forward all the great enterprises of benevolence and execute the command of the risen Saviour, "Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature," the Assembly would earnestly commend the Education Cause to the prayers and liberality of the Churches.

The American Sunday School Union is going forward in its noble work. During the last three years it has secured the establishment of four thousand two hundred and forty-five schools in the valley of the Mississippi, embracing probably more than two hundred thousand scholars. The number of books put in circulation in that part of our country by this enterprise is estimated to exceed half a million. The Society however considers what has been done as only a good beginning of the work that ought to be done, and proposes to carry forward a systematic course of effort to advance this cause in that part of the land. It has also undertaken the establishment of a Sabbath school in every neighbourhood in the Southern States where it is practicable, within the period of five years. Special efforts are making to enlist the churches in its aid, and the plan of their proposed operations is published in their report, which we recommend to the notice of those who love the cause of the religious education of the rising generation.

The Seamen's Friend Society has been steadily pursuing its good work. Three chaplains have been commissioned to foreign stations. Several chapels and houses of worship have been erected and procured in places where they were much needed. More than heretofore has been done in our great sea-ports in providing boarding houses suitable for seamen. The Temperance cause has rapidly advanced among them. Something has already been done and more is doing to abolish in the United States Navy the long established custom of giving rations of liquor, and some very interesting openings are now known to exist in foreign ports for the introduction of chaplains and the promotion of the cause in various ways.

The American Colonization Society has been favoured during the past year with unprecedented success. The colony at Liberia is in a prosperous condition. Additional purchases of territory have been made. Agriculture, commerce, education, and morals are all on the advance. Six vessels within the year have sailed for Liberia; freighted with seven hundred and ninety emigrants, of whom two hundred and forty-seven were manumitted slaves. The Society has opened a wide door for the introduction of civilization and Christianity to injured and oppressed Africa. It is furnishing a free and peaceful retreat for our colored population and promises incalculable good both to that and our own country.

There is nothing which more decidedly marks the progress of correct sentiment among us and throughout the land than the success which has attended the efforts to promote the temperance reformation. From the report of the American Temperance Society and other publications, the following conclusions seem to be warranted, that there are now in this and other countries more than six thousand Temperance Societies, embracing more than a million of members. More than two thousand men have ceased to make ardent spirit; more than six thousand have ceased to sell it; more than seven hundred vessels have ceased to carry it; and more than five thousand drunkards ceased to use intoxicating drink. More than fifty thousand are now sober, who, had there been no change in public sentiment on this subject, would have been drunkards, and more than three hundred thousand children are in a good measure delivered from that parental influence and example which tend to make them drunkards.

Ten churches in Boston now have in them no member connected with the traffic in ardent spirit; twenty in New York, and eight others have in them but one in each, and more than a thousand in other parts of the country are entirely free from the venders of this poison.

The Ecclesiastical Bodies of New England, whose correspondence we enjoy and would affectionately cherish, represent their churches as being upon the whole in a prosperous state. They still lament, as we do, the prevalence of intemperance and Sabbath breaking, and state that they have been less favored during the last year than in several years previous with revivals of religion. They are not, however, without joy and grounds for thanksgiving. The churches are walking in the peace and order of the Gospel. The cause of benevolence is steadily, and that of temperance rapidly advancing. In the county of Plymouth, where the pilgrim fathers landed, not a single license has been granted for the sale of ardent spirits.

We learn from the report of the Reformed Dutch Church made by the last General Synod, that it embraces two hundred and ten churches, one hundred and eighty of which are supplied with settled pastors. The year preceding the last was a year of remarkable increase. Four thousand were added to the churches on profession of their faith, making a total of twenty-one thousand communicants in the entire body. The various benevolent institutions of the age are receiving special attention. Arrangements have been made by the Synod for conducting Foreign Missions, and it is understood they will probably devote their efforts to the field explored by the Rev. Mr. Abeel, a missionary from that church.

In conclusion, this review of the state of religion within our bounds is adapted to humble us on account of our sins and the judgments we suffer because of them—to excite the most fervent gratitude to the Author of all our mercies, and engage us more diligently to seek his blessing in the up-building of his kingdom.

One consideration is specially fitted to quicken our zeal and activity. Death has been fulfilling his commission. Not only have thousands of the guilty and unprepared been cut down and hastened to their final doom, but several of the watchmen upon the walls of Zion have fallen, and the labors of many of the active disciples of Christ have terminated. While we pause to shed the tear of affection and regret over their memory and their loss, these solemn dispensations admonish us that what we do must be done quickly. Impressed with the fact, that our work is great and the period of labor short and uncertain, the Assembly in closing their narrative, would say to every minister and member of the churches, "Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave whither thou goest."

By order of the General Assembly,

EZRA STILES ELY, Stated Clerk.

REPORT

OF THE UNION THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

The Board of Directors of Union Theological Seminary report to the General Assembly, that the whole number of students in the Institution, during the last year, has been 35.

Of these, the following, viz. Adolphus C. Shaves, Wm. E. Withrow, Thos. Morrow, Henry I. Venable, Samuel R. Houston, Ferdinand Jacobs, Daniel G. Doak, Louis J. Klipstine, Samuel Wilson, Alexander McCorkle, Henry H. Paine, Warren B. Hutton, John Steele, Alfred Royster, David H. Cunningham, Samuel L. Lamberson, Thomas R. Owen, Cortlandt Van Rensselaer, William A. Shaw, Alexander E. Wilson, have been received into the Seminary since the last annual report to the Assembly. During the same term, the following students, viz. Thomas P. Johnston, John Patton, Dion C. Pharr, Philo Calhoun, Evander McNair, Samuel J. Price, Hector McLain, have been licensed to preach the Gospel, by their respective Presbyteries. At the close of the last summer session, the following persons, viz. Philo Calhoun, Samuel J. Price, Evander McNair, Hector McLean, Thomas J. Johnston, completed the full course of study prescribed in the plan, and received certificates to that effect.

At present, there are connected with the Institution 32 students, viz. in the junior class 13; in the middle class 12; in the senior class 7.

At the close of each session, the students have been examined on all the studies of the session, in the presence of a committee of the Board. These examinations have afforded satisfactory evidence of fidelity and ability on the part of the Professors, and of diligence and success in the acquisition of knowledge and intellectual training for their work by the students.

At the present meeting of the Board, the Rev. Saml. L. Graham has been elected Professor of Ecclesiastical History and Church Polity in the Seminary, but he has declined accepting the appointment, and the Institution is still without a professor in that chair. As heretofore, the Professor of Christian Theology will give instruction in that department, until a professor can be obtained. The Board have engaged the valuable services of Mr. Ballentine, as assistant teacher of Biblical Literature for the present year.

The buildings of the Institution are now sufficient to accommodate one hundred students.

Through the liberality of the friends of the Seminary, suitable furniture has been provided for the rooms, as fast as they have been needed by the students. Many valuable articles of clothing have been received from the same source during the year.

The library has been removed into the spacious and convenient apartment prepared for it in the new building, and some valuable additions have been made to it since the last report.

The funds of the Institution are in condition to encourage the hope, that by vigorous effort it may soon be relieved from pecuniary embarrassment. There is a prospect that the endowments of the three professorships, contemplated in the plan, will be speedily completed; and the Board have adopted measures, at their present meeting, which will lead, it is hoped, to the early extinguishment of the debt contracted for the buildings.

It is with great pleasure that the Board express their conviction that the general character of the members of the Institution, as to personal piety and devotedness to their work, is such as they who love the cause of Christ, must approve. Especially would they notice here, an increasing interest among them in the great work of preaching the Gospel to the Heathen. It is hoped the Institution will soon have its representatives in more than one region of the unevangelized world. It deserves also to be mentioned with gratitude to God, that very many who have gone out from the Seminary heretofore, are distinguished by their self-denying zeal in laboring in the wide and desolate regions of our southern country. More than half of them have been favored, since they commenced their ministry, with special revivals of religion. All which is respectfully submitted.

By order of the Board,

J. H. C. LEACH, Secretary.

SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE WESTERN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

The Board of Directors of the Western Theological Seminary avail themselves of the present occasion respectfully to lay before the General Assembly a report of their own proceedings, and of the progress and present state of that Institution, the interests of which it is their privilege and their duty to superintend.

The number of students in the Seminary at the date of our last report, was 29. During the year the following students have been licensed to preach the Gospel, and have closed their connexion with the Institution, viz. A. D. Pollock, Loyal Young, John C. Lowrie, Wm. Reed, James Porter, and W. A. Adair. Messrs. James Wilson, and John W. Johnston have been licensed; but will continue the session and complete their course. Mr. Thomas A. Carothers was removed by death, and Mr. Samuel M. Wilson retired on account of ill health. Messrs. P. L. McAboy and Wm. Orr have also withdrawn from the Seminary.

During the same period, the following persons have been admitted, viz.

1. Silas Coe, of the Western Reserve College, Ohio.
2. Samuel Hare, Jefferson College, Pa.
3. Richard Lee, Western University, Pa.
4. William Marshall, Jefferson College, Pa.
5. William McCormick, do. do.
6. James Ralston, do. do.
7. Benjamin Sawhill, do. do.
8. Hamilton Smith, do. do.
9. James Wilson, do. do.
10. Wm. H. Vandoren, Columbia College, N. Y.
11. David McArthur, do. do.
12. Wm. M. Hall, of Lewistown, Pa.

The number of students now in connexion with the Seminary is 30. The Professors in their report say, "The students have generally enjoyed good health, especially those who have spent a portion of their time in manual labor. Their industry in study, and Christian propriety of deportment, have been commendable. They are all engaged on the Lord's day, in promoting the influence of the Sunday Schools in this vicinity. The missionary spirit has been evidently increasing in the institution. Several students have already offered themselves, and others are preparing to follow their example, that they may declare among the heathen 'the unsearchable riches of Christ.'"

The members of the Seminary have passed the semi-annual examination with approbation, and the manual labor plan has lost nothing of its interest in the progress of the experiment. On the contrary, the Board have been induced to adopt measures to facilitate and extend its application.

In carrying forward the unfinished parts of the building, there has been expended $2147 76 and $1,300, have been employed in the payment of the salaries of the Professor and Teacher from the appropriations of the last Assembly. The unexp balance, however, of former appropriations, will it is believed be sufficient to meet the demands of the current year in the intended additions or improvements to be made, but the Board would respectfully request an appropriation of $2,300 to apply to the payment of the Professor and Teacher during the same period.

A number of articles have been received of wearing apparel, room furniture, bedding, &c. which cannot be correctly enumerated.

The Professors in their report to the Board introduced the following remarks: "But while we report the increasing prosperity of the Institution, and gratefully record the favors of the great Head of the Church, so undeservedly bestowed, the Senior Instructor is constrained to say that he distinctly perceives himself breaking in mind and body and must again crave the attention of the Board to the necessity of providing another Instructor. This arrangement would enable him to do more justice to himself and the charge intrusted to him by the church. The interests of the Seminary, the expectations of the Church, the hopes of the rising Missionary Society of the West, the onward enterprise of the age, demand that such a measure should be speedily adopted; or for one of your servants an earlier grave is morally certain."

In the action of the Board upon this subject among other resolutions they adopted the following:

2. "Resolved, That it is expedient to appoint an additional Professor, and that the Rev. Ezra Fisk, D. D. be recommended to the Assembly, and that they be respectfully requested at their next meeting to appoint him to the Professorship of Ecclesiastical History and Church Government."

The term of service of the following Directors expires during the present sessions of the Assembly: viz. the Rev. Matthew Brown, D. D., Ashbel Green, D.D., F. Herron, D. D., Samuel Ralston, D. D., Elisha Macurdy, Elisha P. Swift, and Daniel Elliott, ministers; and John Hannen, Harmar Denny, and William Hartupie, elders. Two vacancies have also occurred in the Board by the death of the Rev. Joseph Stockton, and the Rev. Dr. John Anderson declining to serve.

Commending this Seminary to the kind regard—the watchful care—the fervent prayers—and the supporting hand of the Assembly,—the Board of Directors would conclude, by commending the Assembly itself, and all the interests over which they are appointed to watch, to the favour and constant care of the great and beneficent Head of that Church which he hath purchased with his own blood.

LETTER

FROM THE CONGREGATIONAL UNION OF ENGLAND AND WALES.

Congregational Library, 9th July, 1832.

At a meeting of the Committee of the Congregational Union held here this day, it was Resolved, That the Secretaries transmit a copy of the report of the last general meeting to Ezra Stiles Ely, D. D., Stated Clerk of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, accompanied by a letter to that body, expressive of our desire to cherish the most cordial friendship with them, and to cultivate more assiduously that correspondence and that intercourse, which have occasionally taken place between the two connexions."

REV. AND DEAR SIR,—In conformity with the above resolution we have the pleasure of transmitting you some copies of the Report of the general meeting held here, in May last, for the formation of the Congregational Union.

Our satisfaction in commencing a correspondence with the venerable body of fellow Christians which you represent, is much increased, from the confidence that our communications will be received with reciprocal interest and regard on your part, and that of our esteemed brethren of the Presbyterian communion in the United States of America.

We reflect, with much interest, on the correspondence which has occasionally taken place between your body and some portions of our own: we refer more particularly to the letter addressed by the Board of Congregational Ministers of London and its vicinity, in March, 1829, to the moderator and members of your General Assembly, and their animated and affectionate reply. The concluding paragraph of that answer we beg to quote, that you may be assured how cordially we respond to every sentiment it breathes. "We tender to you our cordial thanks for your gratifying and fraternal letter. We solicit the continuance of this correspondence. We trust it will prove a blessed instrument of enlarging our charity, and exciting us to more fervent prayers for teach other; of the mutual communication of interesting intelligence; and of drawing the hearts of those who love Christ in England and America into a closer union. We hope the time is not far distant, when an interchange of delegates in our respective bodies, may strengthen the bonds of Christian fellowship and benevolent co-operation."

You will not fail to perceive the advantage given to our body, by the formation of the Union now announced to you, inasmuch as we are thus enabled to correspond and co-operate in a combined and corporate form;—especially in respect to that pleasing hint in your letter—"the interchange of delegates in our respective bodies." We were much gratified by the presence of our brethren from America at our general meeting, whose names are mentioned in our Report; but we should have been much more gratified, could they have appeared amongst us, as "delegates from their respective bodies." Let us hope, dear sir, that the mutual gratification of such a deputation is reserved for us at subsequent meetings of our bodies; and that it will prove a means of consolidating the ministers and churches of such approximating and kindred communions in the same religious interests and operations. Our cause is one and the same,—the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ; and whatever may be lawfully employed for advancing this cause, we are mutally interested in promoting: some agencies of this nature you have adopted from British example; others we are adopting from yours.

We take the deepest interest in the information received from you and our congregational brethren of New Eng'and, respecting the revivals of religion amongst you; and we have perused, with great edification, the luminous and affecting statements of our esteemed brother, the Rev. Calvin Colton, in his work on that important subject lately published here. The evidence appears most demonstrably to prove, that the work is deep and genuine and permanent, and to be desired in Britain and in all parts of the habitable globe.

You are, however, free from that bane of all vital efficacious religion—an ecclesiastical establishment. Your fathers fled from its withering and blasting influence, and you, their favoured offspring, are enjoying the happy effects of their faith and piety and zeal for God. To this topic in your letter to the board, already referred to, we turn with entire approbation when you say: "We rejoice with you, Christian brethren, in the extension of enlarged and liberal views in regard to toleration. The question seems to us to be thoroughly settled, by the experience of this country, that the church of Christ flourishes more without any connexion with the State, than it could do, if were made a part of our civil polity. At this late age of the world, when all the people must be taught to read and to think, and when God has shown himself willing to impart his own energy in aid of truth, we are not afraid to rely upon free discussion, without the supports of human law to sustain our ecclesiastical privileges."

These noble sentiments we could wish reiterated from shore to shore! We point with exultation to your example, as affording an undeniable proof that, in these days, as well as in the first ages of our faith, the Gospel asks only for liberty to propagate itself to the ends of the earth; and dreads nothing so much as the embrace of potentates and prelates, and the emoluments, honors, and authority of this world. We hope the period is approaching with us, when your example will have its due weight in our nation, and that, at length, Britons will learn the simple truth, which interested men have kept them from discovering, that religion flourishes only by voluntary support, and declines under a system of compulsion.

While we would not unduly exalt the form and order of the church of Chirst, and set it above the doctrine and practice of the Gospel, we would not be insensible to the great importance of aiming to attain scriptural views and observances on this point. Deeply impressed with the value and the duty of unity among true Christians throughout the world, we court the present intercourse with you, dear sir, and our dear brethren of your community in America and other parts of the world; assured that we shall lose nothing desirable by this intercommunion, and hoping that, by more intimate acquaintance and fellowship, we may gain accessions to our knowledge and spiritual edification. We feel that, as a body of Congregational ministers and churches, we now by our Union, stand in the same relation to you, as your neighbors of New England of our order; and, as the intercommunion between you and them has long been established on the most harmonious and edifying terms, we would cherish the pleasing expectation, that a similar mutual recognition and established intercourse may take place between you and us.

If there be any impediments in the way, we earnestly desire their speedy removal, that we may, as far as possible, be "one in Christ Jesus."

In exchange for the documents now transmitted relative to our union, we should feel obliged by your sending to us those which may inform us of your state and concerns. In your prosperity we shall not cease to rejoice. Our best wishes and fervent prayers ascend to heaven in your behalf, and we request that our name may be remembered in your devotions. We would "strive together with you for the faith of the Gospel;" we would be identified with you against the common enemies of the Lord, and on the side of you and "all who love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity."

We request that this communication may be presented, according to your order, to your reverend assembly and your whole body—if thought to be worthy of that honourable regard. With the best personal wishes and with Christian esteem, we are Rev. and dear sir, your friends and fellow servants in the Gospel of Christ.

PREFACE TO THE STATISTICAL TABLE.

In the following table the reader will please to take notice, that P. attached to a minister's name, denotes that he is Pastor of some church; and P. added to the name of a church, signifies that it has a Pastor. W. C. stands for the words without charge; S. S. for stated supply; O. S. for occasional supply; V. for vacant; Presb. for Presbytery; Prest. for President of some college; Prof. for Professor in some college or theological seminary; Miss. for Missionary; Chap. for Chaplain to the United States Navy, or some public station; Ch. for Church; Cong. for Congregational.

The post office address of a minister or licentiate, is to be sought for in the right hand column, on the same line with the name at the left; and the reader is not to regard any intervening name of a church, which may, or may not be the one in which the preacher whose name is opposite to it, is the pastor or stated supply. A church which is vacant and marked V., will often be found in the same line with a minister W. C., without charge; for by this arrangement, the table is brought within a narrower compass than it could otherwise be.

The stated clerks of Presbyteries are earnestly requested to make their future returns in the form of the printed report forwarded to them as one sheet of this pamphlet, and chargeable only as one sheet of a periodical.

Particularly they are requested not to introduce into the tabular part of the Report any extraneous matter, but to obey strictly the regulations of the Assembly; for, new columns, and explanations not required, cost the Stated Clerk of the Assembly no little time in expunging them, before the reports can be sent to the printer. Each Stated Clerk of Presbytery is also respectfully reminded, that it is his duty to give the TOTALS of the columns in their proper places; and that the writer of this Preface is not answerable for all the arithmetical calculations of his brethren.

Funds collected for different missionary purposes in any congregation, should be returned in one sum, in the column for missionary funds, instead of being distinguished by the different objects for which they were collected.

All money collected for the charitable education of youth, in infant, Sabbath, and other schools, academies, and seminaries, and especially in those of a theological character, should be named in one sum, under the heading of "Education Funds." When columns of figures are returned, they are worse than useless.

Of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, for 1833.

This portion of the Catholic Church of Christ in the world, under one General Assembly of bishops and ruling elders, styled commissioners, which, with the delegates from corresponding bodies, in May last, consisted of two hundred and seventy-four persons, comprehends, according to the returns now in my possession, twenty-two synods; one hundred and eleven presbyteries; eighteen hundred and fifty-five ordained bishops; two hundred and fifteen licentiates; making two thousand and seventy teachers of the gospel; two hundred and twenty-nine candidates in a state of preparation for the ministry; twenty-five hundred churches; and two hundred thirty-three thousand five hundred and eighty communicants. Our INCREASE during the last year has been in bishops one hundred and twenty-five, in licentiates ten, in candidates nine, in ordained and licensed preachers one hundred and thirty-five, in churches one hundred and nineteen, and in communicants sixteen thousand two hundred and forty-two. The communicants added on examination last year were twenty-three thousand five hundred and forty-six; being ten thousand six hundred and fourteen LESS than were reported in 1832, as added in the same way. Seven thousand two hundred and fifty-two were added last year by certificate from other churches, or passed from one of our congregations to another, being three hundred and sixty-six MORE than were received in the same manner the year previous. The total of additions now reported, is thirty thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight. Of these, fourteen thousand five hundred and fifty-six must be considered as equal to the number of persons who have deceased, or been dismissed or suspended, or who were at the time of making the reports in a state of transition from the care of one session to another, or who for some reason have not been reported as members: leaving as above stated, the net gain in communicants of 1833, over the whole number of 1832, at sixteen thousand two hundred and forty-two. The baptisms now returned, amount to twenty-one thousand eight hundred and twenty; of which six thousand nine hundred and fifty were of adults, fourteen thousand and thirty-five of infants, and eight hundred and thirty-five of persons not distinguished. The baptisms of 1832 exceeded those of 1833 by two thousand eight hundred and eighty-three. The funds reported as having been collected in the year preceding the meeting of the last General Assembly, were for MISSIONARY PURPOSES, seventy-six thousand four hundred twenty dollars and thirty-nine cents; for defraying the expenses of COMMISSIONERS to the Assembly, four thousand six hundred eighty-nine dollars and fifty-eight cents; for different THEOLOGICAL SEMINARIES, six thousand three hundred eleven dollars and twenty-three cents; for the EDUCATION of poor and pious youth, principally with reference to their becoming ministers of the gospel, forty-seven thousand one hundred fifty-three dollars and sixty-five cents; and for the CONTINGENT EXPENSES of the Assembly, eight hundred ninety two dollars and eighty-seven cents; which give a total of one hundred thirty-five thousand four hundred sixty-seven dollars and seventy-two cents collected for charitable uses. This sum is less than the total for the same objects in 1832, by two thousand three hundred and fifty-one dollars and sixty-seven cents. Eleven presbyteries have made no returns of any collections; and four have reported only on the commissioner's fund. In all the presbyteries, there are several churches which have made no reports on any subject, for some time past; and some which have never returned so much as the number of their communicants since I have been stated clerk. Our statistics, however, are much more complete than they formerly were; and must be regarded as a near approximation to an exact statement of the numbers and operations of our whole body.

The following names of deceased Presbyterian ministers of our connexion, should have been given last year, viz.

Rev. Duncan M'Intyre of the Presbytery of Fayetteville, and Rev. John T. Hamilton of the Presbytery of West Lexington.

Since the last publication on this subject, the subscriber has ascertained the deaths of the following twenty-six brethren; viz.

Rev. Ebenezer Fitch, D. D. } of the Presbytery of Ontario.
—— Jeremiah Stow, } of the Presbytery of Onondaga.
—— Talcot Bates, } of the Presbytery of Onondaga.
